GLAZER CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

On October 15, 2007, the Glazer Family Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum in Tampa, scheduled to open in Fall 2009. The new Glazer Children's Museum will be a 50,000 square foot non-profit educational and cultural facility.

It will feature a combination of permanent and traveling exhibits, comprehensive year-round programs, and special events. The Museum will offer families a safe, stimulating and playful environment where children and adults can learn about themselves, each other, and the world they live in through exploration and role-playing. Just as importantly, it will serve as an early childhood educational resource for local schools and as a program partner with local and regional family and child service providers.

"Our family is dedicated to enriching the lives of youth in the Tampa Bay area through a variety of programs and grants. We understand and appreciate the importance of positively shaping the lives of children, which is why we are proud to help finance the construction of a new children's museum for families throughout West Central Florida to enjoy," said Buccaneers Executive Vice President Bryan Glazer.

The Glazer Children's Museum will be located along the Hillsborough River in downtown Tampa near the new Tampa Museum of Art and the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center.

ONE BUCCANEER PLACE

136,320 TOTAL SQUARE FEET • 33 ACRES • 3 PRACTICE FIELDS • 2,400 SQUARE FOOT AUDITORIUM • 6,600 SQUARE FOOT LOCKER ROOM
9,353 SQUARE FOOT WEIGHT ROOM • 3,496 SQUARE FOOT DINING ROOM • 4,590 SQUARE FOOT MEDIA WORK ROOM & STUDIO

They grace the Bay area skyline as twin monuments to the power and passion of professional football: Raymond James Stadium, "The Crown Jewel of the NFL," and now its partner in excellence, One Buccaneer Place, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' new training facility.

Within walking distance of the stadium, the Buccaneers' new home is already being touted as the standard by which all future sports facilities will be measured. No effort was spared in making this the most expansive facility in the NFL, equipped with every modern amenity and the latest tools of the profession. Opening to rave reviews among league insiders last summer, it has made Tampa the preferred destination for free agent players, prospective coaches and administrators.

The new team headquarters is a combination of function, style and space - much, much more space than the Buccaneers have ever enjoyed. The facility encompasses 136,320 square feet covering 33 acres and includes three practice fields behind the main buildings.

The team has used that space to raise the bar in every category of team preparation, from the massive locker room to the weight room building. Add in the team auditorium, media work room and studio, a remarkably-equipped team dining room and countless other features and you have, hands down, the best facility in the NFL.

"The new facility gives our players, coaches and staff an unparalleled environment in which to work," said Buccaneers Executive Vice President Joel Glazer.

The signature of the new facility is its spectacular entrance, which is adorned with the world's largest football. The sleek steel-and-glass construct is five stories tall, point to point, and angles against the main building as if it were on a tee, ready to start the game.

The two-story main building stretches away to both sides of the football, fronted by appealing walls of glass that call to mind the most notable exterior feature of Raymond James Stadium. Inside, the building is state-of-the-art in every way, from the rehabilitation pools in the training room to fully-integrated video equipment in every meeting room and coach's office. It is, simply, the ideal place to build a championship football team.

"We were already playing in the NFL's best stadium and working for owners who are completely dedicated to winning," said Head Coach Jon Gruden. "Now we are working, practicing and preparing every day in a state-of-the-art facility that has everything we need."

Moment of Victory

For the first time since Super Bowl XXXVII, those featured in the "Moment of Victory" sculpture gathered together in the lobby of the new One Buccaneer Place. The sculpture depicts the moments when the Buccaneers were assured of their first World Championship and commemorates Tampa Bay's 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. MALCOLM GLAZER

OWNER/PRESIDENT

When Malcolm Glazer triumphantly hoisted the Lombardi Trophy on January 26, 2003 after his Tampa Bay Buccaneers emphatically defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 in Super Bowl XXXVII, his celebratory stance and smile signified to a world-wide audience that the Buccaneers had indeed arrived.

That world championship – the franchise's first in its then 27-year history – marked the fulfillment of a vow by Glazer and his family to not only restore the long-lost success of Tampa's much-beloved franchise, but in fact to surpass any and all previous standards by capturing the team's first World Championship.

Glazer and the Buccaneers helped wipe away years of futility experienced by the team, its players and their fans in fulfilling that promise. The club continues to be one of the most successful in the league under his leadership. Among the vanguard of the business elite, Glazer has, through his dedication and diligence, helped mold the Buccaneers into a model franchise, one respected league-wide and one other sports franchises endeavor to emulate.

Since being purchased by Glazer on January 16, 1995, the Buccaneers franchise has experienced a dramatic upswing in its fortunes, posting a .524 winning percentage, earning seven playoff berths and capturing its first Super Bowl championship. In 2005, the team notched its 100th overall victory with the Glazers at the helm. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers won just 87 games in 19 seasons, posting a .300 winning percentage.

Under Glazer's watch, the Buccaneers' seven playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for third-most in the NFL. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994. In addition, Tampa Bay has reached the playoffs six times since 1999, tied for second-best in the league.

The drive to the Super Bowl title began when he made the controversial and courageous decision to hire Jon Gruden as the Buccaneers' seventh head coach in club history on February 18, 2002. Gruden, one of the rising coaching stars in the National Football League, became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. He was also the first non- rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

Tampa Bay also eclipsed the club record for wins in a regular season with 12 in 2002. In fact, the top five single-season win totals in club history (12 in 2002, 11 in 2005, 11 in 1999, 10 in 2000 and 10 in 1997) have all come under Glazer's helm, and Tampa Bay was the only team in the league to play in the postseason every year from 1999 to 2002. The 2007 campaign saw the Buccaneers claim their third NFC South Division title in six years, the sixth division crown in franchise history. The three titles are the most for any team in the division since its inception in 2002.

The Buccaneers have an 96-80 record since the start of the 1997 season, a winning percentage of .545 that ranks in the top five in the NFC over that span. The dominating Buccaneers defense ranked in the NFL's Top 10 for nine consecutive years from 1997-2005, then the longest streak in the league and tied for the second-longest streak in the NFL since 1970. Tampa Bay also ranked second in the NFL in total defense in 2007.

Glazer also continued to upgrade off the field, hiring Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, as the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004. Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, was reunited with Gruden after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

"Outside of the X's and O's, Mr. Glazer is why we're here," said former Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott. "He came in and built the franchise up, allowed us to get some players in here that cared about winning. It has to start from the owner if you're going to get anywhere and be competitive in this league."

With his first Super Bowl title in hand, Glazer has his sights set on continued success and that drive led to another significant improvement. On March 17, 2004, the Buccaneers unveiled plans for their new, 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art training center, promising a "world-class facility." The new facility, considered the largest free standing training structure of its kind in professional sports according to industry sources, opened to rave reviews in August of 2006 following training camp.

When it opened in 2006, NFL Insiders were calling it, hands down, the finest training facility in the NFL. The spectacular and innovative facility includes a breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. It was built on the former Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The facility provides the ideal training environment to continue Tampa Bay's tradition of winning championships.

"Just like our stadium, our new training facility and administrative offices are the finest in the NFL," Glazer says. "To ensure that our facility would be the best, we sent our football and administrative staffers to visit what we felt were the best NFL training facilities and, in some cases, the best collegiate facilities in the country. We instructed our people to take notes and photographs, and to design their respective areas the way they wanted them to be once the facility was finished. The information our people returned with was amazing. We then took that information, presented it to the architects, and let them create the NFL's best training facility."

Known among his league peers as an innovative thinker, Glazer has infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization has provided the foundation for continued success on and off the field. That success has resulted in a level of popularity and support that is unmatched in franchise history.

Glazer has successfully constructed a multi-faceted plan, which calls for stable ownership, a talented coaching staff, knowledgeable personnel executives and a solid business partnership within the Tampa/St. Petersburg communities. The most visible aspect of this plan's success is Tampa Bay's state-of-the-art Raymond James Stadium, which has been dubbed the "Crown Jewel of the NFL." Raymond James Stadium offers an unmatched game-day atmosphere for fans and players alike. Since it opened in 1998, every regular season and playoff game at the stadium has been a sellout, and the Buccaneers boast a 52-28 record (.650 winning percentage) at home in the regular season, fourth-best in the NFC over that span. In the fall of 2006, FoxSports.com named Raymond James Stadium the best in the National Football League. In addition, the stadium was rated as having the best grass turf in the League in 2006, according to a biennial survey conducted of the league's players. The home of the Buccaneers has also ranked first in the four previous surveys – 1998, 2000, 2002 and 2004 – since RJIS opened in 1998.

Additionally, Glazer devoted a significant amount of time working to make the organization more fan-friendly by greatly expanding fan activities at Buccaneer home games through the formation of the club's special events department. His mandate to increase player and coach visibility in the community was reflected in the more than 700 appearances made by Buccaneer players, coaches and front office officials last year, including nationally-acclaimed programs such as LB Derrick Brooks' "Brooks' Bunch" trips throughout the world.

"It is important for us to succeed on the field, but I want us to be good citizens in our community as well," Glazer says. "We are role models. Children and adults look up to us. I want us to set the right example."

Glazer's input has been sought on the league level as well, as evidenced by his position on the NFL's Finance Committee. He has also played a major role in Tampa becoming a host for the Super Bowl on several occasions. The Bay area was awarded the 2009 Super Bowl in May 2005, marking the second time during Glazer's ownership the area will welcome the world's most spectacular event. Glazer played an enormous role in helping to land each of the Super Bowls to Raymond James Stadium.

"I think it is the fact that the Glazers are tremendous team players within the league. Since they took ownership of the team, they have made it into a model franchise. They won the Super Bowl. They have been part of the community partnership presenting the last great Super Bowl in Tampa. I think the community's investment in a world-class stadium. But the friendship and the hospitality and the track record of the three prior Super Bowls in Tampa, coupled with this partnership here between the team and the community, obviously that is what did it. Those are the critical components."

— Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue on the Glazer family and Tampa winning the bid to host Super Bowl XLIII in February of 2009

During the 1999 offseason, Glazer launched the much-anticipated Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes in the Tampa Bay community. In its nine years of existence, the Foundation has donated more than $3 million in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions. Most recently, the Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum in downtown Tampa, which will be named the Glazer's Children's Museum.

The Glazer Family Foundation has been supporting the NFL Y.E.T. Centers, donating grant money to more than 140 organizations, providing more than 1.6 million Buccaneer bookmarks to public libraries throughout seven Bay area counties and supplying 12,000 backpacks to more than 40 organizations for its back-to-school program. The foundation's signature program is the one Glazer is most proud of: The "Cheering You On Program," which has distributed more than 247,000 teddy bears to hospitalized children throughout central Florida.

In July of 2006, the Glazer Family donated more than $40,000 in vision screening equipment to the Hillsborough and Pinellas County school systems. The vision program will continue by supporting vision testing programs in the school districts of two counties within the Greater Tampa Bay Area each year. In 2007, the Foundation donated $50,000 in equipment to Sarasota and Pasco county schools, and in the summer of 2008, the Foundation presented equipment valued at more than $50,000 to the Osceola and Orange Counties' school systems. To date, the Foundation has distributed more than $150,000 in vision equipment to six school districts.

Glazer's philanthropic and charitable activities have also included the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, an organization that promotes amateur sports activities. Glazer has committed $2 million dollars to the Commission.

A true American success story, Glazer began working in his father's watch-parts business at the age of eight. When Glazer was 15, his father died and the son assumed responsibility for the family business and expanded it.

In 2005, Glazer purchased the world's most popular and valuable sports team, Manchester United, for more than $1.5 billion. The club has captured two consecutive Premier League titles (2007-2008), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

In addition, Glazer owns, has owned or has been the largest shareholder of a diverse portfolio of international holdings and public companies, including: Shopping Centers, Zapata Corporation, Houlihan's Restaurant Chain, Harley Davidson, Formica, Tonka, Specialty Equipment and Omega Protein.

A resident of Palm Beach, Florida, Malcolm Glazer was born in Rochester, New York. He and his wife, Linda, have six children and 13 grandchildren.

MALCOLM GLAZER'S RECONSTRUCTION OF THE BUCCANEERS

In 1995, Malcolm Glazer paid a record price for a professional football team that had a 19-year winning percentage of .307. Nevertheless, he predicted success on the field; in fact, practically his first words uttered as new owner of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers were, "We expect to be winners."

Eight years later, the Buccaneers reached the top of the NFL world with their first Super Bowl victory on January 26, 2003 over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. The team has enjoyed one of the most remarkable turnarounds in recent sports history. Below is a chronology of the events that led to the Buccaneers being termed a "model franchise" in the NFL.

- Just months after buying the team, Glazer announces that his first priority is to build a new state-of-the-art stadium in the Tampa Bay area.
- On January 22, 1996, Glazer hires Tony Dungy as the sixth head coach in team history, proclaiming the former Minnesota Vikings defensive coordinator as "not only one of the finest coaches, but one of the finest people in the NFL." Glazer's words seem prophetic as Dungy directs the team to a 10-6 record in 1997 and a then club-record 11-5 mark in 1999 en route to Tampa Bay's first NFC Central Division title in 18 years.
- On April 9, 1997, the Buccaneers unveil new uniforms sporting primary colors of red and pewter. The team's new look is enthusiastically embraced by players and fans.
- In his continuing efforts to transform the organization into one of the league's model franchises, Glazer undertakes a complete overhaul of the team's front office in 1996, greatly expanding the sales and marketing staffs to meet the team's growing demands.
- Glazer shows his long-term commitment to bringing a championship to Tampa Bay by extending the contracts of key football personnel in 1998. Beginning with a new five-year deal for Dungy, Glazer also locks up General Manager Rich McKay and cornerstone player DT Warren Sapp. The Bucs then sign FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks and S John Lynch, among others, to long-term deals.
- Glazer and his sons open Raymond James Stadium in grand style with a 27-15 victory over the Chicago Bears before a crowd of 66,321 fans. After trailing 15-0 at halftime, the Buccaneers storm back with 27 unanswered points to defeat the Bears. Tampa Bay's win is the first of 32 in 42 games over five seasons at RJG.
- After signing Pro Bowl linemen Jeff Christy and Randall McDaniel to shore up the offensive line, Glazer gives McKay the go-ahead to trade both 2000 first-round picks to the New York Jets for WR Keyshawn Johnson. The Buccaneers then sign Johnson to an eight-year contract.
- Tampa Bay lands two of the biggest names on the free-agent market in 2001, signing Pro Bowlers QB Brad Johnson and DE Simeon Rice to five-year contracts.
- The Buccaneers name Jon Gruden the seventh coach in team history on February 18, 2002.
- Tampa Bay completes the busiest offseason in team history by signing Pro Bowl WR Keenan McCardell on June 8, 2002. McCardell joins several other acquisitions, including RB Michael Pittman, WR Joe Jurevicius, Pro Bowl TE Ken Dilger, G Kerry Jenkins and T Roman Oben.
- The Buccaneers advance to their first-ever Super Bowl with a convincing 27-10 victory in the NFC Championship Game over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium on January 19, 2003.
- Tampa Bay defeats the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, on January 26, 2003, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium to give the Buccaneers their first-ever Super Bowl title.
- Bruce Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, is named the third General Manager in club history on January 9, 2004. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.
- Tampa Bay reclaims one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team on February 12, 2004. A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams led the Buccaneers to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.
- Tampa Bay defeats the New Orleans Saints 27-13 in the final game of the 2005 regular season (1/1/06) to claim its second NFC South division title in four seasons. The division title is the fifth in Buccaneers history, and third in 11 years under Glazer.
- In August 2006, the Buccaneers open their new, 136,320 square-foot world class training facility, featuring its signature five-story high football at the entranceway. According to industry sources, the new facility is the largest free standing training structure of its kind in professional sports.
- Tampa Bay captures its third NFC South division title in six seasons with a 37-3 victory over Atlanta (12/16/07) at Raymond James Stadium. The division title is the sixth in Buccaneers history, and fourth in 13 years under Glazer.

BRYAN GLAZER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Executive Vice President of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Bryan Glazer has helped revitalize the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business acumen, Glazer has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League as he enters his 14th season with the club.

Working with his brothers, Edward and Joel, Bryan has been instrumental in the team's ascension through the NFL ranks and transformation into one of the most recognizable teams in the league. His innovative approach to business and proclivity for "thinking outside the box" has resulted in the creation of the club's "Pewter Partners" program, which rewards Buccaneers' sponsors with deeper advertising packages and unprecedented customer service.

Glazer also worked closely with designers and graphic artists from NFL Properties in New York and Los Angeles who developed the Buccaneers new logo in 1996-1997. The new design, which was based on research of Caribbean buccaneer history, marked the first significant change to the team logo and uniform in franchise history. Upon its successful unveiling on April 9, 1997, the logo garnered rave reviews from such media outlets as USA Today, Fox Sports, The New York Times and The Washington Post. Perhaps the ultimate testament to the effectiveness of the logo, which consists of a skull and crossed swords on a blood-red, wind swept battle flag, is that it became – and remains – wildly popular among Buccaneers fans. It exemplifies the brand of football played in Tampa Bay.

In addition to his myriad of business-oriented achievements, Glazer also has been involved in a number of vital football-related efforts directly related to the on-the-field success experienced by the Buccaneers, certainly including but not limited to the team's first Super Bowl championship.

Glazer and his entire family were on hand as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay has also claimed two of the past three NFC South titles, winning the division in 2005 and 2007.

During the 2002 offseason, Bryan worked with brothers, Edward and Joel, in hiring one of the rising coaching stars in the NFL; Jon Gruden. Glazer, and his family, showed their commitment to building a championship team for the Tampa Bay community in hiring Gruden, who became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. Gruden was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

Glazer continued to upgrade off the field, hiring Bruce Allen; veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, on January 9, 2004 as the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history. Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, was reunited with Bucs head coach Jon Gruden after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Glazer worked diligently on helping the organization prepare for the next step in the future. The new, 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art headquarters and training facility, located across the street from Raymond James Stadium, is the finest in the National Football League. The signature of the new facility is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. The facility opened to rave reviews in August of 2006 following training camp. It is considered the largest free standing training structure of its kind in professional sports according to industry sources.

An instrumental force in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region. His commitment to the organization and the local community culminated with the club's effort in constructing the finest stadium facility in professional sports – Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted Super Bowl XXXV in January 2001 and will play host to Super Bowl XLIII in 2009. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to the Bay area, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the Tampa Bay community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005.

Glazer worked alongside stadium architects and contractors during the construction of Raymond James Stadium to produce his vision of what the premier stadium in the NFL should resemble. Glazer oversaw all phases of the construction of Raymond James Stadium, where the Buccaneers have notched an impressive 52-28 record in the regular season. The state-of-the-art stadium features such amenities as 19-inch wide seats with chairbacks, cup-holders, and armrests, concourse televisions, full color replay boards at both ends of the stadium, one of the most sophisticated scoreboard systems in all of professional sports and the centerpiece of the stadium – luxurious club seats and air-conditioned club lounges that make Tampa Bay's stadium the envy of the NFL.

Along with brothers Edward and Joel, Bryan oversees the day-to-day operation of the entire franchise, including financial operations, marketing and communications. Since the purchase of the team, he has devoted a significant amount of his efforts to such massive projects as the development and construction of Raymond James Stadium, and the restructuring and expansion of the Buccaneers' staff.

Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers can boast a 109-99 (.524) regular-season record and five playoff wins, easily the most successful stretch in club annals. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years. In addition, the Buccaneers' seven playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for third-most in the NFL over that span. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994.

A native of Rochester, New York, the 43-year-old Glazer serves on the NFL's Digital Media Committee as appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, and he makes countless community and charitable appearances on behalf of the organization. Glazer Family Foundation programs such as "Cheering You On," "Prevent Blindness" and the "Ticket Rewards" programs are just a few of the programs in which he takes great pride. Most recently, the foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum in downtown Tampa, which will be named the Glazer Children's Museum. In addition to serving on the Board of Directors of the Glazer Children's Museum, he is also on the Board of Directors Advisory Council for Ronald McDonald House.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986 prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989. Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which has captured two consecutive Premier League titles (2007-2008) as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

JOEL GLAZER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

The fast-paced and ultra-competitive environment that characterizes the National Football League is a perfect match for Joel Glazer's savvy management style and attention to detail. Combined these attributes have proven integral to the Buccaneers' transformation into one of the most successful franchises in the league.

Now in his 14th season as Executive Vice President of the Buccaneers, Joel, along with his brothers, Bryan and Edward, oversees the day-to-day operations of the franchise, ensuring the club achieves and maintains the highest levels of success in all aspects.

His leadership has been more than validated evidenced by the Buccaneers' .524 winning percentage, seven playoff berths and first NFL title since – all of which have come under Glazer ownership. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to its purchase by the Glazer family.

As Executive Vice President, Glazer's keen insight and tireless dedication continue to enhance the reputation of the Buccaneers. Glazer has passionately spearheaded a number of vital efforts throughout the years that have not only helped shape the club into a perennial contender but a model NFL franchise as well.

Glazer had a single vision, shared by all members of the Glazer family when they acquired the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995: build a franchise from the ground up, one that would become one of the most respected and successful franchises in the NFL. That vision was realized when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also claimed the NFC South title in 2005 and 2007, giving them three division titles the past six seasons.

During the 2002 offseason, Joel worked with brothers, Bryan and Edward, in orchestrating the now famous "midnight deal" with Al Davis that brought Jon Gruden to Tampa. Glazer, and his family, showed their commitment to building a championship team for the Tampa Bay community by hiring Gruden, who became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. Gruden was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

Glazer also led the search to reshape the Buccaneers football front office by hiring Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, as the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004. Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, was reunited with Bucs head coach Jon Gruden after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Glazer, promising a "world-class facility," led the design for the current cornerstone of the franchise, a 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art headquarters and training facility. Located across the street from Raymond James Stadium, the facility is the finest in the National Football League. The signature of the new facility is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Considered the largest free standing training structure of its kind in professional sports according to industry sources, One Buccaneer Place opened to rave reviews in August of 2006 following training camp.

After successfully negotiating an agreement to acquire the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer, along with his brothers Bryan and Edward, began the day-to-day duties of overseeing all aspects of the organization. Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers can boast a 109-99 (.524) regular-season record and five playoff wins, easily the most successful stretch in club annals. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years. In addition, the Buccaneers' seven playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for third-most in the NFL over that span. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994.

Following the purchase of the team in 1995, Glazer directed his attention on vital elements of building a successful franchise, namely the front office and stadium. After completely reorganizing the front office, recruiting talented people from a variety of backgrounds, Glazer worked tirelessly alongside Bryan and former General Manager Rich McKay to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. Glazer and his brother set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort at a stadium. They visited approximately 25 different stadiums, drawing from their experiences as fans, ultimately shaping every detail of RJS.

A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget to rave reviews, earning nods as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL." Raymond James Stadium featured amenities never seen before in modern stadiums, including the 24'x92' BucVision video boards now emulated at all new stadiums. However, the true signature of Raymond James Stadium is Buccaneer Cove, featuring the 103' larger-than-life replica pirate ship. With the pieces of the puzzle in place, as well as a state-of-the art new stadium, the stage was set to put a final stamp on the rebirth of the franchise. The team needed a new look. Glazer, along with Bryan, worked closely with NFL Properties to create a dynamic look that would illustrate the attitude and class of the franchise. The result was a complete logo and uniform redesign and Buccaneers merchandise sales immediately soared throughout the country, vaulting the Buccaneers into the top of NFL merchandise sales almost immediately. On the field, the new look helped create the attitude of a winner.

Throughout the construction of RJS, Glazer created the sales and marketing strategies and campaigns that led to record season ticket club seat, luxury suite and group sales. In addition to helping create the club's prestigious corporate "Pewter Partners," Glazer's other duties include overseeing the organization's annual budgets and establishing the club's strategic planning in marketing, community relations, public relations, ticketing and luxury suite relations.

Glazer also represents the team at all NFL Owners' Meetings. He played an integral role at the 2005 Spring Meetings to help Tampa Bay land the 2009 Super Bowl. The Bay area won the bid for Super Bowl Super Bowl XLIII, marking the fourth Super Bowl for Tampa Bay.

Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community. Glazer Family Foundation programs such as "Cheering You On," "Prevent Blindness" and the "Ticket Rewards" programs are just a few of the programs in which he takes great pride. Most recently, the foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum in downtown Tampa, which will be named the Glazer Children's Museum. In addition, Glazer has been an active member of the Super Bowl Task Force, Tampa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Outback Bowl Advisory Committee. Glazer currently sits on the NFL International and NFL Stadium committees. Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which has captured two consecutive Premier League titles (2007-2008) as well as the 2008 Champions League title. He was recently named as one of the Top 10 most influential Americans in the United Kingdom by the Telegraph.

Glazer, 41, earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York native is married to his wife Angela and has two children.

EDWARD GLAZER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Forward-thinking Edward Glazer, Executive Vice President of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, has instilled a sense of innovation in the club that has helped place it on the cutting edge of technology as well as enhance the overall fan experience.

Implementing comprehensive improvements at each level of the organization, Glazer has ensured the Buccaneers remain the most respected NFL franchise on and off the field.

Glazer continues to oversee the development, design and construction of Buccaneers.com, the team's official Web site, which the Tampa Bay Advertising Federation recognized as the region's top interactive media effort by awarding it a "Best of the Bay" Addy Award. The site also earned top honors as the number-one designed Web site in all of professional sports, according to Sports Business Journal magazine. A new Buccaneers.com was launched in the fall of 2007 to put the team on the cutting edge of internet sports coverage and provide more direct access to the site's most popular features.

Ever the ardent fan, Glazer has continuously sought methods of enhancing gameday experiences for all Buccaneers faithful. One of his most popular concepts among fans has been the creation of the "Buccaneer Battle Flags." The dramatic and inspiring game enhancement has become a staple at home games and features red flags being raised throughout Raymond James Stadium each time the Buccaneers offense advances into the opposition's red zone.

Glazer continues to work with all aspects of the daily business administration. Recognizing that Buccaneer fans are of the utmost importance to the team's success, Glazer has set the tone for the team's commitment to customer service. Under his direction, the team scrutinizes every detail of its operations to ensure that fans are getting the best possible Buccaneer experience on and off the field.

Glazer also worked closely with his brothers on the design and construction of the Buccaneers' new world-class training facility. The state-of-the-art complex, which opened in August 2006, is a technological marvel and sets a new standard of excellence for training facilities in the NFL. The 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility is located across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall.

This past season, Glazer spearheaded a massive project to archive the entire photographic history of the organization. The project has included the organizing, captioning, rating and uploading of more than 100,000 images from the first 32 years of the franchise.

As President of the Glazer Family Foundation, Glazer is heavily involved in the implementation of the foundation programs including the "Cheering You On" program that gives every child admitted to a local area hospital a Buccaneers teddy bear and activity book. To date the program has given out more than 247,000 teddy bears. In its nine years of existence, the Foundation has donated more than $3 million in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions. Most recently, the Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum in downtown Tampa, which will be named the Glazer's Children's Museum.

Glazer and his wife, Shari, are deeply committed to providing aid and assistance in the community. Edward and Shari continue to support many causes, including the Zimmer Children's Museum, Jewish Federation, UCLA Jonsson Cancer Center Foundation and the Fulfillment Fund, and the UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital.

Shari has been involved with organizing the charity work of the Buccaneer Women's Organization, which annually hosts children from the Boys and Girls Clubs, The Spring, Joshua House and the Children's Home at local petting zoos and cultural events at the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center. Shari has volunteered her time at many local charities, including Camp Good Days and Special Times, the Children's Cancer Center, and the Tampa Aids Network, where she served as co-chairperson for the Tampa AIDS Walk for two years. Shari was also named honorary co-chair for the Susan G. Komen Tampa Bay Race for the Cure.

Glazer is also President of First Allied Corporation, the family's Real Estate business. First Allied is the holding company for real estate investments in more than 20 states. Glazer also serves on the Board of the Manchester United Soccer Club, which has captured three titles since the Glazer family took over the club: two consecutive Premier League titles (2007 and 2008), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Glazer was born in Rochester, New York and earned a bachelor's degree from Ithaca College.

THE GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

The Glazer Family Foundation is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes in the West Central Florida region. It aids established not-for-profit organizations that work with youth and families to help identify and create programs that support positive social and economic development within our communities.

The Glazers, who own the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, established the foundation in 1999. Since that time, the Glazer Family Foundation has given millions in programs, grants, tickets and merchandise to the Tampa Bay area. Most recently, the foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum in downtown Tampa, which will be named the Glazer Children's Museum. Visit www.glazerfamilyfoundation.com for more information.

CHEERING YOU ON!

An ongoing program that provides all pediatric patients admitted to seven area hospitals with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers stuffed teddy bear and activity book. The Foundation has distributed more than 247,000 bears and books in West Central Florida.

YOUTH WITH PROMISE

During each NFL season, the Foundation hosts 100 Youth with Promise at all Buccaneers home games. More than 9,000 youth representing 100 organizations from the Bay area have been rewarded with free game tickets, food and car flags. The youth receive this privilege based on achieving goals of incentive programs implemented by community agencies.

MAKE READING YOUR GOAL

Last summer, the Foundation continued its reading program, which provided area children with a free Buccaneer bookmark when they checked out a book from their local public libraries. Over the past eight years, the Foundation has provided over 1.6 million bookmarks to libraries throughout seven counties. The bookmarks, which highlight a different Buccaneer player on each successive bookmark, have featured CB Ronde Barber, LB Derrick Brooks, WR Michael Clayton, Head Coach Jon Gruden, WR Carnell Williams, DT Chris Hovan, TE Alex Smith and former Buccaneer FB Mike Alstott.

BUG-PACKS FOR BACK-TO-SCHOOL

In its eighth year, the Foundation's Back-to-School program donated backpacks to more than 40 different organizations throughout Hillsborough, Pinellas, Pasco, Polk and Orange counties. A total of 12,000 backpacks filled with school supplies and Buccaneers merchandise have been distributed. Some recipient organizations include NFL YET Centers, Boys & Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay and Salvation Army.

THE GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

VISION PROGRAM

This past summer, the Foundation presented vision screening equipment valued at more than $50,000 to the Osceola and Orange Counties' school systems. To date, the foundation has distributed more than $150,000 in vision equipment to six school districts. The Foundation will continue to provide screening equipment to two new school districts each year until every district in the Tampa Bay area receives the needed support to ensure that children can learn in an environment where vision problems are not an obstacle.

TOYS FOR TOTS DRIVE

The Foundation teamed up with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve (USMC) for the annual Toys for Tots drive last season. The event celebrated 31 years of the Buccaneers and the USMC partnering for the Toys for Tots program. The Marines collected thousands of toys from the generous Buccaneers fans during the Atlanta home game in 2007.

"CAN HUNGER" FOOD DRIVE

For the eighth year, the Foundation teamed up with Raymond James and four Bay area food banks to help "CAN HUNGER" at the Buccaneers home game against the Redskins. This annual food drive has contributed more than 162,000 pounds of food to assist community food banks.

TAMPA BAY SPORTS COMMISSION

During the 2007 season, the Foundation donated $62,000 to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission for its support of amateur athletic activities in Hillsborough and Pinellas Counties. The Foundation donates this fixed sum following each season and has contributed a total of $821,500 to the Commission.

TEACHING TOOLS FOR HILLSBOROUGH SCHOOLS

For the fifth consecutive season, the Foundation teamed up with Teaching Tools for Hillsborough Schools to conduct a school supply drive. Representatives from Teaching Tools for Hillsborough Schools, an organization which provides classroom materials free of charge to teachers, collected school supplies as fans entered the stadium to watch the Buccaneers take on the Eagles. Over $17,000 worth of school supplies have been collected and distributed back into the Tampa Bay community in the five years of the program.

HOLIDAY SHOPPING SPREE

In 2007, the Glazer Family Foundation helped kids at The Spring of Tampa Bay enjoy the holiday season. Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders escorted children through a local store where they were able to select holiday gifts for themselves and their families.

BRUCE ALLEN

GENERAL MANAGER

Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, was named the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004.

Since his arrival in Tampa Bay, Allen has played a key role in the re-shaping of the Buccaneers' roster through free agency, the draft and via trade. Allen has been a part of five division titles in the past eight years, including Tampa Bay's 2005 and 2007 NFC South crowns.

Before his arrival in Tampa prior to the 2004 campaign, Allen spent the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII. Allen has been reunited with head coach Jon Gruden, who he worked together with in Oakland from 1998-2001. He was recognized as the 2002 George Young NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News.

"I've had the pleasure of being associated with some of the most legendary owners, coaches and players in the history of the NFL," said Allen at a press conference after his arrival in Tampa Bay. "We look forward to our future here with high hopes and great expectations."

Allen embarked on his professional football career as a 12th-round selection by the Baltimore Colts in 1978. He played football at the University of Richmond from 1974-77 where he earned a degree in business marketing. Allen garnered All-ECAC and All-South Independent honors during his junior season for the Spiders, when he ranked 16th in the nation and broke a school punting record with a 42.9-yard average.

A native of Pasadena, California, Allen and his wife, Kiersten, have a son, George (11), and daughter, Mikayla (10).

Along with his father, the late George Allen, who was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2002, Allen's brother, George, also has held positions of distinction. He was elected to the United States Senate in 2000 after serving as the 67th Governor of Virginia from 1994-98. Allen also has two other siblings who both reside in Los Angeles, Greg, a psychologist, and Jennifer Allen Richard, a well-known author and regular contributor to the NFL Network.

His wife, Kiersten, has also become heavily involved in the local community with her participation in the Buccaneers Women's Organization, which consists of wives, fiancées and girlfriends of players and coaches who perform community service projects and aid in fundraisers throughout the year. In each of the last four years, Kiersten joined the Women's Organization for the annual Fall Festival at Raymond James Stadium for underprivileged children in the Bay Area. She also took part in the Susan B. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation Race for the Cure and helped support the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and Muscular Dystrophy Association. Kiersten, along with several Buccaneer wives, took to the runway in order to raise money for a local women's hospital. Through Allen's Special Teams, Bruce and Kiersten provide tickets to each Buccaneer home game for families of local military personnel.

JON GRUDEN

HEAD COACH

18TH NFL SEASON - 7TH WITH BUCCANEERS

In just six seasons in Tampa Bay, and 10 seasons overall as a head coach, Jon Gruden has established himself among the premier coaches in the National Football League. Since arriving in Tampa Bay, Gruden has led the team to the first Super Bowl title in franchise history, along with three division championships. In 10 seasons as a head coach, he has compiled a 91-78 overall record and his teams have captured five division titles.

In 2007, Gruden led the Buccaneers to their third NFC South title in six years, becoming the first coach in team history with three division titles as a Buccaneer. He is also the first coach to win multiple NFC South titles since the division was created in 2002. In addition, his five division titles since 2000 are tied for second-best among all active coaches, trailing only New England head coach Bill Belichick (6), and his four 10-win seasons over the last eight years (2000-07) are tied for fourth-best in the league. Gruden is now one of just five head coaches since 1980 to have won four or more division titles with four different quarterbacks starting in the playoffs.

Tampa Bay set a team record in 2007 by throwing just eight interceptions, the fewest ever in a single season in team history. Offensively, Tampa Bay ranked 18th in the league in both total yards (326.8 ypg) and points per game (20.9 ppg), its highest mark since 2003. In addition, the team finished 11th in rushing (117.0 ypg) and 16th in passing (209.8 ypg), marking the first time the team ranked at least 16th in both categories since 1992, and only the second time ever. Tampa Bay's 4.17 average yards per rush was the second-best single-season mark in club history and its 117.0 rushing yards per game ranked sixth-best in franchise history. The Buccaneers scored 334 points last season, the fourth-highest mark in a single season. Tampa Bay's offensive line in 2007 was the youngest in the NFL, averaging just 25.4 years for its five starters.

In his first season with the Buccaneers, QB Jeff Garcia was named to the Pro Bowl and put together one of the best seasons by a signal caller in team history. His assault on the Buccaneers record books left his mark on single-game records such as most passes completed, highest completion percentage, most yards per attempt and most consecutive completions, all while establishing a team record for most consecutive completions without an interception. His interception percentage of 1.2 was the best in team history.

Defensively the team returned to its dominating fashion, making the jump from the 17th-ranked total defense (329.4 ypg) in 2006 to the second-ranked defense (278.4 ypg) in 2007. It marked the 10th time in the last 11 seasons it has ranked among the league's Top 10. The team also made improvements in passing defense, moving from 19th (209.6 ypg) in 2006 to the league's best pass defense (170.5 ypg) in 2007, marking the fourth time in team history it led the league in that category.

The 2007 season also saw the special teams make strides as the Bucs moved from the 25th to the 12th-best kickoff return average in the league (23.3 avg.). The coverage unit ranked seventh (7.4 avg.) in punt return average after finishing 24th (9.7 avg.) in 2006 while the kickoff return coverage unit averaged 19.5 yards per return, second-best in the league. The team also made history as KR Micheal Spurlock ran 90 yards for the first-ever kickoff return for a touchdown in Bucs history.

The club had six home victories in 2007, tied for the second-best total in club history. In fact, three of the top eight home campaigns in team history (6-2 in 2002, 2005 and 2007) have come under Gruden in the last six years.

In 2005, Gruden led the Buccaneers to their second NFC South title in four years, becoming the first coach in team history to win two division titles in his first four seasons with the team. Tampa Bay's 11-5 regular season record in 2005 tied for the second-best mark in franchise history and the club's 6-2 home mark tied for the second-best home slate in franchise history.

Gruden, who was named the seventh head coach in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on February 18, 2002, has led the team to a 51-50 overall record, including a 3-2 mark in the postseason. On the day he was officially introduced as head coach, Gruden stood in front of a standing-room only crowd at a downtown Tampa hotel on February 20, 2002.

"I'm thrilled to be here, and all I can guarantee is a lot of hard work and effort to try to put the Buccaneers into championship form," Gruden said that day.

Less than 11 months later, Gruden had more than delivered on his promise. Tampa Bay had claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then just the fourth division crown in team history.

Over that period, the Buccaneers established a club record for victories in a regular season with 12 wins, breaking the previous mark of 11 in 1999, and their 15 overall wins stand as the most for a club in the 31-year history of the franchise. In fact, two of the top three regular season victory totals in franchise history, 12 in 2002 and 11 in 2005, have occurred during the Gruden era. In addition, Gruden became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl and was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team. In the process, Gruden became just the third coach since 1966 to win 40 games before his 40th birthday while also becoming only the third head coach in NFL history to lead a different team to a playoff appearance in consecutive years.

"We took our time and got the man we really wanted, and we couldn't be more thrilled," said Buccaneers Executive Vice President Bryan Glazer after the hiring. "This was one of the most important decisions in the history of this franchise and it certainly paid off in a big way."

The Buccaneers offense came together down the stretch, averaging 35.3 points and 334.0 yards per game in its three postseason contests. Even more impressive was the fact that the offense allowed just one total sack in the postseason after giving up nearly 2.5 per game in the regular season.

Under Gruden's watch, former QB Brad Johnson finished first in the NFC and third in the NFL in passer rating and established club single-season records in touchdowns (22), completion percentage (62.3), lowest interception ratio (1.3%) and passer rating (92.9) in 2002. He became the first quarterback in team history to lead the NFC in passer rating and also earned a pair of NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, becoming the first offensive player in club history to accomplish that feat.

On the other side of the ball, the 2002 Buccaneers defense made a case as one of the greatest in NFL history. Tampa Bay became the first team since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions in the same season. Tampa Bay ranked first in the NFL in both total defense (252.8 ypg) and pass defense (155.6 ypg) for the second time in team history. The Buccaneers defense also ranked first in the league in fewest points per game (12.3), opponent passer rating (48.4), interceptions (31), fewest yards per play (4.2) and fewest first downs (236).

In 2002, Tampa Bay's defense featured five Pro Bowlers: 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, NFC Sack Leader DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. CB Brian Kelly ranked tied for first in the NFL with eight interceptions in 2002 and Rice ranked first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 15.5 sacks, one sack shy of his career-high of 16.5 sacks.

The Buccaneers' offensive revival continued in 2003 as the Buccaneers reached all-time franchise season-highs in both total offense (340.8 ypg) and passing offense (237.8 ypg), while ranking in the league's Top 10 in both categories in the same year for just the second time in team history (also 1984). Tampa Bay ranked 10th in total offense and sixth in passing offense, tying for the best final rankings in club history. In fact, the Buccaneers scored at least one offensive touchdown in all 16 games in 2003 for just the third time in franchise history (also 1984 and 1992). The offense also ranked fifth-best in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed with 23.

Tampa Bay's defense also remained among the NFL's elite in 2003, continuing its streak in the top 10. The defense ranked fifth in the NFL, marking the seventh consecutive year the defense finished among the NFL's Top 10, the only current team to accomplish that feat. The Buccaneers defensive unit also finished third in passing defense, marking the seventh time in the last eight seasons, including three straight, that the club finished in the Top 10 in pass defense.

As a rookie in 2004, WR Michael Clayton flourished under Gruden's watch, setting several club rookie records. Clayton, who was named one of five finalists for the PEPSI NFL Rookie of the Year award, ranked fifth all-time in NFL history among rookies with 80 receptions and 1,193 yards. He ranked first on the team and first among all NFL rookie wide receivers with the 80 receptions for 1,193 yards, and established himself as the top rookie receiver in team history in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns.

The 2004 defense ended the season ranked fifth in the NFL in total defense, marking the third consecutive season the unit ranked in the top five and sixth time in the previous eight years. That showing also marked the eighth consecutive season that the defense finished among the NFL's Top 10.

Gruden, who is regarded as one of the league's top quarterback mentors, leads all active head coaches in number of quarterbacks who have started and won a game under their tutelage with 12. He has already tutored nine different starters in his six seasons in Tampa. He had a major impact on Brian Griese, who ranked first in the NFL in completion percentage (69.3%) in 2004, and also set franchise single-season records for passer rating, completion percentage and yards per pass attempt. The 2004 Buccaneers offense set all-time marks for best completion percentage, most yards per pass play, and its 24 touchdown passes ranked second in team history. Griese passed for at least one touchdown in 12 consecutive games from 2004-05, a new club record. Gruden has also mentored QB Chris Simms, who took over when Griese suffered a season-ending injury against Miami in 2005. Simms led Tampa Bay to six wins in its final eight regular season games and his .610 completion percentage ranked fourth-best for a single season in team history.

In 2006, Gruden was forced to start three different quarterbacks, with Simms opening the first three contests before being lost for the season following an emergency appendectomy. Rookie sixth-round draft choice quarterback Bruce Gradkowski started 11 contests and statistically established himself among the top rookie signal callers in team history. Gradkowski's 1,661 passing yards, nine touchdowns, 177 completions and 328 attempts in 2006 were all the most by a rookie in franchise history, and he also set an NFL record for the most pass attempts (202) before throwing his second interception of the season. Veteran quarterback Tim Rattay came on to start the final two contests, leading the Bucs to a victory at Cleveland in the road finale.

Rookie RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, Tampa Bay's first-round selection in the 2005 NFL Draft, was the consensus 2005 Rookie of the Year after rushing for a Buccaneer single-season rookie-record 1,178 rushing yards. Williams also set a franchise mark with six 100-yard rushing games and he became only the sixth player in team history to rush for at least 1,000 yards in a single season.

The 2005 season also extended some impressive trends for the Buccaneer defensive unit. Tampa Bay finished the season as the top-ranked unit in the NFL in total defense, marking the fourth consecutive season the unit has ranked in the top five and seventh time in the last nine years. It also marked the second time in the past four years and third time in team history that the defense finished No. 1 overall, and was the ninth consecutive season that the defense has finished among the NFL's Top 10 in total defense, tied for the second-longest streak in the NFL since 1970.

Gruden owns a 86-74 career record in the regular season and a 5-4 mark in the postseason in his 10 seasons as a head coach. His 86 victories since 1998 are seventh-most among all NFL coaches over that span and his 70 wins since 2000 are sixth-best in the league among active coaches. His 86 victories rank fourth behind only Don Shula, John Madden and Bill Cowher for the most wins by a head coach by the age of 45 since 1960.

In Gruden's six seasons in Tampa Bay, the Buccaneer defense has continued its run as the league's most dominant unit in the NFL. Tampa Bay's defense finished the 2005 regular season as the top-ranked unit in the NFL for the second time in a four-year span (also 2002) and ranked in the NFL's Top 10 for nine consecutive seasons (1997-2005), the longest streak in the league at the time and tied for the second-longest streak in the NFL since 1970. The 2005 season marked the fourth consecutive season and the seventh time in the last nine years the unit has ranked in the top five. It was also the second time in six years under Gruden, and the third time in team history, that the defense finished No. 1 overall in total defense. Tampa Bay's pass defense has also remained among the league's elite, finishing No. 1 in the NFL in three of the last six seasons, and in the Top 10 in five of six seasons since Gruden's arrival.

Under Gruden since 2002, protecting the football has been one of the important ingredients for success. Tampa Bay is a perfect 16-0 under Gruden when it does not commit a turnover.

Prior to his arrival in Tampa, Gruden steered the Raiders to a 38-26 regular season mark in his four seasons (1998-2001) with the club, including postseason appearances in 2000 and 2001. He led Oakland to division titles in each of the final two seasons (2000-01) and the Raiders ranked seventh in the NFL in total offense, including fourth in passing offense, in 2001. Oakland won its first back-to-back AFC West crowns since 1982-83. Under Gruden, the Raiders advanced to the AFC title game in 2000 and lost in a second round playoff game to eventual Super Bowl champion New England following the 2001 campaign. Gruden's offenses finished among the league's Top 10 in his last three seasons with the Raiders, including fifth in 1999.

The Raiders ranked seventh in the NFL in total offense, including fourth in passing offense, on their way to a second consecutive division title in 2001. Oakland won its first back-to-back AFC West crowns since 1982-83. The Raiders also ranked first in the AFC in red zone touchdown percentage and Pro Bowl QB Rich Gannon was the conference leader in passing, throwing for 3,828 yards and a completion percentage of 65.8. Over his last three seasons under Gruden, Gannon totaled 949 completions on 1,537 attempts (61.7%) for 11,098 yards with 79 touchdowns and just 34 interceptions.

Five Raiders were named to the 2002 Pro Bowl squad, including WR Tim Brown, who made his ninth trip to Hawaii this past season. CB Charles Woodson made his fourth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl, while Gannon, who led the AFC with a 95.5 QB rating, headed to Hawaii for the third consecutive season. Gannon was named the game's MVP in each of his last two contests.

The Raiders ranked among the NFL's elite in offense, defense and special teams under Gruden's leadership in 2000, advancing to the AFC Championship Game. The offense led the league in rushing at nearly 155 yards per game and ranked third in the NFL in scoring at almost 30 points per game. Oakland's 58 touchdowns were tied for the second-most in the league. The Raiders ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing defense (96.9 rushing yards allowed) and fourth in the AFC (seventh in NFL) in takeaways with 37. The Raiders led the NFL in touchbacks (15) and in net punting average (38.0). Gruden and his staff also coached the victorious AFC squad in the Pro Bowl.

In 1999, Gruden led the Raiders to an 8-8 record despite facing the toughest schedule of any NFL team. The Raiders ranked third in rushing yards and fifth in total offense in 1999. In 1998, his first year as the Raiders head coach, Gruden led the Silver and Black to a four-game improvement over the previous year, going 8-8 and the defense finished fifth in the NFL. Gruden inherited a Raiders team that had not posted a winning season since 1994, but quickly returned Oakland to the postseason.

Gruden was the third-youngest head coach in the 40-year history of the Oakland franchise. Raiders owner Al Davis was 33 when he was named head coach and general manager of the Silver and Black in 1963. John Madden was 32 when he was promoted to the head post in 1969.

Gruden spent the three seasons (1995-97) before arriving in Oakland as offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles. Gruden was the NFL's youngest offensive coordinator at age 31 when Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes hired him in 1995. The Eagles had a 26-21-1 record during his tour of duty, including playoff appearances after both the 1995 and 1996 campaigns in the highly competitive NFC Eastern Division.

In 1997, the Eagles ranked second in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in the NFC. In 1996, they led the NFC in passing, were second in rushing and led the conference in total offense. In Gruden's first season as an NFL offensive coordinator in 1995, the Eagles finished fourth in the entire league in rushing.

Before joining Philadelphia, Gruden worked for three seasons with the Green Bay Packers from 1992-94. He served as an offensive assistant to head coach Mike Holmgren in 1992, then spent the 1993 and 1994 seasons as Green Bay's receivers coach.

As a seven-year NFL assistant, Gruden saw his teams qualify for the playoffs five times. He also coached five seasons at the collegiate level. Gruden spent the 1991 football season in the college ranks as wide receivers coach at the University of Pittsburgh under head coach Paul Hackett.

Gruden was an offensive assistant to head coach George Seifert with the San Francisco 49ers in 1990, working closely with offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren. The 49ers were an NFL-best 14-2, finally losing in the NFC Championship Game.

In his first four seasons in the coaching profession from 1986-1989, Gruden was an assistant at the University of Tennessee in 1986 and 1987 as the Volunteers totaled a 17-7-1 record and won against Big Ten opponents in the Liberty Bowl and Peach Bowl. In 1988, he was passing game coordinator at Southeast Missouri State and in 1989 coached wide receivers at the University of Pacific.

Born August 17, 1963 in Sandusky, Ohio, Gruden attended South Bend Clay High School in Indiana and was a three-year letterman at quarterback at the University of Dayton, graduating in 1985 with a degree in Communications. The Flyers had a 24-7 record in Gruden's three varsity seasons there and he was honored with the prestigious Lt. Andy Zulli Memorial Award, given to the senior player who best exemplifies the qualities of sportsmanship and character. Gruden and his wife Cindy, a former University of Tennessee cheerleader, have three sons, Jon II, 14, Michael, 11 and Jayson, 7.

Gruden has already made an impact in the Tampa Bay community, serving as a spokesperson for the Florida Citrus Commission, which is focused on building statewide awareness of the ways in which citrus contributes to Florida's social and economic welfare. He also sponsors a ticket program called Gruden's Gridiron, in which he and Cindy host youth from Hillsborough County Schools at every Buccaneers home game. Kids are selected to sit in Gruden's Gridiron based on their displaying good conduct, a positive attitude and success in the classroom. The entire family took part in the annual Tuxes and Tails event, which included a celebrity fashion show benefiting The Humane Society of Tampa Bay, in April 2005. Jon and Cindy also served as honorary chairs for the 2006 MASH BASH, an annual fundraiser to benefit the Tampa Bay chapter of the American Red Cross. The couple has also donated dinners at two separate auctions to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Jon and Cindy also volunteer at The Children's Home in their free time.

Following Tampa Bay's Super Bowl victory in January, 2003, Gruden, along with QB Brad Johnson, was the first non-player ever invited by Disney to star in their popular post-Super Bowl "What's Next" commercial. His off-the-field popularity continues to grow, marked by the success of his 2003 book "Do You Love Football?! Winning with Heart, Passion, and Not Much Sleep," which he wrote with longtime NFL scribe Vic Carucci. Gruden was also named one of People Magazine's "50 Most Beautiful People in the World" in 2001. Gruden was the recipient of the 2002 Coach of the Year honor at the ESPY awards and was recognized as Professional Coach of the Year at the 37th Victor Awards in 2003.

This past offseason, Gruden along with Personnel Executive Doug Williams, conducted a free one-day quarterback camp at One Buccaneer place for more than 50 Bay Area high school quarterbacks. At the camp, Williams and Gruden led the group through a series of on-field drills while also spending several hours in a pair of film sessions.

Cindy has also become heavily involved in the local community. Cindy continuously shows her commitment to the Tampa Bay community through her leadership and active participation in the Buccaneers Women's Organization, which consists of wives, fiancées and girlfriends of players and coaches who perform community service projects and aid in fundraisers throughout the year. Cindy not only aids in the planning and implementation of each Women's Organization service project, but she also participates in each event. In 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007, Cindy and the Women's Organization organized the annual Fall Festival at Raymond James Stadium for underprivileged children in the Bay Area, read to elementary-aged children as part of a literacy program and stuffed holiday stockings with items they purchased for students at the PACE Center for Girls. During the holiday season, several wives volunteered an afternoon at Metropolitan Ministries to help sort donated food items and create food baskets for those in need. The women have also participated in the annual walk for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation as part of the Buccaneers race team.

The women often have fun while supporting a great cause as they did during the last four Buccaneer Women's Organization Holiday Fashion Shows. Cindy, along with several Buccaneer wives, took to the runway in order to raise money for a local women's hospital.

During the last three seasons, the organization adopted youth from various nonprofit organizations during the holiday season in order to provide them with gifts and stockings full of desired items. The women purchased goodies for more than 50 children and stuffed the stockings to be delivered to the organizations. Cindy and Kiersten Allen, wife of Buccaneers General Bruce Allen, served as community co-chairs at the Pediatric Cancer Foundation's Breakfast of Hope in the spring of 2008.

Cindy continues to develop new ideas about ways to support the community and its members. Prior to the 2005 season, Cindy devoted countless hours to organizing the production of a Buccaneers Family Cookbook. The book included recipes from Buccaneers owners, players, coaches and staff, and the proceeds from book sales benefited the PACE Center for Girls.

Gruden's father, Jim, is a veteran of 38 professional and collegiate football seasons who enters his fifth season as personnel consultant with the Buccaneers in his second stint with the club. Prior to returning to the organization, Gruden spent 17 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as a regional scout responsible for the Southeast region. Before working with the 49ers, he spent five seasons with Tampa Bay as Director of Player Personnel (1984-86) and running backs coach (1982-83).

His brother, Jay, has served as an offensive assistant coach with the Buccaneers in each of the last six seasons (2002-07) and has spent the past 19 seasons in professional football, 18 of which in the Arena Football League. He has never missed the playoffs in the AFL as either a player or coach. In nine seasons as head coach of the Orlando Predators (1998-01, 2004-08), Jay has led the team to four ArenaBowl appearances with two championships. In six seasons as quarterback of the Tampa Bay Storm from 1991 to 1996, Jay won four ArenaBowl championships. He returned to the playing field for the 2002 and 2003 seasons as Orlando's quarterback, but he returned for his second stint as head coach of the Predators during the 2004 season. Jay played quarterback at Tampa's Chamberlain High School before heading to the University of Louisville to play for head coach Howard Schnellenberger. Jay's wife, Sherry, worked in the Buccaneers' marketing department from 1993-96. Gruden's other brother, Jim, is a radiologist at the Mayo Clinic in Scottsdale, Arizona.

SON OF A GRADE SCHOOL TEACHER

Kathy Gruden, the mother of Buccaneers head coach Jon Gruden, spent many years as an elementary school teacher. Her son Jon has clearly inherited her gift of communicating to others. Gruden was named the best coach on Pro Football Weekly's 2005 All-Interview Team in their annual poll of NFL writers from around the country as conducted by Eric Edholm. Gruden received the most votes from national and local writers in the survey which celebrates the league's best talkers. Some of the comments from the media in regard to Gruden:

"Very interested in giving a smart answer to a good question"

"Very quotable"

"Always says something interesting"

SINGLE-GAME POINTS SCORED IN BUCS HISTORY

MONTE KIFFIN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

26TH NFL SEASON - 13TH WITH BUCCANEERS

The longest tenured defensive coordinator in the league, Monte Kiffin enters his 26th season in the NFL and 13th with the Buccaneers in 2008. Father of the often imitated 'Tampa Cover 2' defense, Kiffin has established himself as one the NFL's best defensive minds of the modern era.

Equal parts talent and scheme, Kiffin's defense has been the NFL's benchmark for more than a decade. The 'Tampa Cover 2,' while often described as simplistic, has remained successful by consistently creating turnovers and pressuring the quarterback utilizing its trademark speed, discipline and cohesiveness. Since 1996, Kiffin's first year in Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers defense ranks as the top unit in the NFL, surrendering just 285.2 yards per game. In his 12 seasons (1996-2007) with the Buccaneers, Kiffin's unit has registered 375 takeaways to rank tied for sixth in the NFL while also posting 474 sacks to rank tied for 10th during that span.

The 2007 season saw Kiffin's defense help guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title, marking the third division title in six seasons for Tampa Bay. Statistically, Kiffin's defense has been the league's most dominant unit in the NFL during his time at the helm. The Buccaneers defense finished the 2007 season as the second-ranked unit in the NFL in total defense. In 2005, Tampa Bay's defense finished the regular season as the top-ranked unit in the NFL for the second time in a four-year span (also 2002). Including this past season, the Buccaneers defense has ranked in the NFL's Top 10 in 10 of 12 seasons with Kiffin leading the way. For nine consecutive seasons (1997-2005) the Buccaneers defense ranked in the Top 10, the longest streak in the league at the time and tied for the second-longest streak in the NFL since 1970. The 2007 season also marked the eighth time in 12 seasons (1996-2007) that the defense finished the year ranked in the Top 5 in the NFL in total defense.

Additionally, Tampa Bay's defensive unit finished 2007 in the Top 10 in passing defense for the 10th time in 12 seasons, ranking first in the NFL while surrendering just 170.5 yards per game through the air. It marked the third time under Kiffin (2002, 2004 and 2007) that Tampa Bay led the NFL in pass defense. The 2004 season also saw the Buccaneers pass defense rank first in the NFL after surrendering just 161.2 yards per game passing.

After ranking just 19th against the run in 2004, Kiffin's run defense responded in 2005, finishing the season as the sixth-ranked unit in the NFL (94.7 rushing ypg allowed). The 94.7-yard rushing average allowed by the Bucs in 2005 was the second best in team history. The Buccaneers defensive dominance was on display in the 2005 Wild Card playoff contest against the Washington Redskins. Tampa Bay limited the Redskins to 120 total yards of offense, the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history.

The catalyst for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl championship in 2002 was Kiffin's suffocating defense that finished the season as the top-ranked unit in the NFL. The Buccaneers became the first team since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense (252.8 ypg), fewest points allowed (196) and total interceptions (31). Under Kiffin's command, the Buccaneers were one of only four teams in the NFL to rank in the Top 10 in all three defensive categories during the 2002 season, ranking first in pass defense (155.6 ypg) and tied for fifth in rush defense (97.1 ypg).

Employing an attacking style that is predicated on speed, Kiffin's unit continued its impressive play in the 2002 postseason, shutting down some of the league's best offenses. During the divisional playoff win against the San Francisco 49ers and the NFC Championship Game victory over the Philadelphia Eagles, Tampa Bay allowed just 16 points. They turned it up a notch in Super Bowl XXXVII, taking center stage in the Buccaneers' 48-21 win over the Oakland Raiders. Tampa Bay recorded a Super Bowl-record five interceptions, including three picks which were returned for touchdowns (also a Super Bowl record) off NFL MVP Rich Gannon. The Buccaneers allowed the Raiders just 269 total yards, including 62 total yards in the first half, and 19 total rushing yards. Tampa Bay's ferocious defensive line posted five sacks, capping off one of the most dominating defensive performances in Super Bowl history.

The Buccaneer defense was just as impressive in 1999. Boasting four Pro Bowlers and three first-team All-Pro selections, Tampa Bay's defense electrified the league with one of the most dominating defensive stretches in recent memory. The Bucs rallied to win eight of nine games to capture their first NFC Central title in 18 years. In the playoffs, Tampa Bay's defense posted phenomenal performances. The Buccaneers held Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive touchdowns in Tampa Bay's 14-13 divisional playoff win. Both of the Buccaneers' scores came off Redskins turnovers. In the NFC Championship Game, Kiffin's lightning-quick defense held the top-ranked Rams offense to 11 points, 22 below their season average.

The Buccaneers allowed just three 100-yard rushers in 1999 and set then club single-season marks for fewest opponent first downs (228), fewest opponent rushing yards (1,407), fewest opponent rushes (361) and lowest opponent completion percentage (52.7 percent).

As is a trait for any great defense, Kiffin's unit has been proficient at keeping opponents off the scoreboard. The Buccaneers have finished in the NFL's Top 10 in points allowed in 11 of the 12 seasons Kiffin has been defensive coordinator and have also allowed the fewest points (3,003) in the NFL since 1997. Tampa Bay's defense ranked first in the NFL in points allowed in 2002 (12.3 ppg), fourth in the league in 2003 (16.5 ppg), tied for ninth in 2004 (19.0 ppg), eighth in 2005 (17.1 ppg) and third in 2007 (15.4 ppg). The 196 total points surrendered by the Bucs in 2002 eclipsed the previous team-low of 223 set in 1977. Since 1998, the Buccaneers have posted seven shutouts to rank second in the NFL, including a team-record two shutouts in both the 2002 and 2003 seasons. Additionally, since the 2002 season the Buccaneers defense has given up on average just 283.7 total yards per game, tops in the NFL. The Tampa Bay defense also ranks second in the NFL in both fewest rushing touchdowns surrendered (74) and most interceptions (164) since the 2000 season.

While Kiffin's defense has been characteristically stingy since his arrival in 1996, it has been its ability to reach the end zone that routinely distinguishes the unit. The Buccaneers defense scored 30 points in the regular season en route to the Super Bowl in 2002, led by LB Derrick Brooks' four defensive touchdowns. The five defensive touchdowns and four interception returns for touchdowns in 2002 matched team single-season records set in 1981 and 2000. The defensive scoring trend continued through the postseason as the Buccaneers scored four defensive touchdowns in the playoffs. CB Ronde Barber and Brooks, both who have developed into perennial Pro Bowl players under Kiffin, rank first and second in team history for most touchdowns by a defensive player with 11 and seven touchdowns, respectively. Since 2002, Tampa Bay ranks sixth in the NFL with 19 defensive touchdowns.

The defense has also pieced together some impressive streaks during Kiffin's tenure. From 1999-2003, the Buccaneer defense established an NFL record by posting at least one sack in 69 consecutive games. Tampa Bay also recorded a takeaway in 54 consecutive games, the second-longest streak in the NFL over the previous 20 years, until the defense failed to post a takeaway in Week 15 of the 2003 season. Additionally, the defense registered at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 straight contests, the longest streak in the league since 1963, before the streak was snapped against Green Bay in Week 11 of the 2003 season.

Clearly, much of the success of Kiffin's defense can be attributed to the abundance of talent discovered and cultivated under Kiffin. Under Kiffin's guidance, two Buccaneer defenders earned Pro Bowl honors after the 2005 and 2006 seasons, Barber and Brooks. The 2006 selection marked Brooks' 10th consecutive selection to the Pro Bowl, tops in team history for most total and consecutive appearances. It also marked Barber's third consecutive and fourth overall appearance in the all-star game. During Kiffin's tenure, the defense has produced 34 Pro Bowl selections over the last 12 seasons. Prior to that, the Buccaneers' defense had just 12 Pro Bowl selections in the previous 20 years. Kiffin has had at least one player named to the Pro Bowl in 13 of 14 seasons he has served as a defensive coordinator in the NFL (Minnesota, 1991; New Orleans, 1995; Tampa Bay, 1996-2006). Additionally, Kiffin has had two players earn AP Defensive Player of the Year honors under his tutelage, Brooks in 2002 and DT Warren Sapp in 1999.

Kiffin came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 campaign as the defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. In 1995, the Saints tied for fourth in the NFL in sacks with 44. Prior to coaching in New Orleans, Kiffin spent four seasons (1991-1994) as an assistant coach for the Minnesota Vikings, serving as defensive coordinator for head coach Jerry Burns in 1991 and as inside linebackers coach for head coach Dennis Green and defensive coordinator Tony Dungy from 1992-1994. During that tenure in Minnesota, the Vikings led the league in both total defense and run defense in 1994.

In 1990, Kiffin tutored the linebackers for the N.Y. Jets under head coach Bruce Coslet and defensive coordinator Pete Carroll. Kiffin originally joined the Vikings as the team's linebackers coach from 1986-1989. During that time, he coached standout Viking linebackers Scott Studwell, Chris Doleman and Mike Merriweather. In both 1988 (255.7, 4.3) and 1989 (261.5, 4.1), Minnesota was the league leader in both total defense and yards allowed per play.

From 1984-1985, Kiffin coached linebackers for the Buffalo Bills, overseeing players like Darryl Talley and Jim Haslett, who later coached with Kiffin in New Orleans. Kiffin's first professional coaching job came in 1983 as the linebackers coach for the Green Bay Packers under Bart Starr.

Kiffin was the head coach at North Carolina State from 1980-1982, compiling a 16-17 record, including 6-5 marks in 1981 and 1982. Former Philadelphia Eagle Pro Bowl WR Mike Quick played for the Wolfpack under Kiffin. From 1977-1979, Kiffin was defensive coordinator for Lou Holtz at Arkansas while also serving as assistant head coach in 1979. Arkansas led the nation in scoring defense in 1977.

Kiffin began his coaching career at Nebraska, where he worked from 1966-1976 under both Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne. Kiffin helped command a Cornhuskers defense that led Nebraska to consecutive national championships in 1970-1971. When Osborne became Nebraska's head coach in 1973, he named Kiffin as his defensive coordinator.

As a player, Kiffin was both an offensive and defensive tackle at Nebraska from 1959-1963. Following graduation, he sat out the 1964 season because of a knee injury before playing defensive end for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 1965.

Kiffin was involved with the first-ever “Buccaneers Coaching Academy” in 2003. The hands-on clinic for area high school coaches focused on several essential areas of football knowledge and player development.

A native of Lexington, Nebraska, Kiffin was that state’s High School Athlete of the Year in 1958. Monte and his wife, Robin, live in Tampa. They have three children, including daughter Heidi and sons Lane and Chris, and three grandchildren, Preston, Landry and Presley. Lane currently serves as Head Coach of the Oakland Raiders and is the youngest head coach in NFL history. Chris currently serves as an intern at the University of Nebraska.

BILL MUIR

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR-OFFENSIVE LINE COACH
31ST NFL SEASON - 11TH WITH BUCCANEERS

A veteran of over four decades in the coaching profession, Bill Muir enters his seventh season in his second stint with the Buccaneers as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach. In his first appointment with Tampa Bay, Muir spent the 1978-1981 seasons in the personnel department as a scout.

Although Muir has spent the majority of his coaching career tutoring the offensive line, he has also served as a defensive coordinator and defensive line coach on the collegiate and professional levels. He is universally regarded as one of the NFL's finest and most respected instructors of offensive linemen. Joining Tampa Bay in 2002 after seven seasons with the N.Y. Jets (1995-2001), Muir's impact was immediate as he helped lead the Buccaneers to their first world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII.

In 2007, Muir oversaw a talented offensive line that by Week 17 was the youngest starting offensive line in the NFL at 25.4 years old. Although newly-signed LT Luke Petitgout was lost for the season after suffering a knee injury in Week 4, rookie LT Donald Penn stepped in and played remarkably well, starting the next 12 games. Penn was the latest youthful addition to a line that already featured three starters with two years of NFL experience or less: LG Arron Sears (rookie), RG Davin Joseph (2nd year) and RT Jeremy Trueblood (2nd year). Aside from Penn, the other three young linemen teamed with 10-year veteran C John Wade to start all 16 games. Despite the early loss of Petitgout and the reliance on such a young offensive front, Muir's line allowed only 36 sacks to rank 18th in the NFL. Under Muir's tutelage, the offensive line paved the way for a rushing attack that averaged 4.17 yards per carry, the second-best mark in team history, and an offense that scored 334 points on the season, the fourth-most in team annals. Muir's men also blocked for QB Jeff Garcia, who completed 63.9 percent of his passes for 2,440 yards and 13 touchdowns on the season and made the NFC Pro Bowl squad. With Muir's line leading the way, the Buccaneers featured a much more balanced offense in 2007, ranking 11th in rushing yards (117 ypg) and 16th in passing (209.8 ypg).

The 2006 season saw Muir's line suffer numerous injuries while protecting three different starting quarterbacks. The anticipated starting offensive line, T Anthony Davis, G Dan Breening, Wade, Joseph and T Kenyatta Walker, never appeared in a game together. Joseph, a 2006 first-round pick, was injured in practice prior to the season opener, but returned in Week 5 and put together a solid rookie campaign, starting 12 games. Coming off a great rookie season, Breening struggled with an ankle injury much of the first half of the season and was subsequently lost for the year after tearing his ACL at Dallas on Thanksgiving. Walker, a sixth-year veteran, only started three contests at right tackle before being placed on injured reserve with a knee injury. Davis and Wade were the only anticipated starters to start all 16 games in 2006. Muir relied on the versatile G/C Sean Mahan to fill in at both guard spots as he started in 12 games. Muir also oversaw the development of Trueblood, a second-round selection who posted 13 starts while admirably replacing Walker at right tackle. Despite the influx of young talent and numerous injuries, Muir's line only surrendered 33 sacks to rank 15th in the NFL. The 33 sacks were also the second-lowest total given up by the Buccaneers since 1999. Additionally, the 25 combined starts for Joseph and Trueblood were tied for third-most in the NFL among rookie tandems on the offensive line in 2006.

For the first time in team history, Muir led an offensive line in 2005 that featured the same five starters for all 16 games, one of only three teams in the NFL that could make that claim, including Breening, who was one of just four rookie offensive linemen in the NFL to start every game in 2005. Muir's line was instrumental in the impressive campaign of NFL Rookie of the Year RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, who finished the season by setting a Buccaneers rookie record with 1,178 rushing yards while also rushing for 100 or more yards in a team-record six games in 2005. Overall, Muir saw his line help improve the Buccaneers rushing attack from the 29th-ranked rush offense (93.1 ypg rushing) in 2004 to the 14th-ranked unit (114.1 ypg rushing) in 2005.

In 2004, Muir's offensive line was charged with the task of blocking for three different starting quarterbacks while helping the offense rank 10th in the NFC. QB Brian Griese took the reins of the offense in Week 5, and under the protection of Muir's line, set multiple team passer records, including highest passer rating (97.5), highest completion percentage (69.3) and most yards per pass play (7.83).

Muir's men were also largely responsible for RB Michael Pittman's best statistical season as a professional in 2004. Despite missing the first three games of the season, Pittman rushed for a career-high 926 yards on 219 carries (4.2 avg.). He also reached the end zone a career-high 10 times to rank ninth in the NFC among non-kickers in points scored (60).

Behind the valor of Muir's unit, the Buccaneers finished 2003 as the 10th-rated offense in the NFL, marking the second time in club history that Tampa Bay finished the season ranked in the Top 10 in total offense in the NFL. Additionally, the Bucs scored at least one offensive touchdown in all 16 games in 2003 for just the third time in franchise history, joining the 1984 and 1992 clubs. QB Brad Johnson set several team passing records in 2003 as he broke his own team record with 26 touchdown passes and set team single-season records for attempts (570), completions (354) and tied the club mark for 300-yard passing games with four. Most impressively, the offensive line prevented Johnson from being sacked in a team-record 160 consecutive pass attempts in 2003. His 3,811 passing yards also established a team record as Johnson started all 16 games for the third time in his career.

Despite losing several starts due to injury, Muir's unit displayed consistent improvement throughout the 2002 season, culminating with the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship. Super Bowl XXXVII saw the offensive line pave the way for Pittman as he ran for a game and season-high 124 yards on 29 carries (4.3 avg.) against Oakland. The entire offensive unit was stout throughout the playoffs, averaging 35.3 points and 334.0 yards per game while surrendering only one sack in three postseason contests. Muir's offense churned out 24 first downs, 365 total yards and helped the Buccaneers hold nearly a 15-minute advantage in time of possession in the 48-21 rout of the Raiders.

Johnson established then club single-season records in touchdown passes (22) and completion percentage (62.3). Additionally, Tampa Bay's offensive line helped the Buccaneers net 779 rushing yards (111.3 ypg) in the club's final seven games, including the postseason.

In 2001, Muir's final season in New York, the Jets finished with their best rushing totals during his tenure with the club. Behind Pro Bowl RB Curtis Martin, the Jets finished fourth overall in rushing offense and second in the AFC, averaging 128.4 yards per game, which marked the best ranking rushing offense since the Jets finished fifth in that category in 1991. Martin earned his fourth Pro Bowl selection after finishing second in the NFL with a career-high and club-record 1,513 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns. Martin posted four consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons behind the Jets offensive line. Under Muir's direction, the Jets allowed the fewest sacks in the AFC (19), which also marked the second-lowest total in the NFL. In addition, Muir was instrumental in the development of C Kevin Mawae, who was selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl in 2001.

In 2000, New York's offensive line tied Indianapolis for the fewest sacks allowed (20), despite being part of an offensive line that had the most pass attempts of any team in the NFL. The Jets offense averaged 337.2 yards per game, and Martin raced for 1,204 yards rushing, including galloping for a club-record 203 yard rushing day against Indianapolis.

Muir displayed his outstanding teaching and developmental skills in 1999 when he integrated three new starters on the offensive line — guards Randy Thomas and Kerry Jenkins and RT Ryan Young in the starting lineup. Despite the injuries, Muir developed a cohesive unit that helped Martin post a then-team record 1,464 yards rushing, marking just the third time in team history that a Jets running back had posted consecutive 1,000 yard campaigns.

Muir joined the Jets after spending three seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles in the same capacity (1992-1994). He was instrumental in an Eagles' rushing attack that averaged 110.1 yards per game over two seasons (1993-1994) and ranked fourth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL in 1994. Prior to joining the Eagles, he spent three seasons with Indianapolis as an assistant head coach/offensive line in 1991 and defensive coordinator in 1989-1990. He has also served as an offensive line coach with the Detroit Lions from 1985-1988 and New England Patriots from 1982-1984.

Muir is in his second stint with the Buccaneers organization. He spent four years with the Buccaneers as a college scout and in pro player personnel from 1978-1981. During his first tenure with the Buccaneers, Tampa Bay advanced to the postseason twice (1979 and 1981) and reached the NFC Championship Game in 1979 in just its fourth year of existence.

Muir began his coaching career at the collegiate level at his alma mater Susquehanna (1965) before moving onto Delaware Valley, Rhode Island, Idaho State, Southern Methodist, Orlando of the Continental Football League and the Texans of the World Football League. He played at Susquehanna from 1962-64 and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1990 after being named to the school's "Top 100" players of all-time in a recent study done at the conclusion of the millennium.

During the 2003 and 2004 offseasons, Muir joined several other Buccaneers coaches to host the High School Coaching Academy in conjunction with the National Football Foundation. The academy was a one day, hands-on clinic designed to elevate the quality of football coaching at the high school level.

Muir was born in Pittsburgh and is married to wife Barbara. The couple has two children, daughter Keelan and son Brady, as well as four grandchildren: Ryan, Kendall and twins, William and Kaylan. Barbara has been active in the Tampa community as a member of the Buccaneers Women's Organization, participating in the Reading Program to promote literacy in children, the Fall Festival and the Metropolitan Ministries' Holiday Tent.

RICHARD BISACCIA

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH-
SPECIAL TEAMS & RUNNING BACKS

7TH NFL SEASON - 7TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Richard Bisaccia is in his seventh season leading the Buccaneers special teams unit and his first as associate head coach – special teams and running backs. In his six seasons on the Tampa Bay sideline, the Buccaneers special teams unit has had arguably its most successful stretch in team history.

Under the direction of Bisaccia in 2007, the Buccaneers ranked 12th-best in the NFL in kickoff return average (23.3 avg.), seventh-best in punt return coverage (7.4 avg.) and second-best in kickoff return coverage (19.5 avg.). The special teams unit also made history as KR Micheal Spurlock ran 90 yards for the first-ever kickoff return touchdown in Bucs history.

In 2007, K Matt Bryant had a career-high 118 points, sixth in the NFC and tied for 10th in the NFL, ranking third in team history for points in a single season, connecting on a career-high 28 field goals on 33 attempts and was 34-of-34 on PATs. He made his sixth-career game-winning field goal, a 43-yarder, in Week 5 vs. Tennessee (10/14) and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in December by connecting on 10-of-11 field goal attempts while hitting a season-long 49-yard field goal and converting all 12 PATs. Bryant's .825 field goal percentage as a Buccaneer in three seasons also ranks first in club annals.

P Josh Bidwell punted 77 times for 3,382 yards (43.9 avg.) and matched a franchise record for most punts inside the opponents 20-yard line with 30 in 2007. His 43.9 average (342 punts for 15,000 yards) as a Buccaneer is tops in team history and he also ranks first in team history with 97 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. WR Mark Jones also set a Buccaneers single-season record for kickoff return average (28.6 avg.) in 2007.

In 2006, Bryant continued to be a consistent scoring threat for the Buccaneers and authored one of the most exciting finishes to a game in NFL history. In a Week 7 contest against the Philadelphia Eagles, Bryant connected on a 62-yard, game-winning field goal as time expired while garnering NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. It was the second-longest game-winning field goal in NFL history and the third-longest field goal overall. Bryant also connected on 11 consecutive field goal attempts during the season. Additionally, the Bucs kickoff coverage unit excelled in 2006, ranking first in the NFL in opponent kickoff return average (18.4 avg.).

For the second consecutive season in 2006, a member of Bisaccia's unit was sent to the Pro Bowl. TE/LS Dave Moore was added to the NFC Pro Bowl roster as a need player to handle the long snapping chores in the all-star game, marking the first time in team history a Buccaneers special teamer was named to the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons. Additionally, CB Torrie Cox was named as the first alternate as the NFC special teams player and earned USA Today All-Joe Team honors. Cox, who excelled on the punt and kickoff coverage units while also sharing the kickoff return duties, finished the 2006 season ranked tied for first on the team with 20 special teams tackles.

In his third season under Bisaccia in 2006, Bidwell was again a steady performer for the Buccaneers. His 43.8-yard average as a member of the Buccaneers is tops in team history and his 52.3-yard average against Seattle in Week 17 was his highest single-game gross average as a member of the Buccaneers and the third highest of his career. Additionally, his 43.5 average in 2006 was the second highest of his career.

In his second year with the Buccaneers under Bisaccia in 2005, Bidwell was named to his first Pro Bowl and earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors while ranking third in the NFL and first in the NFC with a career-best 45.6-yard average. His 45.6-yard gross average in 2005 was the best single-season average in team history. Bidwell also garnered NFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors in November and NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week 3 and Week 6. Bidwell placed 24 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2005, the second-highest total of his career, to rank fifth in the NFC and tied for fifth all-time in team history. Against Miami in Week 6, Bidwell placed a single-game career-high five punts inside the 20-yard line.

Bryant also flourished in his first season under Bisaccia in 2005, connecting on 21-of-25 (.840) field goal attempts, including two game-winners (at Atlanta and vs. Atlanta), while connecting on a then career-long 50-yard field goal. His .840 field goal percentage was the third-highest single-season percentage in team history. WR Mark Jones ranked fourth in the NFC in punt return average, returning a conference-leading 51 punts for 492 yards (9.6 avg.).

Bisaccia's unit challenged several team and individual records in 2004, including best kickoff return average, most kickoff return yardage, most punts inside the 20-yard line and highest net and gross punting averages. Bidwell placed 23 punts inside the 20 to rank, at the time, tied for fifth in team history and tied for eighth in the NFC. Cox recorded an impressive 26.2-yard kickoff return average to finish fourth in the NFL and second in team history for a single season. Additionally, the 24.2-yard team kickoff return average in 2004 was tops in Buccaneers history and ranked fourth in the NFL, while the 1,450 total kickoff return yards were second-best all-time in team annals. LB Keith Burns led the team with 23 special teams tackles while earning Buccaneers special teams MVP and USA Today All-Joe Team honors.

In his first season with Bisaccia in 2004, Bidwell posted a 42.3-yard average, then the second-highest average of his career, to rank eighth in the NFC and, at the time, seventh-best in team history. Bidwell also tied or established new single-game career highs in net punting average (44.3 avg. at St. Louis, 10/18), gross punting yards (371 yards vs. Seattle, 9/19) and punts placed inside the 20 (four vs. Denver, 10/3) which he topped in 2005.

The Buccaneers special teams enjoyed success throughout the 2002 season and proved vital in the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl title. Buccaneers career scoring leader, K Martin Gramatica, hit 32-of-39 (.821) field attempts in 2002, including 5-of-6 from 50 or more yards while also hitting all 32 of his PATs. Gramatica tied for the NFC lead with a career-high 32 field goals, while his 39 field goal attempts and 128 points in 2002 were new club single-season records. Additionally, his five field goals from over 50 yards were tied for the league lead with Paul Edinger of the Chicago Bears. P Tom Tupu's 42.8-yard average ranked fourth in the NFC and he set a team single-season record with 30 punts placed inside the 20. He also set a Buccaneers single-game record for gross punting average (52.0) in a game at New Orleans.

Bisaccia joined the Buccaneers in 2002 after spending three seasons (1999-2001) at the University of Mississippi. Bisaccia was assistant head coach in 2000 and 2001, while also serving as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator throughout his three seasons at Ole Miss.

Bisaccia tutored All-SEC performers RB Deuce McAllister, RB Joe Gunn and K Les Binkley during his tenure. Ole Miss also excelled in special teams under Bisaccia, with Binkley setting a single-season scoring mark for a kicker. In 2000, the Rebels returned both a kickoff and a punt for a touchdown, and the 2001 unit led the conference and ranked 12th in the nation in kickoff returns with a 24.4-yard average. Jason Armstead finished second in the SEC and ninth nationally with a 27.6-yard average on kickoff returns in 2001.

McAllister, who was chosen in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft by New Orleans, established 18 school records in his career. He ended his career with a team-record 3,060 yards rushing and was named all-conference in both 1999 and 2000. McAllister was also selected to the All-SEC team as either an all-purpose player or a punt returner during his final two seasons. In 1999, both McAllister and Gunn earned first-team All-SEC recognition as they formed one of the top rushing tandems in the nation, combining for more than 1,700 rushing yards. Gunn closed his career in 2001 second to McAllister in rushing yards with 2,749.

Prior to his stint at Ole Miss, Bisaccia spent five seasons (1994-1998) as the running backs coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Clemson. Under his tutelage, the Tigers set a school record with eight blocked kicks in 1997, and were the only team in the nation to have four players ranked in the Top 25 in four special teams categories in 1995. Bisaccia also coached three-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference running back Raymond Priester, who set 18 school rushing records. Over the three-year period from 1995-1997, Clemson had 15 blocked kicks, the most-ever for a three-year span in school history. In addition, Tony Horne ended his Tiger career ranked sixth in career kickoff return yardage and 16th in punt return yardage.

Bisaccia served on the coaching staff at South Carolina from 1988-1993, beginning as a graduate assistant for tight ends and receivers. He also served as a volunteer assistant coach for defensive ends. Bisaccia took over as an assistant coach in charge of running backs and special teams in 1992 and 1993. Under Bisaccia, the Gamecocks led the SEC in kickoff returns in 1992. South Carolina also had a pair of All-SEC running backs in Brandon Bennett and Rob DeBoer.

Bisaccia began his coaching career in 1983 at Wayne State College in Nebraska, coaching defensive backs and special teams. He switched to the offensive side of the ball in 1984, tutoring quarterbacks and receivers for the next four seasons (1984-1987) in Wayne State's run-and-shoot offense.

Bisaccia, a native of Yonkers, N.Y., attended Yankton College in South Dakota from 1979-1982 and was a four-year starter at defensive back. He served as the team captain in 1982 and earned All-South Dakota Intercollegiate Conference honors in 1981 and 1982. Bisaccia was a free agent signee with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL in 1983. He received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Wayne State (Nebraska). Bisaccia grew up in Connecticut and graduated from New Fairfield High School in 1979.

Prior to the 2002 season, Bisaccia participated in the "Bucs on the Beach" volleyball tournament, in which all proceeds went to the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Glazer Family Foundation. Bisaccia was also involved with the first-ever "Buccaneers Coaching Academy" in 2002. The hands-on clinic for area high school coaches focused on several essential areas of football knowledge and player development. During the 2003 and 2004 offseasons, he also lent his coaching knowledge to "NFL 101," a program that educates women on the terminology, formations, strategy and basics of football.

Bisaccia is married to the former Jeanne Jons and the couple has four children: Michele, Elizabeth, Madeline and Richie. Jeanne has been an active member of the Buccaneers Women's Organization, participating in the Metropolitan Ministries' Holiday Tent, the Buccaneer Wives Holiday Fashion Show, the Fall Festival and the 2005 Buccaneers Family Cookbook.

LARRY COYER

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

10TH NFL SEASON - 2ND WITH BUCCANEERS

In his 44th year of coaching on either the collegiate or professional level, Larry Coyer serves as assistant head coach with the Buccaneers. Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay in 2007, he spent seven seasons on the Denver Broncos coaching staff as defensive coordinator (2003-2006) and linebackers coach (2000-2002).

This past season Coyer helped lead the Buccaneers and their defense to the NFC South division title, while finishing as the second-ranked unit in the NFL in total defense. Coyer's defensive line unit accounted for 30 of the team's 33 sacks, including 15.5 from rookie and first-year defensive lineman, first in that category in the NFL in 2007. Coyer also helped rookie DE Gaines Adams to the PFW/PFWA All Rookie team and first-year DE Greg White to a team-high eight sacks.

During his four seasons as the Broncos defensive coordinator, Coyer's defense consistently ranked among the NFL's most productive, helping the club advance to the playoffs in three of four seasons. The Broncos placed in the league's Top 7 in run defense in three of four seasons under Coyer and allowed an average of 98.3 rushing yards per game from 2003-2006 to rank fourth in the NFL during that period.

Denver also ranked among the league's best teams in overall defense under Coyer, posting consecutive top-four NFL rankings in yards per game allowed from 2003-2004. In addition, the Broncos surrendered an average of 18.3 points per game from 2003-2006 to rank sixth in the NFL in scoring defense with Coyer at the helm. In 2006, the Broncos began the season by not allowing a touchdown in the first 11 quarters of play, marking the longest such streak to begin a season since 1942.

Coyer's defense was instrumental in the Broncos going 13-3 in 2005 and advancing to the AFC Championship Game. Denver, which sent CB Champ Bailey, S John Lynch and LB Al Wilson to the Pro Bowl, ranked second in the NFL in run defense (85.2 ypg) and posted the third-best such mark in franchise history. The Broncos allowed only 16.1 points per game to tie for third in the NFL and surrendered a total of 37 points in their final four games (9.3 ppg) en route to capturing the AFC West title.

In 2004, Coyer's defense featured two Pro Bowl selections in Lynch and Bailey. Additionally, Coyer aided in the development of rookie LB D.J. Williams, who became only the second Broncos rookie and the first in 32 years to lead the team in tackles (114). Along the way, Williams was the only 2004 rookie to be named AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 16) and finished third in the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year voting.

Coyer wasted no time making a positive impact in his first year as the Broncos defensive coordinator in 2003. Denver's defense allowed an average of only 277.1 yards per game under Coyer's direction to rank fourth in the NFL and help the team to its first postseason berth since 2000.

Coyer began his Broncos coaching career as their linebackers coach from 2000-2002. In Coyer's first year instructing Denver's linebackers in 2000, John Mobley and fellow LB Bill Romanowski finished first and second on the team in tackles (133 and 121) while Wilson ranked fourth (104).

While at the University of Pittsburgh (1997-1999) as its defensive coordinator, Coyer directed a defensive unit that showed significant improvement each season, culminating in a 1999 showing that included top-five rankings in the Big East Conference in all major defensive statistical categories. Two of his standouts, safety Ramon Walker and defensive lineman Demond Gibson, earned All-Big East Conference honors that season.

In 1998, the Panthers ranked third in the Big East in total defense, and over the course of the 1997-1998 seasons, the unit amassed 62 sacks, the highest two-season total at Pittsburgh since 1990-1991.

Before his stint at Pittsburgh, Coyer was defensive coordinator at Iowa State University for two seasons (1995-1996). That post was preceded by a one-year assignment as defensive line coach for the New York Jets in 1994.

Coyer's other professional coaching experience came in the United States Football League as linebackers coach with the Michigan Panthers (1983-1984) and defensive coordinator with the Memphis Showboats (1985). Coyer helped Michigan capture the inaugural USFL championship in 1983 with a win against Philadelphia.

Additionally, Coyer was the defensive coordinator in 1993 at East Carolina University, where under his guidance the Pirates improved in virtually every defensive category. He also served as defensive backs coach at Ohio State (1991-1992), assistant head coach/defensive backs coach at the University of Houston (1990) and linebackers coach at UCLA (1987-1989). Before his stint in the USFL, Coyer was defensive coordinator at Iowa State (1979-1982), Oklahoma State University (1978) and the University of Iowa (1974-1977) after serving as defensive backs coach at Bowling Green (1968-1973).

A 1964 graduate of Marshall University, Coyer is a member of the Football Hall of Fame at Marshall for his achievements as a player. He began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1965 as secondary coach, a position he maintained through 1967. An additional coaching stint came at the acclaimed Massillon (Ohio) High School, where NFL Legend Paul Brown once coached.

A native of Greenbottom, West Virginia, Coyer was born in Huntington, West Virginia. Married to Jan, Coyer has two sons, Matt and Justin. Matt was a member of an NCAA Champion soccer team at Indiana University. He and his wife, Kristin, are the parents of six-year-old Rachel and three-year-old Ryan. Justin was an Iowa all-state football player in high school.

TIM BERBENICH

ASSISTANT RUNNING BACKS COACH
7TH NFL SEASON - 3RD WITH BUCCANEERS

Tim Berbenich enters his third season with the Buccaneers and first as assistant running backs coach after spending the past two seasons as offensive quality control coach. In 2007, Berbenich helped lead the Buccaneers to the 2007 NFC South title. Berbenich joined the Tampa Bay staff after spending parts of six seasons (2000-2005) with the N.Y. Jets organization, including three years (2003-2005) on the coaching staff.

Berbenich spent three seasons on the Jets offensive staff, as an offensive assistant during the 2003 and 2004 seasons before adding quality control duties in 2005. He initially joined the Jets on a full-time basis in 2002 as an operations assistant after interning with the team in operations during training camp from 2000-2002. During his tenure in New York, the Jets reached the playoffs during the 2002 and 2004 seasons.

Berbenich played wide receiver for Hamilton College in Clinton, New York from 1998-2001 while earning his degree in economics. Born December 19, 1979 in Huntington, New York, Berbenich is married to Diane and resides in Tampa.

CASEY "GUS" BRADLEY

LINEBACKERS COACH

3RD NFL SEASON - 3RD WITH BUCCANEERS

Casey "Gus" Bradley enters his third season with the Buccaneers and second as the linebackers coach after serving as a defensive quality control coach in 2006.

Bradley commands one of the most veteran and decorated units of the Buccaneers defense, featuring Derrick Brooks, Cato June and Barrett Ruud. Last season, Bradley helped the defense finish with the league's stingiest defense against the pass, surrendering a NFL-low 170.5 yards per game through the air, and the team also saw a dramatic turnaround in overall defense, improving from the 17th-ranked defense (329.4 ypg) in 2006 to the second ranked defense (278.4 ypg) in 2007.

Also in 2007, Ruud earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 2) in Tampa Bay's 31-14 win over the New Orleans Saints, finishing the game with a then career-high 16 tackles, a career-high two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Ruud went on to earn NFC Defensive Player of the Month (September) after leading the Buccaneers defense with 51 tackles and adding one interception, three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two passes defended.

In 2006, Bradley worked closely with defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin in the organization and implementation of the defensive game plan that featured Pro Bowlers Brooks and CB Ronde Barber. Bradley helped the defensive unit finish strong in 2006, totaling 13 sacks and forcing nine turnovers in the last seven games.

Bradley joined the Buccaneers after spending 10 seasons (1996-2005) as an assistant at North Dakota State, including six as assistant head coach (2000-2005). He also served as defensive coordinator for NDSU from 1997-2002 and again in 2005.

Under Bradley's guidance, North Dakota State's defense led the Great West Football Conference in scoring defense (13.7 ppg), pass defense (150.3 ypg), total defense (272.4 ypg) and turnover margin (+1.00) in 2005.

Bradley was the head coach at Fort Lewis College for four months (December 1995 - March 1996) and was defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Fort Lewis for four seasons (1992-1995). Prior to Fort Lewis, he was a graduate assistant coach at NDSU for two seasons (1990-1991).

Bradley played his college football at North Dakota State (1984-1988), where he was a free safety and punter, a four-time academic all-North Central Conference selection and a valuable member of the 1988 national championship football team.

Bradley earned bachelor's degrees in business administration (1989) and physical education (1990) from North Dakota State as well as a master's degree in athletic administration from NDSU in 1992.

Casey and his wife, Michaela, have four children, Carter, Anna, Eli and Ella.

BOB CASULLO

TIGHT ENDS COACH

9TH NFL SEASON - 2ND WITH BUCCANEERS

Bob Casullo enters his second season as the Buccaneers tight ends coach. Casullo served on the Seattle Seahawks coaching staff for two seasons (2005-2006) as special teams coordinator. In his eight seasons as an NFL assistant, Casullo has been a part of seven playoff teams, including appearances in Super Bowls XXXVII and XL.

In 2007, Casullo led a Tampa Bay tight end group that helped block for a rushing attack that averaged 4.17 yards per carry, the second-highest mark in team history, as the team secured the NFC South division championship. His tight ends were also part of an offense that scored 334 points in 2007, the fourth-highest total in team annals. Casullo helped Alex Smith post a career high in receiving yards in 2007, with 385 yards on 32 catches along with three touchdowns. TE Jerramy Stevens, reunited with Casullo after spending the 2005 and 2006 seasons together in Seattle, also had a solid year, picking up 189 yards on 18 catches with four touchdowns. Along with Anthony Becht (five catches, 20 yards, two touchdowns), Tampa Bay's tight ends accounted for 55 catches for 594 yards and nine touchdowns in 2007.

In Casullo's final season as the Seahawks special teams coordinator in 2006, K Josh Brown connected on 25-of-32 field goal attempts (80.6%), including three-of-five from more than 50 yards. Additionally, rookie P Ryan Plackemeier finished fourth in the NFL with a 45.0-yard average on the season.

During the 2005 season, Casullo's first with the Seahawks, Brown was named a Pro Bowl alternate as he attempted a career-high eight field goals of at least 50 yards, making five, which tied Norm Johnson's 1986 club record. The overall play of his group helped Seattle to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XL.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Casullo spent the 2004 season as the tight ends coach for the New York Jets. His tight end corps helped sustain a balanced offense that allowed RB Curtis Martin to win the NFL rushing title and the Jets quarterbacks to post better than a 90.0 passer rating.

Before arriving in New York, Casullo was special teams coordinator at Oakland from 2000-2003. His special teams units helped earn Oakland three AFC West titles (2000-2002) in his four seasons, including a Super Bowl XXXVII appearance against Tampa Bay following the 2002 season. In 2003, he fielded a unit that ranked second in the AFC and third in the NFL in punt return average. His group was the NFL's best kickoff coverage team in 2001, stopping opponents 17 times inside the 20. He produced a Pro Bowl punter, Shane Lechler, who led the AFC in punting average with a 46.2 average in 2001 and his 2000 crew led the NFL in net punting average.

Before breaking into the National Football League, Casullo enjoyed 15 seasons and 10 bowl game appearances in the college ranks. He coached special teams/tight ends (1999) at Michigan State; special teams/defensive ends (1998) and special teams/running backs (1995-1997) at Georgia Tech; and special teams/tight ends (1991-1994) and running backs (1985-1990) at Syracuse.

Prior to his collegiate coaching career, Casullo spent two years as the head coach at Baldwinsville High School in Syracuse, New York, and 10 seasons as an assistant at Henninger High School, also in Syracuse.

Born March 24, 1951, Casullo and his wife, Pat, have two sons, Rocco and Jamie.

JOHNNY COX

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH
1ST NFL SEASON - 1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Johnny Cox enters his first season as defensive quality control coach with the Buccaneers.

Cox spent last season at the College of the Holy Cross serving as the wide receivers and special teams coach. Cox helped lead a Crusaders offense that averaged 35.9 ppg and 463.4 ypg in 2007 while guiding WR Ryan Maher to first-team All-American honors.

Prior to his appointment at Holy Cross, Cox spent four seasons (2003-2006) as head coach at Rex Putnam High School in Milwaukie, Oregon. During the 2006 season, Cox led Putnam to its first winning record in 20 years.

Cox also spent time as the wide receivers coach at North Dakota State University for three seasons (2000-2002). During the 2000 campaign, he helped lead the Bison to the semifinals of the NCAA Division II playoffs. In the summer of 2002, Cox also served a minority coaching internship with the San Diego Chargers, working with the wide receivers.

Cox was previously the offensive coordinator at Fort Lewis College during the 1999 season. He also was as a graduate assistant at both the University of Texas (1997-1998) and North Dakota State (1996).

In 1995, he served an assistant coach at Overland High School in Aurora, Colorado and was the secondary coach at Fort Lewis College in 1994.

Cox is a 1994 graduate of Fort Lewis College, where he was a two-time first team Division II All-American, and was named the 1993 Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Player of the Year. He went on to receive his master's degree from the University of Texas in 2000.

Cox resides in Tampa with his wife, Deb.

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH
2ND NFL SEASON - 2ND WITH BUCCANEERS

Ejiro Evero enters his second season as a defensive quality control coach with Tampa Bay.

In Evero's first season with the Buccaneers he worked closely with defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin and the implementation of the defensive game plan. He helped the defensive unit finish the 2007 season ranked second in the NFL in total defense (278.4 ypg) and first in pass defense (170.5 ypg) en route to the NFC South title.

Evero spent two seasons (2005-06) as an assistant coach at the University of California-Davis, helping the Aggies to the Great West Conference Championship in 2005. In 2004, he served as football intern at his alma mater, in addition to coaching at Davis High School as an assistant with the junior varsity team.

Evero was a four-year letterman at UC-Davis, where he started for three seasons at safety. A two-time captain, he was named a Division II All-American in 2002 and 2003. Following his college career, he signed with the Oakland Raiders in 2004 as a rookie free agent.

Evero is single and resides in Tampa.

JAY GRUDEN

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

7TH NFL SEASON - 7TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Having served as a player and coach for the past 19 years in professional football, Jay Gruden begins his seventh season with Tampa Bay as an offensive assistant coach. Gruden works closely with his brother, head coach Jon Gruden, in the development of the weekly offensive game plan. On game days, Gruden resides in the coaches' booth, providing play-calling assistance and in-game adjustments.

His impressive list of accomplishments as both a player and coach include 18 seasons of service in the Arena Football League, where he has never missed the playoffs as a player or coach. In 2008, Gruden completed his fifth season in his second stint as head coach of the Orlando Predators tallying an 9-7 mark and once again advancing to the playoffs.

In 2002, Gruden's first season with the Buccaneers, he helped guide an offense that showed consistent improvement and proved vital in the club's first NFL championship in Super Bowl XXXVII against Oakland. With Tampa Bay's Super Bowl championship, he has been a member of seven championship teams as both a player (four) and a coach (three). Last year, Gruden also helped lead the Buccaneers to their third NFC South division title in the past six seasons.

As head coach of the Orlando Predators (1998-2001, 2004-2008), Jay has led the team to four ArenaBowl appearances with two championships and ranks sixth all-time in AFL wins with a 82-54 regular-season record. The first championship came in 1998 with a 62-31 win over Tampa Bay at ArenaBowl XII and the second, a 41-38 win over the Nashville Kats in 2000.

Gruden also spent one season as offensive coordinator of the Nashville Kats in 1997, tutoring QB Andy Kelly and helping set an expansion-team record of 10 wins. As quarterback of the Tampa Bay Storm from 1991 to 1996, Gruden won four ArenaBowl championships in six years, passed for more than 15,000 yards and 280 touchdowns, while also completing almost 60 percent of his passes. He retired as the league's all-time leading passer, carrying with him a league MVP award in 1992 and an ArenaBowl MVP trophy in 1993.

Elected to the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999, Gruden returned to the playing field three years later and led the Predators to the 2002 Southern Division Championship, throwing 68 touchdown passes in 14 games. In 10 games in 2003, Gruden passed for 49 touchdowns against only two interceptions and including the playoffs, finished the season 11-1 as a starter.

A three-year starter at Louisville (1985-1988) under head coach Howard Schnellenberger, Gruden set numerous passing records and earned team MVP recognition twice (1987 and 1988).

Gruden is the younger brother of Buccaneers head coach Jon Gruden and their father Jim, a former coach with the Buccaneers and scout for the San Francisco 49ers, is currently a personnel consultant with the Bucs. Jay and his wife, Sherry, reside in Orlando with their three sons: JJ, Joey and Jack.

PAUL KELLY

ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH - FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

11TH NFL SEASON - 5TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Paul Kelly enters his fifth season with the Buccaneers as the Assistant to the Head Coach - Football Operations after spending six years (1998-2003) with the Oakland Raiders.

Kelly works directly with Head Coach Jon Gruden in organizing football operations for the club and is involved in many of the day-to-day operations of the team. Kelly manages several elements of Gruden's off-field agenda, including various football operations, player and staff communications and the football calendar, including the offseason programs, mini-camps and training camp.

In 2007, Kelly helped Coach Gruden prepare an offensive game plan that produced 334 points, the fourth-highest total in team history, a rushing attack that averaged 4.17 yards per carry, the second-best mark in team annals, and saw WR Joey Galloway post his third consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season. Kelly's assistance also played a part as the team won the NFC South title in 2007. In 2005, Kelly helped lead the Buccaneers to the NFC South title.

While with the Raiders, Kelly spent his last two years as the Assistant to the Head Coach. In 2002, Kelly helped guide Oakland to its first Super Bowl appearance in 19 years as the Raiders represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXXVII against the Buccaneers.

Kelly joined the Raiders in 1998 under Gruden as a coaches assistant. He served in that capacity for four years before being named the Assistant to the Head Coach in 2002. Prior to joining the Raiders, he owned and managed his own San Francisco Bay Area based businesses.

Kelly, a San Francisco bay area native, was raised in San Diego and attended University of San Diego High School, where he lettered in basketball. From 1982-1984, he served as a team attendant for the San Diego Clippers.

Kelly graduated with a degree in business administration with an emphasis in new ventures and small business management from Cal State University, Hayward in 1990.

He currently resides in Tampa with wife, Catherine, his two sons, Colin and Hunter, and daughter, Lauren. Catherine has been involved in numerous community events as a member of the Buccaneers Women's Organization, including the Fall Festival and the Buccaneer Wives Holiday Fashion Show.

RICHARD MANN

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

27TH NFL SEASON - 7TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Richard Mann enters his seventh season as Tampa Bay's wide receivers coach. Possessing more than 30 years of coaching experience at the collegiate and professional levels, Mann has had the opportunity to coach some of the game's top receivers, including Tim Brown, Mark Clayton, Joey Galloway, Ike Hilliard, Keyshawn Johnson, Keenan McCardell, Rob Moore, Andre Rison, Webster Slaughter and Pro Football Hall of Fame TE Ozzie Newsome.

Last season Galloway became the first player in franchise history to eclipse the 1,000-yard receiving plateau for the third consecutive season, leading Mann's unit with 1,014 yards and six touchdowns on 57 receptions. Hilliard led the receiving corps with 62 receptions, his highest single-season output since his 72 receptions in 1999 as a member of the N.Y. Giants, for 722 yards and one touchdown.

In 2006, Mann coached Galloway to a team-leading 62 receptions for 1,057 yards and seven touchdowns. Defying age and maintaining his reputation as the league's best breakaway threat, Galloway's 17.0-yard average per catch led all NFL receivers with at least 50 receptions. It also marked his second consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season under Mann, making him just the second player in team history to accomplish the feat. Additionally, it was his first back-to-back 1,000-yard performance since 1997-1998.

In 2005, Mann coached Galloway to his best season as a professional. The veteran pass catcher enjoyed a Pro Bowl-caliber season while setting career highs in receptions and receiving yards in 2005. His 83 receptions ranked seventh in the NFC and were the fifth-highest total in team history while his 1,287 receiving yards ranked sixth in the NFL and second in team history. Galloway surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving plateau in 11 games, fastest in team history. Additionally, Mann's pupil set a new team record with 10 touchdown receptions in 2005, tying him for fifth in the NFL.

In his third season with Tampa Bay in 2004, Mann oversaw the development of first-round selection WR Michael Clayton, the highest wide receiver (15th overall) ever taken by the Buccaneers in the NFL Draft. Under the instruction of Mann, Clayton became one of the most productive rookie wide receivers in NFL history. Named one of the five finalists for the PEPSI Rookie of the Year award and selected to ESPN.com's All-Rookie team, he posted 80 receptions for 1,193 yards (14.9 avg.) with seven touchdowns.

Clayton's 80 receptions and 1,193 yards led the team and all NFL rookie wide receivers in 2004 and ranked fifth all-time in NFL history among rookie pass catchers. His season totals also established him as the top rookie receiver in team history. Additionally, Clayton led or tied for the team lead in receptions in eight games while leading the team in receiving yards in 10 contests.

Despite losing two of his top performers in 2003, Mann's unit provided a consistent threat as the Buccaneers offense finished in the top 10 in the NFL in total offense for the second time in team history. Utilizing seven different members of Mann's wide receivers corps, former QB Brad Johnson set numerous team records in 2003, including touchdown passes (26), passing yards (3,811) and completions (354). Led by McCardell, the receiving unit posted 188 receptions for 2,503 yards and 16 touchdowns. McCardell led all Buccaneers with 84 receptions for 1,174 yards (14.0 avg.) and nine touchdowns (eight receiving touchdowns and one fumble return for a touchdown) while earning his second career Pro Bowl appearance.

Under Mann's guidance in 2002, the Buccaneers' wide receivers hauled in 184 receptions for 2,281 yards and 16 touchdowns while helping Tampa Bay earn its first Super Bowl title. Mann was reunited with Keyshawn Johnson in 2002, who hauled in 63 receptions for 844 yards and eight touchdowns during his rookie season with the N.Y. Jets under Mann. Johnson's success continued in 2002 as he recorded 76 receptions for 1,088 yards and five touchdowns, making him the first player in Bucs' history to record consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Upon arriving in Tampa from Jacksonville in the offseason, McCardell made an immediate impact. McCardell led all Buccaneers receivers and tied a then career-high with six touchdown receptions in 2002 — as well as a pair of touchdowns in the Super Bowl XXXVII win over the Oakland Raiders — and added 61 receptions for 670 yards. Signed as a free agent in the offseason, WR Joe Jurevicius flourished under Mann as he hauled in 37 receptions for 423 yards and a then career-high four touchdowns as the Buccaneers' third receiver in 2002. Jurevicius caught a touchdown in the divisional playoff win against San Francisco and set up the go-ahead score in the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia with a 71-yard reception. He added four catches for a game-high 78 yards in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Mann spent the 2001 season with the Washington Redskins as wide receivers coach, tutoring Michael Westbrook and rookie Rod Gardner, who combined for 103 receptions, 1,405 yards and eight touchdowns in 2001. Prior to working with the Redskins, Mann served as the receivers coach for Kansas City in 1999 and 2000. Under Mann, the Chiefs' passing attack produced a club-record 4,388 passing yards and 28 touchdowns in 2000. Mann tutored standout receivers Derrick Alexander and Rison during his time in Kansas City, with Alexander producing four 100-yard games in 1999 and Rison becoming just the 12th player in NFL history to break the 700-catch barrier. Mann also tutored Joe Horn in his final campaign with the Chiefs in 1999, a breakout season in which Horn totaled 35 receptions for 586 yards and six touchdowns. Horn went on to become the New Orleans Saints all-time leader in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns after his time with Mann.

Mann spent the 1997 and 1998 seasons as the Baltimore Ravens wide receivers coach. Under his guidance, Alexander grabbed 65 catches for 1,009 yards and nine touchdowns in 1997, while Michael Jackson snagged 69 passes for 918 yards and four scores.

Mann also coached on the N.Y. Jets staff, coaching both wide receivers and tight ends during his three seasons (1994-1996). While in New York, he worked with Johnson and also mentored Wayne Chrebet, who set a Jets rookie record in 1995 with 66 catches for 726 yards and four touchdowns. In 1994, Mann helped Rob Moore make his first Pro Bowl appearance after catching 78 passes for 1,010 yards and six touchdowns, becoming the first Jets Pro Bowl wideout since Al Toon in 1988. In addition to working with the New York receiving corps, he also handled Jets tight end coaching duties in 1995, where he tutored first-round draft choice Kyle Brady.

From 1985-1993, Mann served as an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns, where he coached Hall of Famer Newsome. Newsome finished his stellar career with 662 catches for 7,980 yards and 47 touchdowns. In addition, Webster Slaughter hauled in 305 passes for 4,834 yards and 27 touchdowns in six seasons (1986-1991) under Mann's tutelage and was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 1990.

He originally began his NFL coaching career as a receivers coach with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts from 1982-1984. With the Colts, he worked under Frank Kush, his college head coach at Arizona State. Mann also coached on the collegiate level at the University of Louisville from 1980-1981 and Arizona State from 1974-1979 as wide receivers coach. During that time, he helped nurture a pair of receivers who enjoyed considerable success in the NFL, Clayton at Louisville and John Jefferson at Arizona State. Clayton went on to produce 582 catches for 8,974 yards and 84 touchdowns in his 11-year career with Miami (1983-1992) and Green Bay (1993), while Jefferson totaled 315 receptions for 5,714 yards and 47 scores with San Diego (1978-1980), Green Bay (1981-1984) and Cleveland (1985).

Mann, a native of Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, was a three-year starter at flanker and tight end for the Sun Devils from 1966-1968. He began his coaching career at his prep alma mater of Aliquippa High School from 1970-1973. A member of the Aliquippa Hall of Fame since 1982, Mann is also a member of the Beaver County (PA) Hall of Fame.

Mann joined several other Buccaneers coaches to host the High School Coaching Academy during the 2004 off-season in conjunction with the National Football Foundation. The academy is a one day, hands-on clinic designed to elevate the quality of football coaching at the high school level.

Mann and his wife, Karen, have four children: daughters Deven and Brittany, and sons Richard II and Mario.

MIKE MORRIS

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

10TH NFL SEASON - 7TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Mike Morris enters his seventh season with the Buccaneers and his third as the head strength and conditioning coach. Morris spent four seasons (2002-2005) as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers assistant strength and conditioning coach. Morris and his staff design and implement a comprehensive and progressive year-round training program. Each year, new ideas and technology are introduced to the program, which is built upon a foundation of basic training principles with an emphasis on effort and accountability. Under Morris direction, Tampa Bay Buccaneers strength and conditioning program remains on the cutting edge of training techniques and philosophy, a program that both improves our players' football performances and increases their resistance to injuries.

Morris is responsible for overseeing the team's comprehensive strength and conditioning program, which includes strength, power development, speed, recovery and regeneration, and the nutritional program for the players. He brings an individual oriented approach to the strength and conditioning position, but within a team-based context.

Among Morris' first priorities as head strength and conditioning coach was to transform the strength and conditioning facilities at the new Buccaneers new training facility. The willingness of ownership to provide the team with the tools to succeed allowed for the addition of the best in strength and conditioning equipment and a staff with valuable NFL experience.

Morris will look to continue to implement many new ideas into Buccaneers strength and conditioning program, like state of the art equipment that will help maximize performance and minimize injuries.

Morris now in his 10th season in the National Football League, began his professional football career with the New England Patriots in 1997. Morris, who served as speed coach in 1997-1998 and assistant strength and conditioning coach in 1999, oversaw a program that emphasized strength, speed, conditioning and coordination. In 1997, Morris helped lead the Patriots to the 1997 AFC Eastern Division Championship.

In 1990, Morris, became the president and founder of Elite Level Training Systems, and established himself as one of the leaders in the area of athletic performance training. He has spent the last 13 years pushing NFL, Olympic, and World Champion athletes to perform to their maximum potential.

During his nine-year tenure with Tampa Bay Buccaneers and New England Patriots, Morris has conditioned over 30 Pro Bowlers. Morris has also been a part of five playoff teams during his NFL career. In 2002, Morris helped lead the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Morris, who was a three-year letterwinner as a wide receiver at Syracuse, was also an All-American sprinter for the Orangemen. Morris still holds numerous Syracuse records, including marks in the 55 meters, 100 meters and 200 meters.

In 1981, he was the top-ranked high school sprinter in the country in the 100 meters. Morris ranked ninth in the world in the 100 meters in 1985, and participated in the Olympic Trials in both 1984 and 1988. He was an All-American from 1981-1984, as well as an All-Big East performer for four years. Morris also earned silver medals in the 100 meters at both the 1985 World University Games and the 1985 National Sports Festivals.

In 2008, Morris was inducted into the Massachusetts State Track and Field Hall of Fame for his athletic accomplishments and professionalism in the arena of track and field.

Morris is the younger brother of former NFL players Jamie and Joe Morris. Morris and his wife, Thomasina, have two children: daughter Paige and son Travis.

RAHEEM MORRIS

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

6TH NFL SEASON - 6TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Raheem Morris enters his second season as the Buccaneers defensive backs coach in 2008. Morris is currently in his second stint with Tampa Bay, having also served on the Buccaneers defensive coaching staff from 2002-2005. In between stints in Tampa Bay, he spent 2006 as Kansas State's defensive coordinator. Morris has quickly risen through the Buccaneers coaching ranks during his time with the team, serving as defensive quality control coach in 2002, defensive assistant in 2003 and assistant defensive backs coach from 2004-2005 before taking over as defensive backs coach in 2007.

During his first stint with the club, Morris worked closely with former Bucs defensive backs coach and current Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin in the development of one of the NFL's top secondaries.

After Tampa Bay fell to 19th in the NFL in pass defense in 2006, Morris led a resurgence in his return last season as he guided the Buccaneers pass defense to the league's top ranking en route to the NFC South division title. The Buccaneers secondary helped limit opposing quarterbacks to a 76.2 rating in 2007 to rank eighth in the NFL after ranking 29th in 2006. Under his direction, five different players in the secondary intercepted a pass in 2007 and S Jermaine Phillips had a Pro Bowl-caliber season, leading the team with a career-high four interceptions and ranking tied for third with 120 tackles. S Tanard Jackson made a seamless transition to safety from cornerback and had one of the most impressive rookie campaigns in team history as he became the first rookie on defense to start on opening day for the Buccaneers since 1996. Jackson was also the first Buccaneers rookie on defense since 1996 (Regan Upshaw) to start all 16 games. For the fifth time in his career, and third time under Morris, perennial Pro Bowl CB Ronde Barber recorded a statistic in every defensive category in 2007. After taking over as a full time starter in Week 4, CB Phillip Buchanon ranked second on the team with three interceptions while recording a career-high 63 tackles in his first season with Morris.

In his lone season with Kansas State in 2006, Morris coordinated a defense that displayed improvement in several statistical categories from the previous season, including total defense, scoring defense and pass defense. Morris oversaw a Kansas State defense that included seven players who received conference recognition, including two first-team All-Big 12 honorees and one second-team selection.

During his five seasons in Tampa Bay, the Bucs have finished ranked in the top five in the NFL in total defense every year, including No. 1 rankings in 2002 and 2005. Additionally, the defense finished as the top-ranked pass defense on three occasions (2002, 2004 and 2007) and never ranked lower than sixth with Morris on the staff. Morris's impact may have been most felt by opposing quarterbacks as five of the Top 10 seasons in club history in lowest opponent quarterback rating have come with Morris in Tampa Bay.

In 2002, his first season as a coach in the NFL, Morris helped guide the Buccaneers top-ranked defense as they captured the franchise's first world title in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Morris joined Tampa Bay after spending the 2000 and 2001 seasons as defensive backs coach at Hofstra University. He also spent time in the fall of 2001 with the New York Jets serving a defensive minority internship.

Morris began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports and handling video breakdown and computer input and analysis. He then landed at Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season.

Morris played collegiately as a safety at Hofstra from 1994-1997, and received his bachelor of science degree in physical education. He hails from Irvington, New Jersey.

GREG OLSON

QUARTERBACKS COACH

7TH NFL SEASON - 1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Greg Olson begins his first season as quarterbacks coach with the Buccaneers after spending the past two seasons (2006-07) as offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. Olson is a veteran of six years in the NFL and 15 years in the college ranks.

In Olson's first year with the Rams, he helped guide a high-powered offense that ranked sixth in the NFL (360.4 yards per game), a rushing offense that ranked 10th (112.8 ypg) in the NFC and a passing offense that ranked third (247.6 ypg) in the NFC. The Rams ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL in first downs (332), and scored 273 points in the red zone, second-most in the NFC.

Under Olson's direction the 2006 Rams became just the fourth team in NFL history to produce a passer with more than 4,000 yards (QB Marc Bulger), a rusher with more than 1,500 yards (RB Steven Jackson) and two receivers with more than 1,000 yards (Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce). The other three teams to accomplish that feat were the 1995 Detroit Lions, the 1998 San Francisco 49ers and the 2004 Indianapolis Colts. Bulger, Jackson, and Holt were all selected to the Pro Bowl. Bulger also posted career-highs in passing yards (4,301), passing touchdowns (24), passing attempts (588) and completions (370) while ranking second in the NFL in interception percentage (1.4%).

Prior to his time with the Rams, Olson spent two seasons as quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions (2004-05) and one season each as quarterbacks coach of the Chicago Bears (2003) and tight ends/recruiting coordinator at Purdue University (2002).

Olson originally entered the league in 2001 with the San Francisco 49ers as quarterbacks coach and helped guide current Buccaneer QB Jeff Garcia to one of the best seasons in his career. Garcia posted a career-high 32 touchdown passes, his second-best career number in passing yardage (3,538) and his third-best career numbers in passer rating (94.8) and completion percentage (62.7) as he was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

Olson was quarterbacks coach at Purdue from 1997-2000, and played a key role in the development of Pro Bowl QB Drew Brees. Under Olson, Brees was a Heisman Trophy finalist in 1999 and 2000, while winning the Maxwell Award as the nation's outstanding player in 2000. He was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top quarterback in 1999 and 2000. Brees ended his collegiate career as the Big Ten and Purdue's all-time leader in passing yardage (11,792), touchdowns passes (90), total yards (12,693), completion percentage (61.1%), completions (1,026) and attempts (1,678). He also ranked fourth in NCAA Division I history for total offense, completions and attempts upon his departure from Purdue.

From 1994-96, Olson was quarterback coach at Idaho. The team's passing attack in 1996 ranked fourth in the country, fifth in total offense, and 15th in scoring. The Vandals were second in the nation in total offense and scoring, and seventh in passing in 1994.

Before his time at Idaho, Olson was the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Central Washington, from 1990-93. The school was the top-ranked National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics school in total offense in 1991 and 1993. Olson developed first team All-American QB Jon Kitna in his rise from NAIA starter to 1997 World Bowl MVP to NFL starter in Seattle, Cincinnati and Detroit. Also during Olson's stint at Central Washington, he served as a wrestling coach for four seasons, including the last two as head coach, helping lead the program to a sixth-place finish at his final NAIA National Tournament.

Olson got his coaching start as a graduate assistant in 1987 at Washington State under the tutelage of Head Coaches Dennis Erickson (1987-88) and Mike Price (1989), where he earned his master's degree in athletic administration.

Olson attended Spokane Falls Junior College from 1981-82, and played quarterback at Central Washington from 1983-84, earning his bachelor's degree in education in 1986.

KURTIS SHULTZ

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

6TH NFL SEASON - 3RD WITH BUCCANEERS

Kurtis Shultz enters his third season as assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Buccaneers. His duties include assisting head strength and conditioning coach Mike Morris in the implementation of the Buccaneers conditioning program.

Last year Shultz was a key member of the coaching staff that led Tampa Bay to the NFC South division title while helping QB Jeff Garcia reach his fourth Pro Bowl. Additionally, under Shultz and coach Mike Morris' programs, G Arron Sears and DE Gaines Adams were named to the PFW/PFWA All Rookie team.

In his first season with the Buccaneers in 2006, Shultz helped three Buccaneers earn trips to the Pro Bowl, CB Ronde Barber, LB Derrick Brooks and LS Dave Moore. Shultz was also vital in the preparation and layout of the 9,353-square foot weight room building at the team's new training facility. Additionally, he has implemented swimming and boxing into the Buccaneers offseason conditioning program.

Shultz joined the Buccaneers after spending two seasons (2004-2005) with the Minnesota Vikings as head strength and conditioning coach. In his first season with the Vikings in 2004, Shultz implemented a dynamic and intense strength and conditioning program. The results were immediate as the Vikings made dramatic gains in strength, flexibility and endurance. The 2005 Vikings continued to build on the foundation that Shultz' program established as the team sent a pair of first-year Vikings, FS Darren Sharper and KR/WR Koren Robinson, to the Pro Bowl.

Shultz came to the Vikings after spending the 2003 season as assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Cincinnati Bengals. Shultz was part of a first-year Bengals staff under head coach Marvin Lewis that went 8-8, the best record by a Bengals club since the 8-8 team in 1996. The 2003 Bengals were able to stay remarkably healthy, losing only two players to injured reserve.

Shultz gained the bulk of his professional experience as strength coach for the University of Maryland basketball team, helping the team to the NCAA title during the 2001-2002 season in his third season with the team. Shultz left Maryland for the Bengals during the 2002-2003 season but was part of a Terrapin program that played in the NCAA Tournament each of his four seasons on the staff, advancing to the Final Four in 2000-2001 and the Sweet 16 in 2002-2003. While working for the Terrapins, he also headed the strength and conditioning programs of four Johns Hopkins University sports.

Shultz got his start in coaching at Loyola College (MD), where he spent four years (1995-1998). He diversified the Loyola program by incorporating CSA kickboxing into their traditional workouts. During his collegiate positions, Shultz also spent time working as a personal trainer at Padonia Fitness Center, an elite fitness facility in the Baltimore area. He served as a consultant and kick-boxing instructor for the Baltimore Ravens and trained an elite list of professional athletes, including 2000 NFL Defensive Player of the Year Ray Lewis and former Baltimore Orioles Jerry Hairston and Gary Matthews, Jr. More than a dozen professional lacrosse players also turned to Shultz for training.

Shultz was a forward on the Maryland basketball team from 1991-1995, playing in 67 career games. A team captain as a senior, Shultz was a part of Terps teams that advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament in his final two seasons. As a prep player, Shultz played at prestigious DeMatha High in Washington, D.C. under legendary coach Morgan Wooten.

Shultz was born on March 10, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland. He majored in kinesiology/physical education at Maryland. Shultz is married to the former Sharon Jacob of Cincinnati.

DWAYNE STUKES

SPECIAL TEAMS QUALITY CONTROL COACH
3RD NFL SEASON - 3RD WITH BUCCANEERS

Dwayne Stukes enters his third season with the Buccaneers and first as special teams quality control coach after spending the last two seasons as a coaches assistant. Stukes works closely with Tampa Bay's special teams unit under the direction of Richard Bisaccia. In 2007, Stukes help guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South title for third time in six seasons.

A former defensive back, Stukes spent parts of four seasons in the NFL from 2000-2003 as a member of the Buccaneers, Atlanta Falcons and Pittsburgh Steelers. He also spent time with NFL Europe's Berlin Thunder (2001-2002) and the Arena Football League's Colorado Crush (2004).

Stukes was a four-year letterman at the University of Virginia, seeing action at cornerback and safety. A history major, Stukes was awarded UVA's Gretchen Savin Macillwaine Football Scholarship, given for outstanding academic achievement. He is single and resides in Tampa.

TODD WASH

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

2ND NFL SEASON - 2ND WITH BUCCANEERS

Todd Wash enters his second season with the Buccaneers and first as defensive line coach after serving as defensive quality control coach in 2007. Last season, Wash worked closely with assistant head coach/defensive line coach Larry Coyer in the instruction and development of the defensive line.

In 2007, Wash helped tutor first-round pick Gaines Adams as he led all NFL rookies with six sacks and was named to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team. Wash also helped lead the Buccaneers to an NFC South division title in his first season in Tampa in 2007 after two stints (2002-2003, 2005-2006) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, North Dakota State.

While with the Bison, Wash tutored the defensive line and coordinated the run defense. In between appointments at NDSU, Wash spent the 2004 season as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Missouri Southern State. Wash previously worked as defensive coordinator at the University of Nebraska-Kearney (2000-2001) and held the positions of defensive line coach (1996) and head coach/defensive coordinator (1997-1999) at Fort Lewis College in Durango, Colorado.

A two-time All-North Central Conference outside linebacker at North Dakota State, Wash played on two national championship teams with the Bison in 1988 and 1990. A preseason All-American and team captain in 1991, he went to camp as an undrafted free agent with the Houston Oilers in 1992.

Wash holds two degrees from NDSU, including a bachelor's degree in physical education (1994) and a master's in athletic administration (1996).

Todd and his wife, Darci, are the parents of two daughters, Alyssa and Jenae, and one son, Marcus. Darci was an All-American basketball player for NDSU and played on three national championship teams.

GEORGE YARNO

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH
1ST NFL SEASON - 1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

George Yarno enters his first season in the NFL coaching ranks in 2008 as the Buccaneers assistant offensive line coach and will work with Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line Coach Bill Muir to help mold one of the youngest and most promising starting lines in the league.

Yarno served the past five seasons (2003-2007) at his alma mater, Washington State, in his second stint as the school's offensive line coach. In 2003, Yarno guided All-Pac-10 selections Josh Parrish (first team) and Calvin Armstrong (honorable mention) for the 2003 Holiday Bowl champions. Yarno's first coaching experience came as the Cougars offensive line coach from 1991-1994.

In between, Yarno worked as an offensive line coach at LSU (2001-2002), helping the team win an SEC title in 2001, and at Arizona State (2000). He also served as an assistant head coach/offensive line coach at Houston (1998-1999) and as an offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Idaho (1995-1997).

A two-time Pac-10 conference honoree as a defensive lineman at Washington State, Yarno finished his collegiate career with 232 tackles, fifth in school history. Yarno went on to sign with the Buccaneers as a free agent in 1979 and played the next five years in Tampa, switching to the offensive side of the ball.

Yarno then joined the Denver Gold of the upstart USFL for the 1984 and 1985 seasons before returning to the Buccaneers for the start of the 1985 NFL season. His second stint in Tampa Bay lasted until 1987, and he finished his Buccaneer career appearing in 109 games before ending his NFL career with Atlanta (1988), Houston (1989) and Green Bay (1990).

Born August 12, 1957, Yarno and his wife, Cindy, have three children, Josh, Adrienne and George.

MARK ARTEAGA

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Mark Arteaga is in his seventh season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and fifth as Director of Football Operations. He spent his first two seasons (2002-2003) in the organization as the assistant to head coach-football operations. In his first six seasons, Arteaga has helped the Buccaneers capture three NFC South division titles and the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl title following the 2002 season in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Arteaga works directly with Bucs General Manager Bruce Allen and oversees all daily football operations for the club, as well as serving as a liaison between Allen, head coach Jon Gruden and the entire coaching staff.

Arteaga's experience in all aspects of football administration and his excellent organizational skills have been invaluable to maintaining the success of one of the league's most respected franchises. He is able to rely on more than two decades of experience in the National Football League in dealing with the day-to-day business of the team and every component of the club's football operation.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Arteaga spent 13 seasons (1989-2001) with the Raiders, including his final 11 campaigns as the club's administrative assistant to the head coach for four different Raider head coaches. Arteaga spent his last four seasons in Oakland (1998-2001) working with Gruden, who led the Raiders to consecutive postseason appearances (2000 and 2001), including an appearance in the AFC Championship Game in 2000.

Arteaga joined the Raiders on a full-time basis under head coach Mike Shanahan as the coaches' administrative assistant prior to the 1989 season. He served in that capacity for two seasons before being named the team's administrative assistant to the head coach in 1991.

Arteaga worked for the Raiders as a summer training camp football intern during the 1988 and 1989 summers. Prior to joining the Raiders, Arteaga worked as a spring training intern with the New York Yankees in 1987 and 1988 in Fort Lauderdale.

Arteaga studied sports administration at St. Thomas University in Miami. He hails from Chicago and graduated in 1985 from St. Rita High School, where he lettered in baseball for one season as an infielder. He and his wife, Jacqueline, live in Tampa with their daughter Marianna and sons Anthony and Austin.

ROXANNE KOSARZYCKI

GENERAL COUNSEL

One of the most well-respected female executives in professional football, Roxanne Kosarzycki enters her fifth season with the Buccaneers as general counsel. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, she spent 14 years with the Oakland Raiders in legal affairs.

Kosarzycki's main responsibilities include overseeing a variety of in-house legal matters for both football and administration. She is instrumental in the negotiation and drafting of player contracts as well as the review and drafting of agreements with the club's marketing and media partners and other service providers. Kosarzycki is involved with the Buccaneers trademark protection and enforcement. Additionally, she maintains an open door policy using her legal skills and years of experience to assist players and staff with a variety of issues. Her unique talents and vast knowledge provide the Buccaneers with a valuable resource in every facet of the organization.

As a testament to her outstanding work, Kosarzycki was named Corporate Counsel of the Year by the Hillsborough County Bar Association in 2005.

While in Oakland her duties were vastly similar, but also included assisting in various business litigation matters and overseeing the legal affairs for the Raiders' retail department. Kosarzycki was also the co-director of the player development department as she managed such programs as continuing education, financial and family assistance and career internships.

A native of Newport Beach, California, Kosarzycki holds a bachelor's degree in sociology with a minor in psychology from UCLA and a Juris Doctorate from Southwestern School of Law in Los Angeles. She is married to Gene, and the couple has two children, Christopher and Sarah.

MARK DOMINIK

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Mark Dominik enters his 14th year with the Buccaneers organization, including his eighth as Tampa Bay's Director of Pro Personnel. During his 13 seasons, he has been a part of four division titles, including three in the past six years.

Dominik was added to the Buccaneers' staff in June 1995 as a pro personnel assistant. He served in that capacity through the 1997 season before assuming the title of pro scout in 1998. In 2000 he was elevated to the coordinator of pro personnel before being promoted to his current position. In 2002, Dominik helped guide the Buccaneers to their first world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII against Oakland.

Dominik's responsibilities include managing the scouting, recruiting and signing of all NFL players, while also monitoring NFL transactions and overseeing player tryouts. In addition, he is in charge of Tampa Bay's evaluating efforts of all other professional football leagues, including the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League.

Dominik, a native of St. Cloud, Minnesota, joined Tampa Bay after spending a year-and-a-half working in both the college and pro personnel departments for the Kansas City Chiefs. Dominik has a bachelor's of science degree in sports management from the University of Kansas. He and his wife, Amy, live in Tampa and have one son, Davis.

DOUG WILLIAMS

PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

Super Bowl XXII MVP and former Buccaneer great Doug Williams enters his fifth season with the Buccaneers as personnel executive. He re-joined the Buccaneers in 2004 following a successful tenure as head coach at his alma mater, Grambling State, and one of the most storied playing careers in league and team history. As personnel executive, he returned to lend his expertise and more than 20 years of experience in football to Tampa Bay's front office. Williams' duties include scouting, player evaluations and recruiting free agents. Since his return to Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers have captured two NFC South division titles.

"We are thrilled to welcome Doug back to our family," said Executive Vice President Joel Glazer upon the hiring of Williams. "He was one of the cornerstones in the early years of our franchise as a player, and his wealth of experience in coaching and scouting will be a major asset in our future."

Williams, a first-round pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981, 1982), including an amazing appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the fourth year of existence. He propelled the team to three winning seasons (10-6 in 1979, 9-7 in 1981 and 5-4 in 1982), the only campaigns in franchise history with a winning record until more than 15 years later, in the 1997 season. Williams also guided Tampa Bay to its first NFC Central title in 1979.

Tampa Bay's starting quarterback from 1978-1982, Williams still ranks among the leaders in club history in several major passing categories: second in touchdown passes (73), third in passing yards (12,648), third in pass attempts (1,890) and fourth in pass completions (895). Williams, who started 67 career games for the Buccaneers, was a two-time team MVP in 1980 and 1981. He ended his Tampa Bay career in 1982 as the all-time franchise leader in touchdown passes, passing yards, attempts and completions.

"Doug has been successful at every level of football he has been associated with," said General Manager Bruce Allen. "He has helped us improve our team. His accomplishments here in Tampa were really stunning when you look at what occurred prior to his arrival, and what occurred after his departure."

In 1986, Tampa Bay traded the NFL rights to Williams to the Washington Redskins for a 1987 fifth-round pick, which was used on S Tony Mayes, who never saw action in a Buccaneer uniform. The trade followed two seasons for Williams with the Oklahoma Outlaws of the USFL. Williams led the Redskins to a 42-10 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXII following the 1987 season, and was anointed the game's MVP after he set or tied several Super Bowl passing records, including most TD passes (four), most yards passing (340), longest pass completion (80 yards) and longest TD pass (80 yards). He was the first black quarterback to ever start a Super Bowl. Williams ended his playing career following the 1989 season with the Redskins.

In six seasons (1998-2003) at Grambling State University, Williams brought one of the most storied programs in college football history back to prominence, compiling a 52-18 record as head coach after succeeding the legendary Eddie Robinson, who was at the helm for 57 years from 1941-1997 and re-wrote the record books as the winningest coach in the history of college football with 408 career wins.

Williams led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles from 2000-2002 as they were named National Black College Champions during the same three-year span. He was also named SWAC Coach of the Year in each of those three seasons, and was also honored as Street and Smith's Black College Coach of the Year in 2000. Williams was a two-time finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson (Division I-AA) National Coach of the Year.

Williams has gained invaluable experience at many levels, including the start of his college head coaching career at Morehouse College in 1997. He also has previous NFL experience as a scout for Jacksonville in 1995 and as offensive coordinator for the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 1995, and tutored running backs for Navy in 1994. Williams also excelled on the high school level as head coach and athletic director at Point Coupee High School in New Roads, Louisiana in 1991, and in 1993, he was head coach at Northeast High School in his hometown of Zachary, La., where he guided the team to a 13-1 record and the state semifinals.

As Grambling's quarterback from 1974-1977, Williams had a spectacular college career as he passed for more than 8,000 yards and 93 touchdowns, leading the Tigers to three National Black College National Championships and two SWAC titles. He posted a 36-7 record as a starter and finished fourth in voting for the 1977 Heisman Trophy.

Williams has been vital in the development of The Field Generals, an organization founded by and composed of retired NFL African American quarterbacks (Williams, James Harris, Marlin Briscoe, Randall Cunningham, Vince Evans and Warren Moon) who are dedicated to teaching and preserving the history of the African American quarterback. Williams was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. He returned to South Bend, Indiana in 2006 to speak, along with other members of the Field Generals, about the struggles and perseverance African American quarterbacks endured while integrating the position. In February 2007, Williams, along with fellow members of the Field Generals, and author William C. Rhoden, released Third and a Mile, a story of the trials and triumphs of the black quarterback in conjunction with ESPN.

In 2004 and 2008, Williams was named to the preliminary list of nominees for the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He also was honored by Pop Warner as the Joseph J. Tomlin Award recipient in 2004. The Tomlin award is presented to an individual who has demonstrated outstanding character development, physical fitness and scholastic achievement.

Upon the completion of Super Bowl XLII this past season, the NFL honored the 20th anniversary of Williams' Super Bowl XXII victory as Williams was chosen to present the Lombardi Trophy to the New York Giants following their victory over the New England Patriots.

This past offseason, Williams and Buccaneers Head Coach Jon Gruden conducted a free one-day quarterback camp at One Buccaneer place for more than 50 Bay Area high school quarterbacks. At the camp, Williams and Gruden led the group through a series of on-field drills while also spending several hours in a pair of film sessions.

Williams and his wife, Raunda, have eight children: Ashley, Adrian, Carneleta, Doug, Jr., Jasmine, Laura, Lee and Temessia.

DENNIS HICKEY

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Dennis Hickey enters his fourth season as the Director of College Scouting and 13th season overall with the organization.

Hickey is responsible for coordinating a staff of regional scouts and managing the compilation of information on college players.

Last season, Hickey helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

The 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season: G Davin Joseph (13 games/12 starts), T Jeremy Trueblood (15/13), WR Maurice Stovall (9/2) and QB Bruce Gradkowski (13/11). In 2007, Hickey helped assemble a draft class that included two rookies that were selected to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team in DE Gaines Adams and G Arron Sears, as well as standout FS Tanard Jackson who started all 16 games for the Buccaneers.

Prior to his promotion to director of college scouting, Hickey spent seven seasons as a college scout for Tampa Bay scouting the midwestern states for the team. Hickey was a member of the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship in 2002, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Before assuming his role as a scout for Tampa Bay, Hickey spent the 1996-97 seasons as a pro personnel assistant in the Bucs' scouting department. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hickey spent two years (1994-95) as an assistant coach at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas. At Blinn, he coached the defensive backs and was responsible for recruiting in the state of Texas.

Hickey played collegiately at Coffeyville Community College and was a three-year starter and captain at the University of Tulsa, where he was also named an academic All-American. He received his bachelor's degree from Tulsa in 1994.

He and his wife, Stephanie, have one daughter, Breanna, and one son, Barrett. They live in Tampa.

KEVIN DEMOFF
SENIOR ASSISTANT

Kevin Demoff enters his third season as senior assistant and seventh season in professional football.

Demoff, who served as a consultant with the Buccaneers in 2005, assists General Manager Bruce Allen in contract negotiations, salary cap management, scouting, strategic planning and salary cap forecasting. Last season, Demoff helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

From 2001-04, Demoff served as the Director of Football Operations for the Arena Football League's Los Angeles Avengers. In his last three seasons with the Avengers, the team finished 28-18, third-best in the AFL, including three consecutive playoff appearances.

Demoff graduated with a master's degree in business administration from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth in 2006. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in history from Dartmouth in 1999.

From 1999-03, Demoff served as an editorial consultant on The NFL Show on Fox Sports Net, helping write and edit show copy and provide detailed research for talent. From 1999-00, he was part of a team at Broadband Sports that helped design and develop the Dallas Cowboys' new Web site. He also negotiated deals with NFL teams to build new websites for NFL teams.

Demoff and his wife, Jennifer, live in Tampa with their daughter, Claire.

SHELTON QUARLES
PRO SCOUT

Shelton Quarles enters his second season as a pro scout for the Buccaneers after spending 10 seasons (1997-2006) as a linebacker for Tampa Bay. In 2007, his first season in the front office, Quarles helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

Quarles responsibilities include the in-season scouting of Buccaneers opponents and all NFL free agents. He also participates in the scouting and evaluation of the Tampa Bay roster.

During his 10 seasons on the field, Quarles helped lead the Buccaneers to three division titles (1999, 2002 and 2005) while also earning a world championship following the 2002 season in Super Bowl XXXVII. He also made his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 as a member of the top-ranked defensive unit in the NFL. Overall, Quarles was a member of a Buccaneers defense that ranked first in the NFL in total defense on two occasions (2002 and 2004) and finished the season in the Top 10 in eight of his 10 years as a player.

Quarles' decade of service left its mark on the Buccaneers' record book. His 148 career games played and 113 career starts as a Buccaneer rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in team history. He also ranks third in team annals with 985 career tackles, including a career-high and team-best 196 tackles in 2005, the second-highest total in a single season in team history. Quarles played all three linebacker positions during his career and remains as the only player in team history to record a touchdown and a safety. In 1999, he posted a team-record 31 special teams tackles and in 2001, Quarles recorded the longest play in team history with a 98-yard intercepttion return for a touchdown.

Quarles was, and remains, one of the most philanthropic figures in the Tampa Bay Area. Since its inception in 2004, the Shelton Quarles IMPACT Foundation has had the mission of benefiting at-risk children, youth and their families by providing assistance, programs and events designed to build self-esteem, provide unique life changing opportunities and help them to set and achieve their life goals. It has raised over $300,000 since its inception to fund several programs, including, Mother's Day Miracles, Summer Stipend and Home Team Harvest. In addition to these signature programs, the foundation has hosted the Celebrity Golf Classic for the past four years which benefits needy children and families throughout the Bay Area.

Quarles has also participated in many charitable endeavors with teammates and through the Buccaneers organization. Along with fellow linebacker Ryan Nece, he has helped organize the "Top 50 Moms in the Bay Area" contest during the past five Mother's Days (2004-2008) as well as the "Top 50 Dads in the Bay Area" contest during the past five Father's Days (2004-2008). In 2007, he walked the runway for "Fashion Funds the Cure" fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and that same year, Quarles traveled with three other NFL players to visit U.S. troops at military bases throughout the Persian Gulf as part of the NFL-USO program.

Upon his retirement, Florida Governor Charlie Crist named Quarles as chairman of the Tampa Bay Area Regional Transportation Authority in September of 2007. As chairman, Quarles leads a seven-county, 15-member board that has a stated goal of building a transportation master plan over the next two years that will tackle the significant transportation issues facing the greater Tampa Bay area today and in the future.

Quarles is married to Damaris and the couple resides in Tampa with their daughter, Gabriela Nicole and sons, Shelton Eugene, Jr. and Carlos Antonio.

Justin Sheridan enters his third season with Tampa Bay and his first as a Pro Scout. He is responsible for the evaluation of player personnel and scouting report preparation for upcoming Buccaneer opponents. Throughout the year, he monitors NFL transactions and assists with the recruiting and signing of NFL free agents. Sheridan joined the Buccaneer staff in 2006 as a Pro Personnel Assistant.

Sheridan spent two seasons as the Director of Football Operations at Northwestern University from March 2004 to June 2006. In his role, he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the football program, serving as a liaison to the athletic department, business office, academic services, compliance and NFL personnel, among others.

Sheridan originally joined the NU staff as a Recruiting Assistant in July 2001 before being promoted to Assistant Director of Football Operations in February 2003.

Prior to Northwestern, Sheridan worked as the Assistant Director of Football Operations at University of Pennsylvania. He also worked as an Assistant Coach at Western Maryland College from May 1999 to December 2000.

A native of Ebensburg, PA, Sheridan graduated from Western Maryland College (which is now known as McDaniel College) with his bachelor's degree in business administration with a minor in accounting. At WMC, he was a four-year letterwinner, playing on two Centennial Conference championship teams.

Sheridan, and his wife, Kristen, reside in Tampa.

JIM GRUDEN

PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

Jim Gruden, a veteran of 38 professional and collegiate football seasons, enters his fifth season as personnel consultant with the Buccaneers in his second stint with the club. Gruden works directly with general manager Bruce Allen and the entire personnel department as well as the Buccaneers coaches in all personnel matters.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Gruden spent 17 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as a regional scout responsible for the Southeast region. Before working with the 49ers, he spent five seasons with Tampa Bay as director of player personnel (1984-86) and running backs coach (1982-83).

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Gruden joined the NFL ranks in 1982, after eight years of high school coaching and 15 years of collegiate coaching at Heidelberg (OH) College (1966-68), Dayton (1969-72), Indiana (1973-77) and Notre Dame (1978-80). He was with the Fighting Irish during Joe Montana's playing days, and at Dayton he was an assistant coach under John McVay, former general manager of the San Francisco 49ers.

CHET FRANKLIN

SENIOR CONSULTANT

Chet Franklin, a veteran of 37 years in professional football as an assistant coach and personnel executive, enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers as a Senior Consultant. Franklin works directly with general manager Bruce Allen and the personnel department in evaluating current NFL and college players.

Franklin spent 16 seasons as an assistant coach, including seven years with the Oakland Raiders (1980-86). He also spent four seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (1971-74), three seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs (1975-77) and two seasons with the New Orleans Saints (1978-79).

After coaching, Franklin moved into the front office and was named the Director of Player Personnel for the San Diego Chargers (1987-89). He also served as Director of Player Personnel for the World League (later renamed NFL Europa) from 1990-92.

Franklin returned to the NFL as Director of Pro Personnel for the Saints for three seasons (1994-97) before being promoted to Senior Vice President of Football Operations (1997-98). He also returned to the Raiders for four seasons as a member of Oakland's player personnel department from 1999-02.

During his career with the Raiders Franklin helped guide the team to three Super Bowl appearances, including two wins (XV and XVIII) as an assistant coach. He also helped the Raiders to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII as a front office executive.

JIM ABRAMS

NATIONAL SCOUT

Jim Abrams enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers as a college scout after being elevated to national scout in 2006. Last season, Abrams helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title. He joined the Buccaneers after spending 13 years with the San Francisco 49ers. He is responsible for scouting the entire country with an emphasis on the western region.

The 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season: G Davin Joseph (13 games/12 starts), T Jeremy Trueblood (15/13), WR Maurice Stovall (9/2) and QB Bruce Gradkowski (13/11). In 2007, Abrams helped assemble a draft class that included two rookies that were selected to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team in DE Gaines Adams and G Arron Sears, as well as standout FS Tanard Jackson who started all 16 games for the Buccaneers.

Abrams spent his first two seasons (1992-93) with the 49ers as a scouting assistant before spending the next seven seasons (1994-00) as a regional scout. He later spent four years (2001-04) as a national scout for the 49ers.

A 1987 graduate of Kent State, Abrams served as a graduate assistant at UNLV (1988), Purdue (1989-90) and Ohio State (1991). He served as a linebackers coaching assistant at all three schools.

Born in Warren, Ohio, Abrams attended McAteer High School in San Francisco before attending City College of San Francisco (1981-82). He later transferred to Kent State (1983-87), where he played free safety and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Abrams and his wife, Penny, reside in Thousand Oaks, California, with their sons, Aleksandr James and Sedrick Jameson.

REGGIE COBB
COLLEGE SCOUT

Reggie Cobb enters his sixth season as a college scout for Tampa Bay. Cobb is responsible for the southwest portion of the United States and re-joined the Buccaneers after spending two seasons (2001-02) as a member of the Washington Redskins scouting department.

The 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season: G Davin Joseph (13 games/12 starts), T Jeremy Trueblood (15/13), WR Maurice Stovall (9/2) and QB Bruce Gradkowski (13/11). In 2007, Cobb helped assemble a draft class that included two rookies that were selected to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team in DE Gaines Adams and G Arron Sears, as well as standout FS Tanard Jackson who started all 16 games for the Buccaneers. He also helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

In 2007, Turner helped assemble a draft class that included two rookies that were selected to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team in DE Gaines Adams and G Arron Sears, as well as standout FS Tanard Jackson who started all 16 games for the Buccaneers. He also helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

Prior to scouting the Midwest, Turner spent four years as Tampa Bay's scout for the annual NFL combine as well as a scout for the southeastern United States. In 2002, Turner was a part of the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

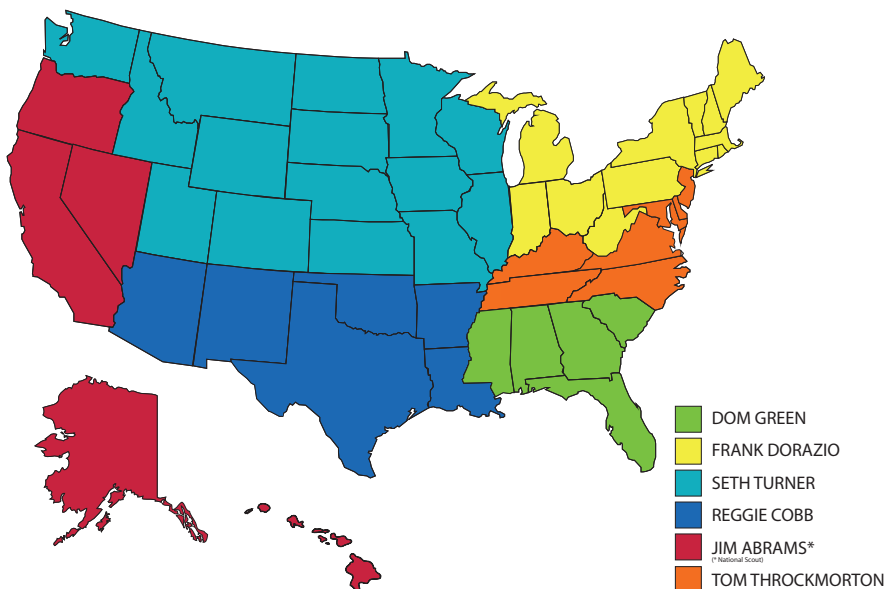

Turner joined the Buccaneers in July of 2000 as an intern in the college and pro scouting department. In that role, he assisted in the evaluation of professional free agents and draft-eligible college players. He also served as one of Tampa Bay's representatives at the 2001 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Turner was an intern for the NFL's player personnel department, as well as a summer intern for the Buffalo Bills' player personnel staff in 1999.

Turner graduated with a B.S. in physical education from Baker University in Kansas in 1997 and then earned a master's in sport management in 1999 from Indiana State. He was a four-year letterman at linebacker and defensive end at Baker, garnering third-team all-conference honors in 1996 as a senior.

Turner, a native of Lansing, Kansas, lives in Columbia, Missouri with his wife, Ariana, son, Graham and daughter Beleh.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Eric Vance enters his third season with the Buccaneers as Director of Player Development. Vance, a former safety with the Buccaneers from 1998-01, serves as the primary contact between the players, coaches and the community.

Vance's responsibilities include facilitating the league's personal conduct policy and implementing Buccaneer University which involves helping players with continuing education, financial education, career transition and other off-field issues. He is also the main liaison between the players and the club's community relations department, and encourages player involvement in charities and community activities.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Vance spent time as a financial advisor with Raymond James Financial in St. Petersburg and as a teacher at Robinson High School in Tampa. In 2005, he was named the Ida S. Baker Distinguished Minority Educator of the Year.

Vance spent four seasons (1998-01) with the Buccaneers, playing in 33 games with one start. He also spent time with the Indianapolis Colts and San Diego Chargers after entering the league as an undrafted free agent with the Carolina Panthers in 1997.

Vance graduated from Vanderbilt University with a double major in mathematics and secondary education. He was also a four-year starter, along with a team captain. He also earned his Master's in Educational Leadership from the University of South Florida.

Vance and his wife, Inika, reside in Tampa with daughter, Jalyn, and son, Jordan.

RICHARD MANN II

PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Richard Mann II enters his second season as personnel assistant for Tampa Bay.

Mann assists in evaluating personnel, advance scouting and data maintenance.

Mann, who is in his first full-time position in professional football, was previously a reimbursement specialist at Maxim Healthcare Services for a year following a two-year stint with Chesapeake Appraisal Services as an appraisal coordinator. Mann's previous experience in professional football came in the summer of 2003 as a pro personnel intern with the Baltimore Ravens, where he was interlinked with training camp.

Mann is the son of Buccaneers seventh-year wide receiver coach Richard Mann, allowing him the opportunity to be a training camp intern and equipment assistant with the Cleveland Browns in 1993.

Mann also has previous work experience with SportsVue Interactive Media, Salisbury Football Youth Reading Program and Catonsville Emergency Food Ministry.

Mann completed his master's degree in sports leadership from Duquesne University in June 2008 and earned his bachelor's degree in interpersonal communication with a minor in marketing from Salisbury University, where he was a three-year member of the football team, earning All-Conference in 2002, averaging 31.8 yards per kickoff return for the Sea Gulls. Mann also spent one year as a walk-on at Morgan State University before transferring to Salisbury.

Mann is engaged to Chenel Price.

TODD TORISCELLI

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Head Athletic Trainer Todd Toriscelli enters his 12th season with the Buccaneers. In 2002, Toriscelli helped guide the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title, a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. He has also been instrumental in Tampa Bay's three NFC South division titles the past six seasons. Overall, he has been a part of four division championships during his tenure with the Buccaneers.

Toriscelli and his staff are involved in research on dehydration and exercise in the heat. This has been done in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

Prior to coming to Tampa Bay, he spent a combined seven years as a head trainer for Stanford, Miami (FL) and Kansas State universities. Toriscelli spent 1995 and 1996 as Stanford's head trainer, while also serving as the National Athletic Trainers Association's liaison to the NCAA Football Rules Committee during that time period. He worked as the head athletic trainer at the University of Miami during the 1993-1994 seasons, and spent three years in the same capacity for Kansas State (1990-1992).

A native of Steubenville, Ohio, Toriscelli holds a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Ohio University (1984) and a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis on sports medicine from the University of North Carolina (1985).

Toriscelli and his wife, Chris, reside in Tampa with their son Shane and daughter Jenna.

SHANNON MERRICK

DIRECTOR OF REHABILITATION

Shannon Merrick enters his fifth season as the Buccaneers' Director of Rehabilitation. Merrick works directly with Head Trainer Todd Toriscelli to treat and rehabilitate injured Buccaneer players. In his first four seasons with the club, Merrick has been a part of two NFC South division championships.

Merrick joined the Buccaneers after spending eight years as a site coordinator/rehabilitation director for HealthSouth in Melbourne, Florida. Prior to his appointment at HealthSouth, Merrick held athletic training internships at the University of Notre Dame (1989-1990) and Indianapolis Colts (1988-1989). While an undergraduate at Purdue University, he also served as a student athletic trainer from 1985-1989.

Tampa Bay's staff is involved in research on dehydration and exercise in the heat. This has been done in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

Merrick earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training, pre-physical therapy from Purdue in 1990, and a master's degree in physical therapy from Washington University School of Medicine (St. Louis, MO) in 1992.

A native of Goshen, Indiana, Merrick and his wife, Lynne, reside in Tampa with their daughter Elani and sons Joshua and Jack.

PAT JERNIGAN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Pat Jernigan begins his seventh season as the Buccaneers' assistant athletic trainer. In his first season in his current role with the organization, Jernigan helped the Buccaneers capture their first Super Bowl title. Jernigan has also been a part of three NFC South division titles in his first six seasons with the club.

His job responsibilities entail assisting Head Athletic Trainer Todd Toriscelli with the treatment and rehabilitation of players. Jernigan spent two seasons (2000-2001) as Tampa Bay's seasonal intern and also served as the Buccaneers' intern during training camp from 1998-2000. Tampa Bay's staff is involved in research on dehydration and exercise in the heat. This has been done in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

Jernigan graduated from Valdosta State (GA) in 1998 with a bachelor's of science degree in sports medicine and earned a master's degree in health science from Middle Tennessee State University in 2000. While pursuing his master's degree at MTSU, he worked as a athletic trainer for both the football and baseball teams.

A native of Atlanta, Jernigan enjoys golfing, jogging and weightlifting. Jernigan, who resides in Tampa, is married to the former Krisden Wunsch.

DR. JOE DIACO
TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Joseph Diaco enters his 33rd year with the Buccaneers and 31st as the chief team physician. Diaco currently practices general and laparoscopic surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital in Tampa. In 2002, Diaco helped the Buccaneers claim their first Super Bowl title in team history with a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. Diaco has been a part of six division titles during his time with the Buccaneers, including three of the past six NFC South division championships.

Besides his aforementioned duties, Diaco is also an associate clinical professor at the University of South Florida and at one time served as the president of the Tampa Surgical Society. A fellow of the American College of Surgeons, Diaco came to the Tampa Bay area more than 30 years ago. From 1971-1974, he served as the chief of surgery at the Air Force Hospital at Warner Robbins Air Force Base in Georgia. Diaco served his residency in general surgery at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital from 1965-1970. Diaco was also named Community Leader of the Year by the Arthritis Foundation in 2003.

A Tampa resident, Diaco earned his bachelor's degree from Villanova and also graduated from Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital in his native Philadelphia. His twin brother, Nick, is a heart specialist in Los Angeles. Diaco has three sons: Daniel, Stephen and Joseph. Daniel is the Chief of Plastic Surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital and will be assisting Diaco again this upcoming season. Stephen and Joseph are both Tampa attorneys.

HEAD TEAM ORTHOPEDIC SURGEON

Dr. John Zvijac enters his 11th season as the Buccaneers head team orthopedic surgeon. Zvijac's contributions were vital to the Buccaneers as the club claimed its first Super Bowl title in 2002 against the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII while also capturing three NFC South division titles in the past six seasons. Overall, he has been a part of four division titles in his decade of service with the Buccaneers.

Dr. Zvijac is a professor at the University of Miami School of Education, Department of Exercise Science and Sports Medicine, as well as a professor in Exercise and Sports Science at Florida International University. In addition, he is a member of the Athletic Training Education Advisory Board at Florida International University. He is in private practice at the UH Sports Medicine Institute in Coral Gables.

Zvijac is also the team physician for the University of Miami and Florida International University, while providing medical care for all Miami-Dade County Public High Schools.

Zvijac graduated from the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Medicine and completed his residency at the University of Miami School of Medicine. He also fulfilled an additional year of fellowship training in arthroscopy and sports medicine at the American Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham, Alabama.

Zvijac resides in Miami with wife Gail.

DAVE LEVY

VIDEO DIRECTOR

Dave Levy begins his 21st season as the team's video director. Levy's contributions helped lead the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in 2002, a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. He has also been a part of the Buccaneers three NFC South division titles in the past six seasons. Overall, Levy has helped guide Tampa Bay to four division titles during his tenure.

Opening to rave reviews in 2006, Levy was instrumental in the development and layout of the Buccaneers new training facility. His insight helped create one of the most technologically advanced sports training facilities in the world, providing the coaches and personnel department with a distinct advantage.

His responsibilities include all videotaping, editing and production for the team. He also oversees the Bucs' game film library and handles film trade-outs with the other NFL clubs. In preparation for each season's NFL draft, Levy's department also aids the personnel department in acquiring, editing and maintaining videotape on draft-eligible players. He was hired by the Bucs after previously serving as an assistant in the Pittsburgh Steelers' video department.

A native of Pittsburgh, Levy went to high school in Bethel Park, Pennsylvania. Levy also attended the Community College of Allegheny County, the University of Pittsburgh, and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. Levy has three sons, Andrew, Garrett and Bryce and resides in Tampa.

CHRIS BRYAN

ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

Chris Bryan enters his ninth season with the Buccaneers and third as assistant video director. He assists video director Dave Levy in the shooting and duplicating of games and practices while also editing and producing various other tapes for the coaching staff.

The 2002 season saw Bryan help lead the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl XXXVII victory over the Oakland Raiders. During his time with the club, Bryan has been a part of three NFC South division titles.

Bryan, a native of St. Petersburg, spent his first six seasons with the Buccaneers as a video assistant from 2000-2005.

JAMES SORENSON

HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

James Sorenson, who first started working in the NFL in 1986, is in his third season as equipment manager with the Buccaneers. Last season, Sorenson helped guide the Buccaneers to their third NFC South division title.

Sorenson is responsible for distributing all equipment and apparel to Buccaneer players and coaches, along with purchasing and inventorying all team equipment. He also maintains the locker room and oversees the transportation of the team's equipment to training camp and for all home and away games.

Sorenson spent eight seasons as an assistant equipment manager with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 1998-2005. He began his career in the NFL in 1986 as a ball boy with the Minnesota Vikings before serving as equipment assistant with the team from 1991-1997.

Sorenson earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biomedical Science from St. Cloud State in 1998. He is single and resides in Tampa.

LARRY HOYT

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Larry Hoyt enters his seventh season with the Buccaneers' equipment staff. His responsibilities with the staff include assisting equipment manager James Sorenson with the outfitting of players and serving as the team's main liaison for footwear and gloves with Reebok and Nike. In his first year with the Buccaneers in 2002, Hoyt was part of the team's first Super Bowl championship. During his first six seasons, he has also been a part of three NFC South division titles.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Hoyt held two different stints as the equipment manager for the Arena Football League's Orlando Predators, from 1995-1999 and again from 2000-2002. He also worked in sponsorship sales for the Predators and served as the team's interim ticket manager for a three-month period in 2000. During his tenure in Orlando, Hoyt was part of Arena Bowl championships in 1998 and 2000.

A native of Englewood, Florida, Hoyt earned a bachelor's of science degree in exercise and sports science from the University of Florida. He earned a scholarship while working as a student equipment manager for the Gator football team from 1990-1995, and was part of SEC Championships in 1990, 1991, 1993 and 1994.

Hoyt, who also possesses his Florida real estate license, resides in Tampa with his wife, Peggy and son, Jamie.

BRIAN FORD

DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Brian A. Ford, Jr. is entering his first full season as Director of Business Administration for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Ford joined the Buccaneers in November of 2006 and was promoted to Director of Business Administration in October of 2007. Ford oversees all day-to-day business operations for the organization.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Ford was part of the team that opened Raymond James Stadium as the District Manager with Fine Host Corporation in 1998. He remained in that capacity until 2006, when he began his career with the Buccaneers.

Ford serves as an Executive Committee Member for the Super Bowl Host Committee, and also serves on the Board of both the Ronald McDonald House and the Florida Sports Foundation.

Ford, a native of Miramar, Florida, graduated from Florida State in 1989 with a B.S. in Business Administration. He is an avid runner and tri-athlete and competes in numerous events each year, including the past four Disney Marathons. He and his wife, Judy, live in Tampa with their sons Brian III and Brandon.

Had a long punt of 59 yards, and placed 20 kicks inside the 20-yard line.

2005: Named to his first Pro Bowl... Selected as the NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in November, and earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week 3 at Green Bay (9/25) and Week 6 vs. Miami (10/16)... His 45.6-yard gross average and 37.5-yard net average were both career bests... His 45.6-yard gross average was the best single-season performance in team history and ranked third in NFL... His 37.5-yard net average was the second-best single-season performance in team history, and ranked third in the NFC... Placed 24 punts inside the 20-yard line, which ranked fifth in the NFC and was the second highest total of his career... Had at least one punt of 50 or more yards in 16 of 17 games... Punted 90 times for 4,101 yards (45.6 avg.) and placed 24 kicks inside the 20-yard line... Played in all 16 contests for the sixth consecutive season... Also played in playoff game vs. Washington... Had five punts for 197 yards (39.4 avg.) with a long of 45, including three punts inside the 20-yard line, in NFC Wild Card game vs. Washington (1/7).

2004: Played in all 16 games for the fifth consecutive season, extending his consecutive games played streak to 80, in his first season in Tampa Bay... Had 82 punts for 3,472 yards (42.3 avg.) and placed 23 punts inside the 20-yard line... Ranked eighth in the NFC with a 42.3 gross average per punt and sixth in the conference with a 36.8 net average per punt... His 23 punts inside the 20-yard line was the third highest total of his career and tied for fifth-most in team history... His 36.8 net punting average ranked third-best in team history and his 42.3 gross punting average ranked seventh best in team annals... Set or tied several single-game career highs in 2004, including punts placed inside the 20 (four vs. Denver, 10/3), net punting average (44.3 avg. at St. Louis, 10/18) and gross punting yards (371 yards vs. Seattle, 9/19).

2003: Appeared in all 16 games with the Packers for the fourth consecutive season... Also saw action in both playoff contests... Ranked sixth among NFC punters in both gross (41.7) and net average (35.1)... Punted 69 times for 2,875 (41.7 avg.) yards with a long of 60 yards... Placed 16 punts inside the 20-yard line... Broke David Beverly's 23-year-old Packers team record for most consecutive punts without a block (274, set from 1977-80) by extending his own streak of unblocked punts to 308... Made one special teams tackle... Punted 12 times for 485 yards (40.4-yard average), placing two inside the 20 and a long of 55 yards, during the postseason... Punted seven times for a 41.9-yard average in Divisional playoff contest at Philadelphia (1/11), including a pair downed inside the 20.

2002: Saw action in all 16 games and one playoff contest with Green Bay... Punted 79 times for 3,296 yards (41.7 avg.)... Finished in the top half of NFC punters in both net average (35.7 yards; seventh) and punts inside the 20-yard line (then a career-high 26; fifth)... Kept his touchbacks to only six among 79 punts and never had more than a single touchback in any one game... Finished 10th in the conference in gross average... Averaged a career-best 53.3 yards per punt (min. four att.) – also tying him with Boyd Dowler for the fourth-best, single-game performance in Packers history – at New Orleans (9/15), when he punted four times for 213 yards with two placed inside the 20... Finished the season with 79 punts for 3,296 yards (41.7 avg.) with a career-best 26 punts inside the 20-yard line.

2001: Played in all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests with Green Bay... Posted the second-best net average (36.5 yards) in team history... Punted 82 times for 3,485 yards (42.5 avg.), dropping 21 inside the 20-yard line with 10 touchbacks... His 36.5-yard net average ranked third among NFC punters... Upped his gross average by a full four yards over the previous season (to 42.5, after averaging 38.5 yards in 2000) to place seventh in the conference on that basis... Was named NFL Special Teams Player of the Week after punting three times for gross and net averages of 47.7 yards, including two inside the 20, in NFC Wild Card playoff win over San Francisco (1/13)... His 47.7 net average represented a career best and was the highest in a playoff game (min. 3 punts) since the Steelers' P Craig Colquitt had a 48.3-yard net average vs. Houston in the 1979 postseason... Subsequently averaged 43.7 yards on three punts (two inside the 20-yard line) in Divisional playoff game at St. Louis (1/20)... Finished a strong postseason with six punts for 274 yards – a 45.7-yard gross average – and a net average of 44.7 yards with four inside the 20 and no touchbacks.

2000: Won Green Bay's punting job left open when P Louie Aguiar was not re-signed, beating out veteran P Tom Hutton with a steady training camp performance... Played in all 16 games in his first NFL season on the field... Punted 78 times for 3,003 yards (38.5 avg.)... Posted a 34.6-yard net average while dropping 22 of his 78 punts inside the 20.

1999: Missed his entire rookie season after being diagnosed with testicular cancer September 1 on the eve of the team's final preseason game... Was placed on the reserve/non-football illness list on September 5... Having discovered the cancer in its early stages, he began a whirlwind period in his life with an initial surgery on September 1 to remove a tumor... Subsequently underwent a second surgery later that month, in Portland, to remove roughly 25 cancerous lymph nodes and then went through two cycles of intensive chemotherapy, which were completed in late November of 1999... Eventually rehabilitated in Eugene, Oregon, as he worked to regain the nearly 40 pounds he had lost during the treatment process... Was supported throughout his treatment by Tour de France champion cyclist Lance Armstrong, who had used the same surgeon and chemotherapist in his own successful battle with testicular cancer... Armstrong's support, often in the form of exchanged emails, typically included counsel on what to expect as the treatment process unfolded... Also received emotional and monetary support from his Packers teammates throughout his ordeal... When it was found that he was ineligible for the NFLPA insurance program – Bidwell's cancer was discovered 11 days prior to the first regular season game, when his insurance coverage would have begun – his teammates, particularly kicker Ryan Longwell, worked to raise nearly $100,000 to help defray his anticipated medical expenses, including roughly $70,000 in personal cash contributions... A team-wide golf tournament to help cover his costs also was held on the players' off day.

College: Became Oregon's punter midway through the first game of his redshirt freshman season when the incumbent suffered what turned out to be a career-ending injury... Lettered the next four years (1995-98) for the Ducks... Had redshirted in 1994, playing as much tight end as punter for the scout team... Was concentrating on his duties as a backup wide receiver when punting opportunity presented itself early in '95 campaign... Punted 229 times for 9,350 yards – a 40.8-yard average, third-best in school history with a long of 69... Placed 61 punts inside the 20 and registered a 38.1-yard net average over his collegiate career... Enjoyed a true breakout season in 1998 as a fifth-year senior, when he averaged 46.0 yards per punt to shatter the school's single-season record (previously 43.7) and finished second in the nation in gross average... Also posted a remarkable 41.8-yard net average and was a second-team All-America selection by the Associated Press and Football News... Additionally earned first-team All-PAC-10 Conference recognition for the first time and won the Gordon Wilson Award as the Ducks' special teams player of the year... Had the lone punt blocked of his collegiate career in 1998 Stanford game, snapping a string of 189 punts without a block... Was thrust into role as the school's punter when incumbent Matt Belden tore a thigh muscle in opening game at University of Utah; luckily he had been on trip as a member of traveling squad in his then-role as a backup wide receiver... Was one-of-three on field goal attempts and one-of-one on PAT tries while filling in for Belden vs. Utes on an emergency basis... Hit 42-yard field goal midway through third quarter to tie game at 20 in eventual 27-20 victory over Utah, later adding a successful extra point on Ducks' go-ahead touchdown... Had opportunity to play in the 1996 Cotton Bowl, the 1997 Las Vegas Bowl and the 1998 Aloha Bowl... Holds a B.A. degree in English.

Personal: Married to Bethany, and the couple has two sons, Brady John and Aaron Robert... Released his autobiography, "When It's Fourth and Long," in 2007... Has a Web Site, www.joshbidwell.com... Filmed public service announcements to assist the Oregon Sports Network in raising funds for Livestrong, the Lance Armstrong Foundation, in October 2007... Was voted the 2000 'Ed Block Courage Award recipient' by his Packers teammates for his "commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage" in returning to the field after testicular cancer... Remains interested in promoting testicular cancer awareness with the message being early discovery through self diagnosis... In conjunction with the Children's Cancer Center, created a survivors' group consisting of young children that have survived cancer... In November 2006, hosted several members of the Cancer Survivors Group at the Buccaneers' new training facility... Visited patients at Celebration Health, Florida Hospital on opening day of training camp in 2005... Also visited with cadets at Falkenburg Academy, a juvenile justice facility, to talk about faith and the importance of getting their lives back on track in 2005... Involved with the Children's Cancer Center in Tampa... During the Packers 2002 and 2003 training camps, tested as one of the strongest members of the team as he bench pressed 225 pounds an astonishing 25 times besting all other players other than linemen and linebackers who lift 315 pounds... Was an all-state pick by The Oregonian as both a placekicker (second team) and punter (third team) his senior season at Douglas (Winston, OR) High School when he averaged 45.6 yards per punt despite missing the final three games due to an appendectomy... Also earned all-conference honors three times as a kicking specialist... Served as the school's option quarterback his junior and senior years, he also had started at free safety early in his prep career – a role he relinquished upon becoming the signal caller... Won four letters in football, three in baseball and two for the basketball team, which he led in scoring as a senior... Was a catcher on the school's state championship baseball team his sophomore year... Was active with other charitable efforts throughout Wisconsin, personally calling an Algoma, Wisconsin student with cancer and gotten involved with the local Make-A-Wish program... Also helped wrap Christmas presents for the less-privileged in Milwaukee and read to schoolchildren in Green Lake... Wife, Bethany, a one-time all-league basketball and softball player at Eugene's Churchill High School, was also a pitcher for the University of Oregon softball team in 1998-1999... She is also actively involved in the charitable efforts of the Buccaneers Women's Organization... Josh is an avid golfer; he also enjoys playing basketball, fishing, and anything else that gets him out of the house... Resides in Eugene, Oregon during the offseason... Born Joshua John Bidwell on March 13, 1976 in Winston, Oregon.

Personal: Honored as the 2004 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year, the highest honor bestowed upon an NFL player for his outstanding community service and on-field performance... In 2007, Dunn, along with Andre Agassi, Muhammad Ali, Lance Armstrong, Jeff Gordon, Mia Hamm, Tony Hawk, Andrea Jaeger, Jackie Joyner-Kersey, Mario Lemieux, Alonzo Mourning and Cal Ripken, Jr. founded Athletes for Hope, a non-profit organization which helps professional athletes and the community develop their passion for philanthropy... This past offseason, was inducted to The World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame... For his outstanding role as a community leader, Dunn was invited in April 2005, along with Patriots LB Larry Izzo, to visit U.S. troops in Kuwait, Qatar and Iraq, and to dedicate a new USO building - The Pat Tillman Center - in Afghanistan... In 2004, was selected by the NFL, along with Falcons LB Keith Brooking and Ravens TE Todd Heap, to travel with former-NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue to visit U.S. military troops stationed in Germany... Captured "No. 1 Good Guy" Award from Sporting News' Annual list of good guys in pro sports in June 2005... Established The Warrick Dunn Foundation in 2002... The Foundation is dedicated to providing opportunities for economically-disadvantaged single parents and children who have demonstrated a commitment to achieve financial independence and stability... Through his Homes for the Holidays program, Dunn helps single mothers become first-time homeowners by making the down payments on new, fully-furnished homes... The program is a tribute to his mother, Betty Smothers, a Baton Rouge police officer, who as a single-mother of six, worked tirelessly to achieve the American dream of owning her own home... While working a second job as a security guard, she was killed in the line of duty and was never able to realize that dream... To date, the program has assisted 78 single parents and profoundly touched the lives of 205 dependents in Atlanta, Tampa, Baton Rouge and Tallahassee... Dunn launched the program during his rookie season in 1997, when he made the down payments on four homes in Tampa... Recently expanded program to run year-round... Received recognition for his off-the-field contributions from organizations such as the Giants Step Award in Civic Leadership, the John H. Macy Award for Individual Leadership from The National Alliance to End Homelessness, National Center for Black Philanthropy, Henry P. Iba Citizen Athlete Awards, and the NFL Extra Effort Award... Was selected as one of Oprah Winfrey's "Angels" in 2001, made the list of 101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports by Sports Illustrated in 2003, and has been named The Sporting News' Top 75 Good Guys in Sports four times... Established the Warrick Dunn Foundation Golf Tournament in April 2005 in Tampa, Florida... Garnered past recognition as one of The Sporting News' Top 100 most powerful sports personalities... Ranked #79 on Sports Illustrated's list of the "101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports" in May of 2003... The list was comprised of "men and women who are reshaping the sports industry and opening doors through which others will follow"... Played cornerback, running back and quarterback at Catholic (Baton Rouge, LA) High School... Born Warrick De'Mon Dunn on January 5, 1975 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Pro: An athletic center who is equally skilled in pass protection and run blocking... Adept at recognizing defenses and making calls at the line... Has started all 66 games played in his career, including two post-season contests... Signed by the Buccaneers as a free agent on February 29, 2008... Traded to the Saints on April 29, 2006... Originally entered the league as a first-round pick (21st overall) by the Cleveland Browns in the 2003 NFL Draft.

2007: Started every regular season game for New Orleans except at San Francisco (10/28) and vs. Jacksonville (11/4)... Was inactive for two contests (at San Francisco, vs. Jacksonville) due to pectoral strain... Selected by his teammates as one of five season-long captains... Centered an offensive line that allowed the fewest sacks in the league in 2007 with 16... Was flagged only once in 2007 (holding call against Tennessee)... Helped block for a New Orleans offense that finished the season as the fourth-ranked offense in the league... Was a Pro Bowl alternate selection.

For more detailed information prior to the 2007 season, go to www.Buccaneers.com/Players 2006: Started all 16 games at center for New Orleans for the first time in his career... Also started both playoff contests... Was a key part of an offensive line that paved the way for the NFL's No. 1-ranked offense, with 6,264 net yards.

2005: Started all 14 games at center for Cleveland before suffering a biceps injury at Oakland (12/18)... Was placed on injured reserve on December 20, 2006 and missed the final two games of the year.

2004: Started 13 games at center for Cleveland before suffering a season-ending ankle injury in mid-December... Placed on injured reserve on December 14, 2004.

SEAHAWKS 20, BUCS 6

September 9, 2007

Quest Field (68,044)

SEATTLE – Tampa Bay jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the first quarter and gained 193 first half yards, but fell to the host Seahawks in its first trip to Seattle since 1999. The Buccaneers entered the Seattle red zone on two first quarter possessions, but had to settle for a pair of K Matt Bryant field goals and the early lead. Seattle cut the lead to 6-3 late in the second quarter on a K Josh Brown 28-yard field goal. On its next possession, Seattle took the lead at 10-6 on a one-yard touchdown run by RB Shaun Alexander, which was set up by a 56-yard punt return by WR Nate Burleson. Following a scoreless third quarter in which RB Carnell Williams was lost for the game with a rib injury and QB Jeff Garcia was knocked out the contest until midway through the fourth quarter, Seattle extended its lead to 13-6 on a 46-yard Brown field goal early in the fourth quarter. Seattle posted the game's final points on its next possession as QB Matt Hasselbeck hit RB Maurice Morris on third down for a 34-yard touchdown pass with 7:55 remaining in the game. Tampa Bay had an opportunity to trim the lead on its next drive, but RB Earnest Graham fumbled deep in Seahawks territory with less than four minutes remaining to end the Buccaneers comeback attempt.

BUCS 31, SAINTS 14
Raymond James Stadium (65,178)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead, its largest halftime lead since 2004, en route to defeating the defending NFC South champion Saints. Following a Saints turnover near midfield on their second possession, Tampa Bay capitalized with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Carnell Williams to take a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, the Buccaneers extended their lead to 14-0 as QB Jeff Garcia hit WR Joey Galloway for a 69-yard touchdown pass, marking Tampa Bay's longest passing play since 2005. Tampa Bay regained possession with 1:41 remaining in the first half at its own 35-yard line and needed only two plays to add to its lead. Garcia hit WR Ike Hilliard on the first play of the drive for a 41-yard gain, setting up a Garcia to Galloway 24-yard score for the 21-0 lead. It marked Galloway's ninth touchdown reception in six games against the Saints and his fifth multi-touchdown performance as a Buccaneer. Following a LB Cato June interception midway through the third quarter, his first as a Buccaneer, Tampa Bay extended its lead to 28-0 on Williams' second one-yard touchdown run of the day. The two-touchdown performance was his first since Week 14 of the 2005 season. New Orleans got on the board late in the third quarter on a one-yard run by FB Mike Karney to make the score 28-7 entering the fourth quarter. Tampa Bay tacked on a K Matt Bryant 27-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach.

BUCS 24, RAMS 3
 Raymond James Stadium (65,267)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay improved to 2-1 on the season as the Buccaneers forced three St. Louis turnovers and racked up 182 rushing yards en route to the victory. Tampa Bay held a tenuous 10-3 lead early in the fourth quarter, when backup RB Earnest Graham took over, running for a career-high 75 yards on eight carries while scoring the first two touchdowns of his career. After a scoreless first quarter, St. Louis threatened to get on the scoreboard, but S Jermaine Phillips intercepted QB Marc Bulger on a third-down play in Buccaneers territory. On the Rams next possession they again drove into Tampa Bay territory, but the Bucs defense stiffened, forcing a 42-yard field goal attempt by K Jeff Wilkins, which sailed wide left. Tampa Bay's final drive of the first half began at the two-minute warning and ended with a K Matt Bryant 27-yard field goal in a driving rain and a 3-0 Buccaneers lead at halftime. The Buccaneers extended their lead on the opening drive of the second half as WR Mark Jones gave the offense excellent field position on a career-long 36-yard kickoff return to midfield, helping set up a RB Carnell Williams seven-yard touchdown run seven plays later. St. Louis drove to the Buccaneers 10-yard line on its ensuing possession, but CB Phillip Buchanon intercepted Bulger in the end zone to end the scoring threat. Following a Buccaneers fumble at their own 33-yard line on the first play of the fourth quarter, the Rams cut the lead to 10-3 on a Wilkins' 25-yard field goal. Tampa Bay took control of the game on the next drive as they marched 80 yards on six plays, finishing with a Graham eight-yard touchdown run, the first of his career. The Buccaneers extended the lead on their next possession, again set up by a Jones return, as Graham put the game away with a 28-yard touchdown run.

BUCS 20, PANTHERS 7
September 30, 2007
Bank of America Stadium (73,707)

CHARLOTTE – Tampa Bay took early control of the NFC South as the Buccaneers started 2-0 in the division for the first time in the six-year history of the NFC South. For the first time since 1988, Tampa Bay has gone three straight games without surrendering a point in the first half, limiting the Panthers to 77 yards and four first downs in the first half while not allowing the Panthers to run a play in Tampa Bay territory until late in the fourth quarter. The victory proved to be costly however, as RB Carnell Williams and T Luke Petitgout were lost for the season in the first half with knee injuries. Substituting for the injured Williams, RBs Earnest Graham and Michael Pittman combined for 138 yards on 32 carries (4.3 avg.) and one score. Veteran WR Ike Hilliard led all players with seven receptions for 114 yards, all in the first half, to register his first 100-yard receiving game as a Buccaneer and ninth of his career. Tampa Bay started fast, driving 71 yards in 11 plays on the game's opening drive to take a 7-0 lead on QB Jeff Garcia's three-yard TD run. The Buccaneers pushed their lead to 14-0 late in the first quarter as Graham scored his third rushing touchdown in the last two games from one yard out. Tampa Bay tacked on a field goal in the second quarter to take a 17-0 lead into halftime. Following a scoreless third quarter, S Jermaine Phillips recorded his second interception of the season, picking off QB David Carr in Carolina territory. The turnover set up K Matt Bryant's second FG of the day, giving the Buccaneers a comfortable 20-0 lead with 10:21 remaining in the contest. Carolina avoided the shutout as Carr found RB DeAngelo Williams for a 24-yard TD pass with 23 seconds left.

INDIANAPOLIS – Tampa Bay fell to the Colts in its first trip to Indianapolis since 1997. Following a 29-yard punt return into Buccaneers territory, Indianapolis took a 7-0 lead on its first drive of the game on a QB Peyton Manning to TE Dallas Clark 10-yard touchdown pass. The Colts extended their lead to 13-0 early in the second quarter on a RB Kenton Keith one-yard touchdown run, however DE Gaines Adams blocked the extra point, the Buccaneers first block of an extra point since 1986. On the Colts next possession, rookie S Tanard Jackson recorded the first interception of his career off Manning, setting up the Buccaneers first touchdown of the day nine plays later as QB Jeff Garcia connected with TE Alex Smith on a three-yard touchdown pass. Indianapolis pushed its lead to 16-7 on the final play of the first half on a K Adam Vinatieri 27-yard field goal. The Colts opened the second half with a 77-yard scoring drive to take control of the game at 23-7 on Keith's second rushing touchdown of the game. Tampa Bay only held possession for 1:41 in the third quarter and the Colts went up 30-7 on the first play of the fourth quarter as Manning found WR Reggie Wayne for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay drew closer at 30-14 on the ensuing possession when Garcia found Smith again from three yards out, marking Smith's second career two-touchdown performance and his first since his first game as a professional in 2005. Indianapolis tacked on a field goal on its next possession to provide the game's final margin.

BUCS 13, TITANS 10

Raymond James Stadium (65,347)

TAMPA – QB Jeff Garcia led the Buccaneers on a seven-play, 55-yard drive with just over one minute remaining in the game to set up K Matt Bryant's game-winning 43-yard field goal with 11 seconds left in the contest. The kick came after Tennessee tied the score at 10-10 with 1:17 remaining in the game. It marked Bryant's fourth game winner as a Buccaneer and the sixth of his career. Following a scoreless first quarter, Tennessee drove inside Buccaneers territory but QB Vince Young mishandled a handoff and Buccaneers DE Patrick Chukwurah recovered the fumble at the Tampa Bay 36-yard line. On the resulting possession, Garcia connected with WR Michael Clayton on a 39-yard pass play and four plays later Bryant hit a 23-yard field goal to give Tampa Bay a 3-0 lead. Tennessee took the ensuing possession inside Buccaneers territory, but CB Phillip Buchanon intercepted Young at the five-yard line to end the threat before halftime. Through three home games this season, Tampa Bay has yet to surrender a first-half point at Raymond James Stadium. Tennessee got on the board on the opening drive of the second half on a 48-yard K Rob Bironas FG to tie the game at 3-3. Tampa Bay regained the lead with 2:29 remaining in the third quarter as Garcia hit WR Joey Galloway for a 69-yard TD pass. The score moved Galloway into fourth place in team history with 25 receiving TDs as a Buccaneer. Replacing an injured Young, QB Kerry Collins and the Titans' offense took possession with 7:34 remaining in the contest and drove deep into Buccaneers territory when CB Ronde Barber appeared to intercept Collins in the end zone with less than three minutes remaining. However, replay officials ruled Barber was out of bounds, negating the interception and four plays later Titans RB LenDale White tied the game at 10-10 on a two-yard TD run.

LIONS 23, BUCS 16

Ford Field (60,442)

DETROIT – Tampa Bay racked up 422 yards of offense, including 247 in the first half, but lost in Detroit for the first time since 1999. Despite trailing 23-7 with 6:28 remaining in the contest, Tampa Bay rallied to score the next nine points to bring the score to 23-16. But Detroit recovered Tampa Bay's final onside kick attempt with just over a minute left and ran out the clock. Tampa Bay's opening drive stalled inside Lions territory and P Josh Bidwell's resulting punt was blocked and recovered by Detroit at the Buccaneers 37-yard line, setting up a K Jason Hanson 34-yard FG. On the ensuing possession, Tampa Bay again advanced into Lions territory but QB Jeff Garcia fumbled and Detroit recovered. The Lions capitalized, taking a 10-0 lead on a RB Kevin Jones one-yard TD run. Tampa Bay responded on the ensuing possession as Garcia connected with WR Ike Hilliard on a five-yard TD pass. Garcia had one of the most impressive performances in team history, completing 37-of-45 passes for 316 yards and two TDs. He had 18 straight completions at one point during the first half, the most-ever in one game in team history. The Buccaneers had an opportunity to tie the game late in the first half, but Bryant's 40-yard FG attempt sailed wide left. On the resulting possession, Hanson tacked on another field goal to push the Lions lead to 13-7 at halftime. Trailing 16-7 early in the fourth quarter, the Buccaneers drove to the Detroit one-yard line but Garcia fumbled the snap and the Lions recovered at the seven-yard line. The Lions then drove 93 yards to take a 23-7 lead on WR Calvin Johnson's 32-yard TD run. Tampa Bay scored on its next drive as Garcia hit WR Maurice Stovall for his first career TD to bring the Buccaneers within 10 late in the fourth quarter. The Buccaneers recovered the ensuing onside kick attempt and Bryant hit a 48-yard FG with 1:04 remaining. However, Detroit recovered the next onside kick to end the comeback attempt.

JAGUARS 24, BUCS 23
Raymond James Stadium (65,133)

TAMPA – Despite outgaining its in-state rivals by a 385-219 margin and limiting the Jaguars to 86 passing yards, Tampa Bay fell for the first time this season at Raymond James Stadium. The Buccaneers took a 3-0 lead on their first possession on K Matt Bryant's 44-yard FG, but the Jaguars scored the next 17 points to take a 17-3 lead on RB LaBrandon Toefield's one-yard TD run, a 41-yard FG by K John Carney and a 28-yard INT return for a TD by CB Aaron Glenn. The interception by Glenn snapped QB Jeff Garcia's consecutive passes streak without an interception at 217 attempts in the regular season, dating back to last season. Trailing by two touchdowns with just over seven minutes remaining in the second quarter, the Buccaneers reeled off 20 unanswered points. Three plays after his interception, Garcia hit WR Joey Galloway for a 58-yard TD pass and the Buccaneers closed the gap to 17-13 just before halftime as Bryant connected on a 22-yard FG. Tampa Bay regained the lead at 20-17 late in the third quarter as RB Michael Bennett took a lateral from Garcia in the flat and raced 19 yards for his first TD as a Buccaneer. Following a three-and-out on the Jaguars next possession, WR Maurice Stovall deflected a Jacksonville punt to set up a Bryant 42-yard FG for a 23-17 Buccaneers lead. Jacksonville responded on its next possession as QB Quinn Gray found WR Matt Jones for an eight-yard TD pass and a 24-23 Jacksonville lead with 11:37 remaining in the contest. Following two scoreless possessions by each team, Tampa Bay began its final drive with 1:43 remaining at its own 34-yard line. Facing a fourth-and-10 at the Jaguars 45-yard line, Garcia hit WR Ike Hilliard over the middle but the ball was jarred loose and intercepted to secure the Jaguars win.

BUCS 17, CARDINALS 10

Raymond James Stadium (65,267)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay held the ball for 43:07, the highest time of possession for a regulation game in team history, and limited the Cardinals offense to 23 rushing yards, tied for the fifth-best single-game defensive effort in team history. Tampa Bay's offense churned out 162 rushing yards, led by RB Earnest Graham's 124 yards on 34 carries, marking his first career 100-yard effort. Arizona took a 3-0 lead on its first possession of the game as K Neil Rackers hit a 47-yard FG. Tampa Bay responded on the ensuing possession as QB Jeff Garcia hit WR Joey Galloway on a 37-yard TD pass for a 7-3 lead. It marked Galloway's 28th career TD as a Buccaneer, good for fifth in team history. On the first play of the second quarter, rookie S Tanard Jackson intercepted QB Kurt Warner in Cardinals territory to set up K Matt Bryant's 32-yard FG and a 10-3 lead. Tampa Bay took the 10-3 lead into halftime after forcing four consecutive three-and-outs by the Cardinals offense in the second quarter. The Buccaneers took the opening drive of the second half 64 yards to extend their lead to 17-3 on Graham's two-yard TD run. Tampa Bay had an opportunity to put the game away as it took possession with 8:46 remaining in the third quarter and drove 86 yards on 19 plays to the Arizona eight-yard line, draining 11:59 off the clock. However, a dropped pass in the end zone and a missed field goal allowed the Cardinals to take possession and pull within seven on a three-yard TD by RB Edgerrin James with 7:30 left in the game. Trailing 17-10, Arizona had two final possessions to attempt a comeback. The first, which began with 3:31 remaining, ended with a three-and-out. The Cardinals began their final drive with 2:39 left in the contest, but S Jermaine Phillips picked off Warner on the first play of the drive near midfield to preserve the win.

BUCS 31, FALCONS 7
Georgia Dome (69,480)

ATLANTA — The Buccaneers defense forced four Atlanta turnovers, scored one touchdown and registered four sacks as Tampa Bay moved to 3-0 in the division. RB Earnest Graham became the first Tampa Bay runner to rush for more than 100 yards in consecutive games since 2005 as he totaled 102 yards on 17 carries, including a 26-yard touchdown run. Midway through the first quarter, DT Jovan Haye pressured QB Byron Leftwich into his first interception of the day as LB Barrett Ruud returned the errant throw to the Tampa Bay 28-yard line. Three plays later, QB Jeff Garcia hit WR Joey Galloway on a 44-yard slant-and-go for a 7-0 lead. With 10:54 left in the first half, DE Greg White sacked and forced a Leftwich fumble that CB Ronde Barber picked up and went 41 yards for a touchdown and a 14-0 lead. It marked Barber's ninth career touchdown on a fumble or interception return to rank him tied for first in the NFL among active players. After Tampa Bay stopped the Falcons on a fourth-and-one near midfield, the lead was extended on K Matt Bryant's 23-yard field goal. On the Falcons ensuing possession, DE Gaines Adams hit Leftwich's arm as he attempted to throw, leading to a fumble recovery by DT Chris Hovan and Tampa Bay's ball at the Atlanta 27-yard line. Three plays later, Garcia tossed his second touchdown of the day as he found TE Alex Smith in the end zone for a 21-yard score and a 24-0 lead. Graham put the game out of reach on the first play of the fourth quarter as he scampered 26 yards for a touchdown for a 31-0 advantage.

BUCS 19, REDSKINS 13

Raymond James Stadium (65,596)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay forced six turnovers, including four in the first half, and held off a late Redskins rally for its third consecutive win. CB Ronde Barber and DE/DT Kevin Carter each reached career milestones in the contest as Barber moved into first place in team history with his 32nd career interception while Carter recorded his 100th career sack. Following the first possession in which QB Jeff Garcia was forced out of the game with an injury, the Redskins fumbled on their first play from scrimmage, setting up Tampa Bay at the Washington 19-yard line. Three plays later, RB Earnest Graham scored from one-yard out for a 7-0 lead. On the ensuing possession, S Tanard Jackson recorded his second fumble recovery of the day as Tampa Bay again took possession at the Redskins 19-yard line. The Buccaneers capitalized on the field position as K Matt Bryant extended the lead to 10-0 on a 35-yard FG. On the Redskins first drive of the second quarter, DE Greg White sacked and forced a QB Jason Campbell fumble inside Redskins territory. It marked White's second forced fumble of the afternoon as he became the first player in team history to force two fumbles in consecutive games. Four plays later, Bryant pushed the lead to 13-0 on a 27-yard FG. On the Redskins ensuing possession, they again put the ball on the ground and Tampa Bay recovered in Washington territory, leading to a Bryant 48-yard FG and a 16-0 lead. The teams exchanged field goals to close out the first half with the Buccaneers holding a 19-3 advantage. Washington pulled within nine on the first drive of the second half when Campbell connected with TE Chris Cooley for a 39-yard TD pass. On their next possession, the Redskins drove to the Tampa Bay four-yard line, but turned the ball over on downs when RB Clinton Portis was stuffed for no gain on fourth-and-one by LB Derrick Brooks. Washington tacked on a field goal early in the fourth quarter to make the score 19-13 with 11:19 remaining in the contest. The Redskins had two final drives enter Buccaneers territory, but Tampa Bay forced two more turnovers to secure the win. Barber picked off Campbell at the 28-yard line to end one drive and CB Brian Kelly intercepted Campbell in the end zone with 17 seconds remaining.

BUCS 27, SAINTS 23

December 2, 2007

Superdome (70,009)

NEW ORLEANS – Tampa Bay moved to 4-0 in the division for the first time since 1990 when QB Luke McCown connected with TE Jerramy Stevens on a four-yard touchdown pass with 14 seconds remaining in the contest. While dominating the game statistically, Tampa Bay recovered a Saints fumble late in the contest in New Orleans territory to set up the game-winning score. Starting for the injured QB Jeff Garcia, McCown completed 29-of-37 passes, including 15 straight to start the game, for 313 yards with two TDs and one interception. Tampa Bay took a 3-0 lead on the game's opening drive as K Matt Bryant connected on a 27-yard FG. Set up by a long flea-flicker, the Saints took the lead with 2:05 left in the first quarter when QB Drew Brees hit WR Terrance Copper for a four-yard score. The Buccaneers responded on their ensuing possession as McCown connected with WR Joey Galloway for 60 yards down to the Saints one-yard line. Two plays later, McCown hit TE Anthony Becht for a one-yard TD pass and a 10-7 lead. Tampa Bay extended its lead on its next possession as Bryant connected on a 31-yard FG with 7:52 remaining in the first half. New Orleans took a 14-13 lead into halftime when Brees hit WR Devery Henderson for a 45-yard TD pass on the ensuing possession. Following a Saints punt to start the second half, Tampa Bay went up 20-14 on a 25-yard TD run by RB Earnest Graham with 9:36 left in the third quarter. Tampa Bay advanced near midfield on its next possession, but CB Mike McKenzie picked off McCown and raced 53 yards for the Saints score and a 21-20 lead. With just under four minutes remaining in the contest, the Buccaneers began a drive inside their own five-yard line. On second down, McCown was sacked by DE Will Smith in the end zone for a safety and a 23-20 lead. After the free kick, New Orleans took possession at the Saints 49-yard line with 3:44 remaining. On the second play of the drive, RB Reggie Bush pitched errantly as New Orleans attempted a reverse and DT Jovan Haye recovered the fumble. Following three straight runs, Tampa Bay faced a fourth-and-one at the Saints 28-yard line. Bypassing the field goal attempt, Graham rushed for two yards and a first down. A 21-yard completion to Graham, followed by a one-yard run set up the Buccaneers at the Saints four-yard line for the game-winner.

Reliant Stadium (70,237)

HOUSTON – Visiting Houston for the first time during the regular season, Tampa Bay dropped its first regular season contest to the Texans, ending the Buccaneers four-game winning streak. Houston took its first possession 66 yards to go up 7-0 on a QB Sage Rosenfels to WR Andre Johnson four-yard touchdown pass with 3:59 remaining in the first quarter. On Houston's second possession, Buccaneers DE Greg White sacked and forced a Rosenfels fumble that Tampa Bay recovered at the Texans 25-yard line. Five plays later, RB Earnest Graham tied the game on a four-yard touchdown run. It marked Graham's fifth consecutive game with a touchdown, tying the team record for consecutive games with a score. Following a Texans punt on their next drive, Tampa Bay turned the ball over inside its own 30-yard line. The Texans took advantage and went up 14-7 as Rosenfels connected with WR Kevin Walter on an eight-yard touchdown pass. Houston extended its lead to 21-7 on the opening kickoff of the second half as WR Andre Davis raced 97 yards for a touchdown. Tampa Bay pulled back within seven just four plays later as Graham ran 11 yards for a touchdown. Houston threatened late in the third quarter, driving to the Buccaneers 34-yard line, but White registered his 2.5 sack of the day while forcing his second fumble. However, the Buccaneers were not able to capitalize on the turnover as they mishandled a snap three plays later to give the Texans possession. The Texans pushed their lead to 28-14 on the ensuing drive as Rosenfels found TE Owen Daniels in the back of the end zone on the first play of the fourth quarter. Tampa Bay would enter Houston territory twice in the fourth quarter, but could not cut into the Texans lead.

BUCS 37, FALCONS 3

Raymond James Stadium (65,133)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay earned its third NFC South division title in six seasons while recording its first ever kickoff return for a touchdown. Tampa Bay moved to 5-0 in its division for the first time since the 1979 season. Defensively, the Buccaneers limited Atlanta to 133 total yards while not permitting a third-down conversion the entire afternoon for just the second time in team history. The Falcons ran only 36 offensive plays, the fewest by a Buccaneers opponent in team history. Tampa Bay jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead when CB Ronde Barber picked off QB Chris Redman on the third play from scrimmage and raced 29 yards for the touchdown. The score marked Barber's 10th regular season touchdown on a fumble/interception return to tie him for the lead among active players. Following a Falcons field goal, WR Micheal Spurlock made Buccaneers history as he took the 1,865th kickoff return in Buccaneers history back 90 yards for a touchdown and a 14-3 Tampa Bay lead. Late in the second quarter, DE Gaines Adams sacked and forced a Redman fumble inside the Falcons 10-yard line. The Buccaneers took advantage three plays later as RB Earnest Graham plunged into the end zone from one-yard out. It marked Graham's sixth consecutive game with a touchdown, setting a team record. Following another Atlanta fumble in its own territory, Bryant booted a 28-yard field goal on the last play of the first half to give Tampa Bay a 27-3 advantage. On Atlanta's first possession of the second half, S Jermaine Phillips picked off Redman in Falcons territory, setting up Bryant from 34 yards and a 30-3 lead. Set up by seven consecutive runs by RB Michael Bennett, Tampa Bay added to its lead with 7:42 remaining in the contest as QB Jeff Garcia found TE Anthony Becht for a one-yard touchdown pass.

SAN FRANCISCO – With its spot in the playoffs secure, Tampa Bay came up short in San Francisco while relying mostly on its reserves. The Buccaneers still held a 434-213 advantage in total yards and racked up 20 first downs, while their 367 passing yards were the fifth highest single-game effort in team history. Tampa Bay had a chance to tie the game following a QB Luke McCown touchdown pass with 1:20 remaining, but the two-point conversion attempt failed and the Buccaneers could not recover the ensuing onside kick. The Buccaneers held a 6-0 advantage after the first quarter on two K Matt Bryant field goals, but San Francisco took the lead on the first play of the second quarter as QB Shaun Hill hit WR Darrell Jackson for a 21-yard score. Late in the first half, S Jermaine Phillips forced a 49ers fumble that LB Barrett Ruud recovered inside San Francisco territory. Four plays later, with 3:49 remaining in the second quarter, QB Jeff Garcia hit TE Jerramy Stevens on a 24-yard touchdown pass for a 13-7 Buccaneers lead. On Tampa Bay's first drive of the second half, McCown fumbled in Buccaneers territory and the 49ers capitalized to take a 14-13 lead on a Hill to TE Vernon Davis five-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay drove into San Francisco territory early in the fourth quarter, but McCown was picked off by CB Nate Clements, who returned it 62 yards to the Buccaneers 23-yard line. On the next play, the 49ers extended their lead to 21-13 as Hill hit RB Frank Gore for a 23-yard score. McCown's late 24-yard touchdown pass to Stevens brought the Buccaneers within two, but the two-point conversion attempt failed when WR Michael Clayton caught the ball just out of the back of the end zone.

PANTHERS 31, BUCS 23

Raymond James Stadium (65,609)

TAMPA – For the second consecutive week, Tampa Bay relied heavily on its reserves as it closed out the 2007 regular season. The visiting Panthers handed the Buccaneers their first loss to an NFC South opponent on the season as Tampa Bay finished the season 5-1 in the NFC South for the second time in the division's six-year history. Following a 52-yard completion to WR Chad Lucas, QB Luke McCown hit TE Jerramy Stevens for a three-yard score and a 7-0 lead on the first drive of the game. The Panthers tied the score on a QB Matt Moore to TE Christian Fauria two-yard touchdown pass on the ensuing drive. Set up by a CB Phillip Buchanon interception early in the second quarter, K Matt Bryant put the Buccaneers up 10-7 on a 31-yard field goal. Carolina again responded as Moore hit TE Dante Rosario for a 20-yard scoring pass and a 14-10 lead. Forced to punt on its next possession, Tampa Bay caused a WR Ryne Robinson fumble on the punt return, which S Will Allen recovered at the Panthers 17-yard line. Another Bryant field goal five plays later trimmed the Carolina lead to 14-13 with 2:34 remaining in the first half. Robinson returned the ensuing kickoff 60 yards, setting up a K John Kasay 19-yard field goal just before the half. The Buccaneers regained the lead on their first possession of the second half when McCown hit RB Michael Bennett for a 23-yard touchdown pass. The scoring drive, which began at the Buccaneers two-yard line, covered 98 yards and was the longest in Buccaneers history. Carolina regained the lead at 24-20 on its next possession when RB DeAngelo Williams plunged in from one yard out. Early in the fourth quarter, Bryant connected from 49 yards out to pull within one at 24-23. Carolina pushed its lead to 31-23 with 6:24 remaining in the contest on a Williams 32-yard touchdown run. The Buccaneers had two final drives to tie the game, but McCown was intercepted deep in Carolina territory and Tampa Bay turned the ball over on downs on its final possession.

NFC WILD CARD - GIANTS 24, BUCS 14

Raymond James Stadium (65,621)

TAMPA – Playing host to the New York Giants in an NFC Wild Card matchup, the Buccaneers 2007 season came to an end as the Giants advanced with a 24-14 victory. Tampa Bay started fast, taking a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a RB Earnest Graham one-yard touchdown run as the Buccaneers gained 78 first-quarter yards compared to the Giants minus-two yards. New York evened the score with 10:02 left in the first half as QB Eli Manning found RB Brandon Jacobs on a five-yard scoring pass. The Giants took the lead on their next possession as Jacobs scored on an eight-yard run, giving New York a 14-7 lead at halftime. Following a Buccaneers fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, the Giants tacked on a 25-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. Tampa Bay drove into Giants territory on its next possession, but QB Jeff Garcia was intercepted in the end zone. Following a Buccaneers punt that pinned the Giants at their own eight-yard line, New York drove 92 yards in 15 plays to take a 24-7 lead with 8:03 left in the game on a Manning to WR Amani Toomer four-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay pulled within 10 on the ensuing drive as Garcia connected with TE Alex Smith for a six-yard score with 3:25 left in the contest. The Buccaneers forced a punt on the Giants next possession and advanced near midfield, but Garcia was intercepted just after the two-minute warning to end the Buccaneers comeback attempt. LB Derrick Brooks played in his 11th postseason game, becoming the all-time leader in postseason games played in franchise history.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND COLORS (4/9) – The team unveils its eagerly anticipated new logo and color scheme at a noon downtown ceremony. The new logo, consisting of a red pirate flag with a skull and crossed swords, draws instant rave reviews. The team colors are Buccaneer red, pewter, black and orange.

STATE SUPREME COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF COUNTY, BUCS (5/22) – The Florida State Supreme Court refuses former Tampa Mayor Bill Poe's opposition to the stadium. In a 7-0 decision, the Court rules all aspects of the tax are constitutional.

BUCS START SEASON WITH FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINS (9/28) – The Buccaneers match the franchise record for most consecutive wins at the start of a season with five. After a 13-6 season-opening defeat of the San Francisco 49ers, the team rolls on to road victories at Detroit (9/7) and Minnesota (9/14) and home defeats of Miami (9/21) and Arizona (9/28).

MAYBERRY ATTAINS CONSECUTIVE STARTS RECORD (10/26) – C Tony Mayberry achieves one of the more remarkable achievements in team history by surpassing Dave Logan's streak of 103 consecutive games started in the team's 10/26 contest versus Minnesota.

CULPEPPER BECOMES FIRST TO BAG TRIFECTA TWICE IN SAME SEASON (11/9) – DT Brad Culpepper enters the team's sack race with a three-sack performance against Arizona (9/28) in a week-five contest, becoming just the fifth player in team history to do so. Little more than a month later, he becomes the first player in team annals to accomplish the feat twice in the same season with a trio of sacks at Atlanta.

BUCS SET SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE MARK (12/7) – After setting a new single-game attendance record earlier in the season on 9/21 against Miami (73,314), the Bucs eclipse that mark when 73,523 are in attendance for the team's 6-17 loss to the Green Bay Packers.

BUCS TIE FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS (12/21) – By virtue of their season-ending 31-15 downing of the Chicago Bears, the Bucs match the club record for most regular season victories in a season with 10, assuring themselves an NFC Wild Card berth.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME PLAYED IN TAMPA IN 15 YEARS (12/28) – The Buccaneers defeat the Detroit Lions 20-10 in front of a sellout crowd of 73,361 in the final game played at Houlihan's Stadium. The game is marked by outstanding individual performances, including FB Mike Alstott's playoff-record 31-yard touchdown run in which he barrels through a variety of Lions defenders.

NFL-HIGH EIGHT BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/1) – As further recognition of the team's dramatic rise in league prominence, a team-record and NFL-most eight Buc players are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Joining third-time selection LB Hardy Nickerson are first timers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry and DT Warren Sapp.

DUNGY RECEIVES NEW CONTRACT (3/11) – After tying the franchise record for victories in a season with 10, Head Coach Tony Dungy is rewarded by Owner Malcolm Glazer with a new five-year contract that essentially voids out his original contract.

SAPP SIGNS EXTENSION TO BECOME TEAM'S HIGHEST-PAID PLAYER (3/18) – Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp agrees to a six-year contract that makes him the wealthiest player in team history and one of the highest paid defensive tackles in the league.

EMANUEL LANDS IN TAMPA (4/14) – Less than a week after signing an offer sheet with the Buccaneers, Atlanta transitional free agent WR Bert Emanuel officially joins the team after the Falcons fail to match the Bucs' four-year offer.

MCKAY RECEIVES CONTRACT EXTENSION (4/30) – Owner Malcolm Glazer rewards General Manager Rich McKay with a new five-year contract extension for his efforts in assembling one of the league's most talent-rich rosters. McKay's new deal guarantees that he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

BUCS SELL OUT INAUGURAL RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM SEASON (8/2, 8/15) – For the first time in team history, the Buccaneers entire home schedule is sold out before the season begins. Though the Bucs will play seven straight road games (including pre-season) to open 1998, the entire sum of single-game tickets for the eight home games in Raymond James Stadium sells out on the first day of availability.

BUCS OPEN NEW ERA IN RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM WITH DRAMATIC VICTORY (9/20) – Raymond James Stadium, already known as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL', officially opens as the Buccaneers take on arch-rival Chicago. TE Dave Moore's acrobatic one-handed touchdown catch sparks a 27-point rally as Tampa Bay wins its Raymond James Stadium debut, 27-15.

TAMPA BAY OUTGUNS UNDEFEATED MINNESOTA IN RAYMOND JAMES SHOOTOUT (11/1) – The Buccaneers run their Raymond James Stadium record to 4-0 with an eye-opening, 27-24 upset of the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings' only regular-season loss of 1998 is powered by a Buccaneer-record 246 rushing yards, including the first dual-100-yard performance in team history by FB Mike Alstott (128 yards) and RB Warrick Dunn (115).

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL VICTORY IN 16 YEARS COMES AT EXPENSE OF PACKERS (12/7) – Having ended a 15-year hiatus from ABC's Monday Night Football earlier in the year at Detroit, Tampa Bay records its first MNF victory since 1982 with a 24-22 dismissal of Green Bay. QB Trent Dilfer completes 64 and 62-yard TD passes to WR Jacquez Green and WR Reidel Anthony and the Buccaneer defense records eight sacks and a team-record eight forced fumbles.

BUCS BLANK CINCY FOR FIRST ROAD SHUTOUT (12/27) – Tampa Bay records the third shutout in team history, the first since 1985 and the first on the road with a 35-0 dismantling of Cincinnati in the season finale. FB Mike Alstott ties a team-record with three touchdown runs as the Bucs open a 28-0 lead by halftime.

FIVE BUCS MAKE REPEAT PRO BOWL VISIT (2/7) – A five-some of Bucs, the second-largest contingent in team history, represents the NFC in the Pro Bowl; all five are repeat honorees from the team's NFL-high group of eight Pro Bowlers in 1998. LB Hardy Nickerson makes his fourth visit, tying TE Jimmie Giles for the second-most in team history, and DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, C Tony Mayberry and FB Mike Alstott all make their second trips.

BUCS COMPLETE UNDEFEATED PRESEASON (9/3) – Rookie QB Shaun King hits rookie WR Darnell McDonald on a three-yard TD pass with seven seconds left, lifting the Bucs to a 16-13 win over host Washington. The victory caps a 4-0 preseason campaign, the franchise's first in 16 years.

SACK ATTACK SMOTHERS EAGLES (9/19) – Tampa Bay's swarming defensive line racks up nine sacks in a 19-5 win at Philadelphia. DT Warren Sapp and DE Chidi Ahanotu each collect three sacks, while DE Marcus Jones bags two and DT Brad Culpepper adds one. The nine-sack effort falls one sack short of the team record of 10, set in 1979 at Baltimore.

GRAMATICA BOOTS ATLANTA (11/21) – Rookie K Martin Gramatica kicks four FGs, including a game-winning 53-yarder with 58 seconds remaining, to rally Tampa Bay to a 19-10 win over Atlanta at Raymond James Stadium. Gramatica had earlier nailed attempts from 24, 26 and 50 yards. He became the first Buccaneer kicker to boot two 50-plus-yard FGs in one game. The last time a rookie K booted a game-winning FG of that length was San Francisco's Steve Mike-Meyer, who nailed a 54-yarder against the Rams (11/9/75).

KING SHINES IN RELIEF ROLE (11/28) – Rookie QB Shaun King replaces an injured Trent Dilfer (clavicle) and escorts Tampa Bay to a 16-3 win at Seattle. The win marks the club's first in the Kingdom. King hits WR Jacquez Green for his first career completion, then later lofts a scoring toss to TE Patrick Hape, sealing Tampa Bay's fourth consecutive victory.

RECORD CROWD LIFTS BUCS TO MONDAY NIGHT WIN (12/6) – Tampa Bay beats Minnesota 24-17 before a then-record crowd of 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. The game marks the starting debut of rookie QB Shaun King, who throws two second-half TD passes. Tampa Bay's swarming defense forces four Viking turnovers, including a 55-yard INT return by CB Donnie Abraham on the third play of the game.

BUCS WIN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/12) – Tampa Bay rallies for two fourth-quarter TDs to defeat Detroit 23-16 at Raymond James Stadium. The win is the Bucs' sixth consecutive triumph, breaking the team mark of five consecutive victories (1979, 1997). In the process, Tampa Bay assumes sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division.

BUCS SET HOME WIN MARK AGAINST PACKERS (12/26) – Tampa Bay completes its 1999 home slate with a club-record 7-1 mark after a 29-10 triumph over Green Bay. FB Mike Alstott runs for two TDs in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Bucs' previous best home record was a 6-2 mark, set in 1984 and 1998. Tampa Bay also clinches its fifth-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS CLAIM FIRST NFC CENTRAL TITLE IN 18 YEARS (1/2) – The Bucs beat Chicago 20-6 at Soldier Field to claim their first NFC Central Division title since 1981. Tampa Bay also concludes the regular season with a franchise-record 11 wins. The Bucs rush for 143 yards and hold the potent Bears offense to two FGs. An estimated crowd of 5,000 greets the champs upon their arrival at One Buccaneer Place Sunday night.

FOUR BUCS EARN FIRST-TEAM-ALL-PRO HONORS (1/8) – Four Buccaneers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and DT Warren Sapp — earn first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Tampa Bay could claim five first team AP All-Pro selections in the franchise's first 23 seasons of existence. The Bucs tied the eventual Super Bowl champion Rams for most players on the 1999 squad.

SAPP NAMED AP NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/13) – DT Warren Sapp earns NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. In a poll of 50 media members, Sapp receives 19 votes, edging out Tennessee DE Jevon Kearse. Sapp is the first Buccaneer to win the award since Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon turned the trick in 1979. Sapp finished the regular season with 54 tackles and a career-best 12 1/2 sacks.

BUCS RALLY PAST REDSKINS IN DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (1/15) – Tampa Bay rallies for a 13-0 deficit to defeat the Washington Redskins 14-13 in an NFC divisional playoff game before a record crowd of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. QB Shaun King hits TE John Davis on a one-yard TD toss midway through the fourth quarter to give the Bucs their first and only lead. Tampa Bay's defense holds Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. The win propels the Bucs to their first NFC Championship Game in 20 years.

TAMPA BAY FALLS ONE WIN SHY OF SUPER BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Bay's valiant defensive effort falls short as the St. Louis Rams rally late for an 11-6 win in the NFC Championship Game at the Trans World Dome. The Bucs hold the high-powered Rams offense 22 points below their season average. St. Louis would capture Super Bowl XXXIV the following Sunday in Atlanta.

SIX BUCS HELP COACHING STAFF DEFEAT AFC IN PRO BOWL (2/6) – The NFC, led by Tony Dungy and the rest of the Buccaneers coaching staff, whips the AFC 51-31 in the highest-scoring Pro Bowl ever. Tampa Bay is represented by six players — FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and DT Warren Sapp. Alstott scores three TDs and Brooks returns a QB Mark Brunell INT for a score.

BUCS INK 11-TIME PRO BOWLER MCDANIEL (3/1) – The Bucs snag another former Vikings offensive lineman, signing perennial Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel to a three-year contract. McDaniel, who spent his previous 12 seasons in Minnesota, owns the NFL record for consecutive Pro Bowl starts with 11. He enters the 2000 season with 170 consecutive starts, second only to Tennessee's Bruce Matthews (197) among active players.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS WR JOHNSON (4/12) – The Bucs trade their two first-round picks (13th, 27th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. Tampa Bay then signs Johnson to an eight-year contract. Johnson's 305 catches over his first four NFL seasons trail only WR Marvin Harrison (Colts, 311, 1996-98) and WR Andre Rison (Falcons, 308, 1989-92) in league annals. The fifth-year pro can also boast 31 career scoring grabs.

BUCS RECORD LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY IN HOME OPENER (9/10) – Tampa Bay records the largest margin of victory in team history with a 41-0 win over Chicago in its home opener at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs defense extends their streak to 14 quarters against Chicago without allowing a touchdown, and limits the Bears just 165 total yards, including 49 passing, while forcing four turnovers.

BUCS KNOCK OFF UNDEFEATED VIKINGS (10/29) – The Bucs offense scores on each of its first four possessions as Tampa Bay snaps a four-game skid and ends Minnesota's 7-0 start at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay's 31 first-half points ties the club record for points in a half. For the first time in club history, Tampa Bay scores 40-plus points in a game twice in the same season.

SAPP SETS SINGLE-SEASON SACK RECORD (11/26) – DT Warren Sapp breaks DE Lee Roy Selmon's franchise record for sacks in a season with two — giving him 13.5 for the year — as Tampa Bay downs Buffalo 31-17 at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs' defense notches six sacks overall to surpass the club's single-season record of 44 in 1997.

DUNN LEADS CLUB-RECORD DAY ON THE GROUND (12/3) – Tampa Bay sets a club record with 250 yards rushing, including a career-high 210 by RB Warrick Dunn, on the way to a 27-7 victory over Dallas at Raymond James Stadium. Dunn's performance marks the second-best single-game effort in Bucs' history. K Martin Gramatica adds a 25-yard FG prior to halftime, tying the franchise record for consecutive field goals made with his 16th straight.

BUCS SET FRANCHISE MARK FOR POINTS SCORED (12/10) – S Damien Robinson intercepts Miami QB Jay Fiedler at the Bucs nine-yard line with 14 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay holds on for a 16-13 victory at rainy Pro Player Stadium. With the 16 points, Tampa Bay sets a club record for points in a season with 336, eclipsing the previous mark of 335 points in 1984. In addition, K Martin Gramatica breaks his own record for points in a season.

TAMPA BAY CLINCHES SECOND STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH (12/18) – RB Warrick Dunn scores his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallies for a 38-35 win over St. Louis before a national television audience on Monday Night Football. With the win at Raymond James Stadium, the Bucs clinch their second straight playoff berth and third in the last four seasons. Head coach Tony Dungy also becomes the winningest coach in franchise history with his 45th coaching victory.

BUCS HOST THIRD SUPER BOWL (1/28) – Baltimore defeats the N.Y. Giants, 34-7 as Tampa Bay plays host to Super Bowl XXXV at Raymond James Stadium.

LEAGUE-HIGH AND TEAM-RECORD NINE BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/4) – Tampa Bay boasts a league-high and team-record nine players in the 2001 Pro Bowl in Hawaii. The Bucs' contingent includes a club-record six starters, but the AFC posts a 38-17 victory.

BUCS GRAB BRAD JOHNSON IN FREE AGENCY (3/6) – Tampa Bay ventures into free agency and returns with the biggest name on the market in Washington Redskins QB Brad Johnson. Johnson, who ranks third all-time in completion percentage, signs a five-year contract.

RICE JOINS THREE OTHER FIRST-ROUNDERS ON DEFENSIVE LINE (3/23) – Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice signs a five-year contract with Tampa Bay, joining a defensive line that features three other former first-round draft picks. Rice, who established an Arizona franchise mark with 16.5 quarterback sacks in 1999, notched 51.5 career sacks with the Cardinals.

JOHN MCKAY DIES (6/10) – John McKay, the first coach in Buccaneers history, dies of kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. McKay coached Tampa Bay from 1976-1984, leading the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1979 NFC Championship Game.

BUCS SECOND GAME POSTPONED DUE TO TERRORIST ATTACKS (9/16) – Due to the terrorist attacks on America of September 11, the NFL postpones all of its games on September 16 and 17, including the Bucs' home contest against Philadelphia. The games are rescheduled for the first weekend in January, with the rest of the playoff schedule, including the Super Bowl, moving back one week. Due to an already-scheduled bye in Week Three, the Bucs have a bizarre, 21-day layoff between the first and second games of the season.

ALSTOTT LEADS ANOTHER HOME POUNDING OF THE VIKINGS (10/28) – Almost exactly one year after demolishing Minnesota, 41-13, in Raymond James Stadium on 10/29/00, the Bucs prove it was no fluke with a 41-14 decision over the Vikings on 10/28/01. FB Mike Alstott leads the runaway victory with 129 rushing yards, tying a team and personal record with three rushing touchdowns.

FIRST MNF ROAD VICTORY GIVES BUCS ANOTHER PRIME-TIME WIN OVER RAMS (11/26) – For the second time in two years, the Buccaneers defeat the St. Louis Rams on Monday Night Football, following up a 38-35 thriller in Tampa in 2000 with a 24-17 victory at St. Louis in 2001. The win, which stands as the first road win for the Bucs on Monday Night Football in team history, gives the Bucs a measure of revenge in the stadium that saw their run to the 1999 Super Bowl come to an end.

BUCS RECORD THIRD STRAIGHT ROAD WIN (12/2) – During yet another December surge, the Buccaneers defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 16-13 in overtime, when S John Lynch forces and recovers a fumble at the Bengals' three-yard line early in the extra period, setting up K Martin Gramatica's game-winning field goal. Following wins at Detroit and St. Louis, the victory over Cincinnati gives Tampa Bay three consecutive road wins for the first time in franchise history.

BUCS TIE SINGLE-GAME SCORING RECORD IN CRUCIAL WIN OVER NEW ORLEANS (12/23) – In a contest that would basically eliminate the loser from playoff contention and nearly guarantee the winner a postseason spot, the Buccaneers explode for 48 points in a blowout win over New Orleans. Taking a 30-0 halftime lead, the Bucs cruise to the 48-21 win, tying the team record for points scored in a single game (also against Atlanta, 9/13/97).

DUNGY DISMISSED (1/14) – The team announces that Head Coach Tony Dungy has been relieved of his coaching duties after six seasons. Dungy posted a 54-42 record at the helm and led the Buccaneers to the playoffs in four of his six campaigns.

GRUDEN INTRODUCED (2/20) – New Head Coach Jon Gruden is introduced at a press conference at a downtown hotel after becoming the seventh head coach in franchise history. Gruden, 38, spent four seasons (1998-2001) as head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

TAMPA BAY STARTS TRAINING CAMP AT DISNEY (7/29) – The Buccaneers begin their first season under new Head Coach Jon Gruden at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort. For the first time, Tampa Bay will conduct training camp at Disney after training at the University of Tampa since 1987. The Buccaneers are the first NFL team to conduct training camp at Disney's sports complex.

GRUDEN MAKES BUCCANEERS DEBUT (9/8) – Jon Gruden, the Buccaneers seventh head coach, makes his regular season debut at Raymond James Stadium in a 26-20 overtime loss to the New Orleans Saints. Tampa Bay trails 20-10 late in the fourth quarter when they post a frantic 10-point comeback to send the game into overtime. The Bucs are forced to punt deep in their own territory on their third possession of overtime. P Tom Tupa lines up to punt, but senses pressure and is forced to pull the ball down and attempt a pass. Saints LB James Allen intercepts the pass in the end zone, giving New Orleans the victory.

TAMPA BAY DEFENSE STIFLES ANOTHER ROAD OPPONENT (10/6) – For the third straight road contest, the Bucs defense does not allow a touchdown and posts an interception return for a score in a club-record fourth straight game en route to a 20-6 win over the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome. The defense ties a then season-high with four interceptions—all in the second half—and adds four sacks against the Falcons. LB Derrick Brooks becomes the first linebacker in NFL history with three interception returns for touchdowns in a single season.

RICE SETS NFL RECORD (12/1) – In a Week 13 contest at New Orleans, DE Simeon Rice sets an NFL single-season record by recording his fifth consecutive multi-sack game. His three-sack performance against the Saints highlights a five-game streak that began at Carolina on October 27, during which he totaled 11 sacks, 29 tackles, four forced fumbles and one pass defended.

BUCCANEERS CLAIM FIRST NFC SOUTH TITLE (12/22) – Tampa Bay and New Orleans enter their Week 16 contests with the Bucs holding a one-game advantage in the NFC South. New Orleans suffers a 20-13 loss at Cincinnati on Sunday, thereby giving the first NFC South Division title to Tampa Bay before the Buccaneers take the field the following night against Pittsburgh. The division title is the fourth in Buccaneers history.

GRAMATICA LEADS BUCS TO FRANCHISE-BEST 12TH VICTORY (12/29) – Tampa Bay closes out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win against the Chicago Bears in Champaign, IL. K Martin Gramatica kicks a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Bucs defense registers four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout. The win also marks the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers and is the first Tampa Bay victory in 22 tries when the thermometer reads below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay finishes 6-2 on the road; the most wins away from home in franchise history, and secures the No. 2 seed in the NFC playoffs.

BROOKS NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/8) – LB Derrick Brooks, the Bucs all-time leader in tackles, garners NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. As part of the league's top-ranked defense in 2002, Brooks led the team with 170 tackles and tied for fourth in the NFC with five interceptions. Brooks was also selected to a club-record sixth-consecutive Pro Bowl in 2002 (as was DT Warren Sapp). His four touchdowns on turnovers in 2002 tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history. He later adds another touchdown on an interception return in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS ADVANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME (1/12) – Tampa Bay qualifies for the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history by defeating San Francisco 31-6 at Raymond James Stadium in an NFC Divisional Playoff contest. Tampa Bay races to a 28-6 halftime lead, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the first half. The Bucs force five 49er turnovers and keep San Francisco out of the end zone for the first time in 50 games (including postseason).

BUCS CLAIM NFC TITLE (1/19) – Tampa Bay clinches its first NFC crown and Super Bowl berth with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs defense forces three Eagle turnovers en route to securing the club's first postseason road win in franchise history. CB Ronde Barber paces an outstanding defensive effort and secures the victory with a club-record 92-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

BUCS WIN SUPER BOWL XXXVII (1/26) – The Bucs defeat the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego behind a suffocating defense, setting Super Bowl records with five interceptions and three interception returns for touchdowns. It is the first NFL Championship in club history. At the age of 39, Jon Gruden becomes the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl. S Dexter Jackson is named the game's MVP as the Bucs' top-ranked defense stifles the Raiders and the league's number one ranked offense. Tampa Bay limits Oakland to just 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history, and finishes the game surrendering just 269 total yards and 11 first downs. RB Michael Pittman runs for a season-high 125 yards and WR Keenan McCardell scores two touchdowns. LB Derrick Brooks seals the victory with a late fourth quarter interception return for a touchdown and CB Dwight Smith sets a Super Bowl record by returning a pair of second-half interceptions for touchdowns.

WORLD CHAMPIONS PARADE THROUGH TAMPA (1/28) – Following their 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, the World Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers parade through downtown Tampa where more than 150,000 fans line the streets and crowd office buildings to celebrate the city's first major professional sports championship.

BUCS SIGN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR MONTE KIFFIN TO A NEW CONTRACT (1/30) – Tampa Bay signs Monte Kiffin, architect of the NFL's top-ranked defense, to a new, three-year contract. Kiffin, a head coaching candidate, is rewarded for designing the first defense since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense allowed just 196 points in 2002, the fifth-fewest in a single season in NFL history during a 16-game schedule.

SEVEN BUCS APPEAR ON PRO BOWL ROSTER (2/2) – Tampa Bay has seven players on the roster for the 2003 Pro Bowl in Hawaii: FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Brad Johnson, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. A total of six Buccaneers, all but Sapp due to an injury, see game action in the 45-20 AFC victory.

BUCS DEFEAT THE JETS IN THE 2003 AMERICAN BOWL IN TOKYO, JAPAN (8/2) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers opened the preseason with a 30-14 victory over the N.Y. Jets in the 2003 American Bowl in their first-ever international appearance at the Tokyo Dome. Tampa Bay, which played in the final game of the 2002 season in its victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII, joined the Jets in the first game of the 2003 preseason in Tokyo, Japan. Tampa Bay also conducted a pair of practices at the Tokyo Dome in preparation for the exhibition contest.

BUCS DEFEAT EAGLES IN 2003 REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/8) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers open up the regular season with a convincing 17-0 victory over Philadelphia in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. WR Joe Jurevicius caught a pair of second half touchdowns, including a spectacular fourth quarter scoring reception in which he deflected the ball over an Eagles defender, spun to his left and dove to haul in the improbable touchdown catch. Tampa Bay's defense limited the Eagles to just 245 total yards as Philadelphia suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998.

BUCS POST SECOND SHUTOUT OF THE SEASON (10/26) – Tampa Bay forces three turnovers and limits Dallas to 178 total yards of offense as the Bucs post their second shutout of the season, defeating the Dallas Cowboys 16-0 at Raymond James Stadium. The shutout marks the eighth in club history, including four over the past two seasons (2002 and 2003).

BUCS RECORD-SETTING SACK STREAK ENDS AT 69 (11/16) – Tampa Bay, which had recorded at least one sack in an NFL-record 69 consecutive games, is held sackless by the Green Bay Packers. It was the first time the Bucs defense had failed to register at least one sack since October 3, 1999 at Minnesota. During that 69-game streak, the Bucs defense also became the first unit to register at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 consecutive games since 1963.

ATLANTA FALCONS NAME RICH MCKAY PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER (12/15) – The Atlanta Falcons name Rich McKay President and General Manager. McKay spent the previous 12 seasons with Tampa Bay (1992-2003), including the past nine years (1995-2003) as the club's general manager. Under McKay, the Bucs made five playoff appearances, won two division titles and captured the club's first Super Bowl championship in 27 seasons with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

FOUR BUCS SELECTED TO THE PRO BOWL (12/18) – Tampa Bay has four players selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl: LB Derrick Brooks, WR Keenan McCardell, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. Brooks and Sapp are named to the Pro Bowl for the seventh consecutive time, eclipsing Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's club record of six total appearances and consecutive appearances at the annual All-Star game.

ALLEN NAMED THIRD GENERAL MANAGER IN CLUB HISTORY (1/9) – The Bucs name Bruce Allen the third general manager in club history. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS NAME DOUG WILLIAMS PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE (2/12) – The Bucs reclaim one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team. Williams, who spent the last six seasons (1998-2003) as head coach of his alma mater at Grambling State University, compiled a 52-18 record and led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles (2000-2002). A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams dought the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.

BUCS UNVEIL PLANS FOR NEW TRAINING FACILITY (3/17) – The Bucs unveil plans for their new, 145,000 square foot state-of-the-art training facility, promising a "world class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport. The new facility will be ready prior to the 2006 season.

BUCS ACQUIRE WR JOEY GALLOWAY (3/19) – The Bucs acquire WR Joey Galloway from the Dallas Cowboys for WR Keyshawn Johnson.

HURRICANE CHARLEY FORCES BUCS TO RESCHEDULE PRESEASON GAME (8/14) – Because of the threat of Hurricane Charley, the Buccaneers reschedule their August 14 preseason contest against the Cincinnati Bengals for Monday, August 16. The Bucs organize a program to collect monetary donations at the contest that will be directed to appropriate Hurricane Charley relief efforts.

DERRICK BROOKS AND THE BUCS COLLABORATE TO HELP HURRICANE IVAN VICTIMS (9/18) – Derrick Brooks Charities and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers organize a program to collect monetary donations prior to the game between Tampa Bay and Seattle at Raymond James Stadium on September 19. In addition, Derrick Brooks Charities donates $1000 for each tackle Derrick makes against the Seahawks. All funds collected are directed to appropriate Hurricane Ivan relief efforts in Brooks' hometown of Pensacola, Florida.

BROWN RECORDS 100TH CAREER TOUCHDOWN RECEPTION AGAINST FORMER TEAM (9/26) – In a rematch of Super Bowl XXXVII, Buccaneers WR Tim Brown returns to Oakland to haul in his 100th career touchdown reception, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, with a 16-yard score in the fourth quarter.

BUCS EARN LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY SINCE 2000 SEASON (11/21) – Tampa Bay defeats the San Francisco 49ers 35-3 at Raymond James Stadium to post its largest margin of victory since the 2000 season. The Bucs defense limits the 49ers to 26 total yards and two first downs in the first half and finishes the contest surrendering just 197 total yards, while forcing five sacks and two turnovers. The offense is equally impressive, racking up 352 yards as RB Michael Pittman rushes for 106 yards on 21 carries with two touchdowns.

CLAYTON SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORD (11/28) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton hauls in eight receptions for 77 yards in the Week 11 contest at Carolina to move into first place all-time in team history for most receiving yards by a rookie in a season. Through 11 contests in 2004, Clayton posts 60 receptions for 828 yards, surpassing WR Lawrence Dawsey's 818 yards as a rookie in 1991.

RICE RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK AS BUCS POST NINTH SHUTOUT IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (12/5) – Tampa Bay records the ninth shutout in franchise history with a 27-0 victory over the Atlanta Falcons at Raymond James Stadium. Buccaneers DE Simeon Rice records the 100th and 101st sacks of his career, becoming just the 22nd player in league history and only the second active player to reach the 100-sack plateau. The Buccaneers defense records five sacks and forces five turnovers, intercepting QB Michael Vick twice and forcing two fumbles by the Falcons signal caller.

TWO BUCS EARN PRO BOWL HONORS (12/22) – The NFL announces that two Buccaneers, LB Derrick Brooks and CB Ronde Barber, have been selected to the 2005 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Brooks, who was selected for the eighth time to the Pro Bowl, becomes the franchise's all-time leader in Pro Bowl appearances, breaking a tie with former teammate DT Warren Sapp. Brooks' eight consecutive Pro Bowl appearances (1997-04) also establish a new team record. Barber is named to his second career Pro Bowl after making his first appearance in 2001.

BUCS CLAYTON SETS ROOKIE TOUCHDOWN RECORD (12/26) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton catches a career-high two touchdowns against the Carolina Panthers at Raymond James Stadium, moving him into first place for most touchdown receptions by a rookie in franchise history. His six touchdown receptions on the season surpass the previous rookie record of five touchdown catches by WR Kevin House in 1980.

BUCS SELECT CARNELL "CADILLAC" WILLIAMS WITH FIFTH PICK IN NFL DRAFT (4/23) – The Buccaneers draft Auburn RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams with their first selection (fifth overall) in the 2005 NFL Draft. The selection of Williams marks the fourth time in team history that Tampa Bay has drafted a running back in the first round and the first time since 1997 (Warrick Dunn – 12th overall).

WILLIAMS SETS NFL RECORD FOR MOST RUSHING YARDS IN FIRST THREE GAMES (9/25) – In his first three games, Bucs rookie RB Carnell “Cadillac” Williams totals an NFL-record 434 rushing yards, becoming the first running back to begin his career with three consecutive 100-yard performances. Following his record-breaking performance, Williams’ shoes and gloves are displayed at the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

BARBER MATCHES OWN CLUB RECORD WITH THREE INTERCEPTIONS (12/4) – CB Ronde Barber records a career-high tying three interceptions against the New Orleans Saints in Baton Rouge, LA to tie his own club record. His previous three interception performance also came against the Saints in 2001. Barber goes on to finish the season with five picks to lead the Buccaneers and tie for seventh in the NFC.

BARBER BECOMES MEMBER OF EXCLUSIVE 20/20 CLUB (12/11) – CB Ronde Barber records the 20th sack of his career at Carolina to join the 20 sack/20 interception club. He becomes the first cornerback in NFL history and just the seventh player all time to accomplish the feat.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/21) – The NFL announces that three Buccaneers, CB Ronde Barber, P Josh Bidwell and LB Derrick Brooks, have been selected to the 2006 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It marks Brooks’ ninth consecutive selection to the all-star game, a team record for total and most consecutive appearances. Barber will make his third career appearance and second consecutive while Bidwell will play in his first career Pro Bowl.

BUCCAANEERS NOTCH 100TH OVERALL WIN UNDER GLAZER LEADERSHIP (12/24) – In one of the most thrilling games in team history, the Buccaneers notch their 100th overall win since being purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. The contest, against the division rival Atlanta Falcons, features four separate occasions in which the score is tied and five lead changes. The epic battle is prolonged when Bucs running back Cadillac Williams scores from six yards out on a fourth down run with 31 seconds remaining in regulation that forces overtime. In the extra period, the Buccaneers block a potential game-winning Atlanta field goal before successfully connecting on a 41-yard attempt of their own with only 54 seconds remaining in overtime. The milestone win emphasizes a reversal of fortunes for the Buccaneers, who prior to being purchased by Mr. Glazer, won just 87 games in 19 seasons.

BUCS CLAIM SECOND NFC SOUTH CROWN IN FOUR YEARS (1/1) – Tampa Bay defeats the New Orleans Saints 27-13 in the final game of the regular season to earn its second NFC South division title in four seasons. Tampa Bay and the rival Carolina Panthers finish the regular season with identical 11-5 records, but the Buccaneers claim the NFC South by virtue of a better divisional record. The division title is the fifth in Buccaneers history.

GALLOWAY SETS NEW FRANCHISE MARK FOR TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS (1/1) – WR Joey Galloway records two touchdown receptions in the season finale against the New Orleans Saints, giving him 10 on the season to establish a new franchise record. Galloway’s 10 touchdown receptions best the previous high of nine, held by WR Kevin House (1981), WR Bruce Hill (1988) and WR Mark Carrier (1989).

WILLIAMS SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECORD FOR RUSHING YARDS IN A SEASON (1/1) – RB Carnell “Cadillac” Williams finishes the season with 1,178 rushing yards to set a Buccaneers rookie record. His impressive rookie performance includes a team-record six 100-yard rushing games and three of the top 10 single-game rushing performances in team history.

BUCCAANEERS DEFENSE FINISHES THE SEASON AS THE TOP-RANKED UNIT IN THE NFL (1/1) – Tampa Bay’s defense finishes the season ranked No. 1 in total defense for the third time (1979, 2002 and 2005) in team history. The 2005 season also marks the ninth consecutive year (1997-2005) the Buccaneers ranked in the Top 10 in total defense, the longest active streak in the league and tied for the second-longest streak since 1970.

WILLIAMS NAMED NFL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR (2/2) – RB Carnell “Cadillac” Williams beats out LB Shawne Merriman of the San Diego Chargers, LB Lofa Tatupu of the Seattle Seahawks, LB Odell Thurman of the Cincinnati Bengals and LB Demarcus Ware of the Dallas Cowboys for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year honors. Williams is selected by fans on NFL.com as more than one million votes are cast during the regular season and playoffs for NFL Rookie of the Week and Rookie of the Year honors.

BROOKS NAMED 2006 PRO BOWL PLAYER OF THE GAME (2/12) – Making his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, LB Derrick Brooks earns Player of the Game honors after returning an interception 59 yards for a touchdown to catapult the NFC to a 23-17 victory over the AFC in the 2006 Pro Bowl.

BUCCAANEERS PLAYERS AND COACHES BEGIN WORK AT NEW HEADQUARTERS (8/21) – Arriving immediately after the conclusion of training camp in Central Florida, Buccaneers players and coaches move into the team’s new 145,155-square-foot headquarters. Unmatched in grandeur by any other professional sports headquarters, the new base of operations spans more than 14 acres and provides the team with unparalleled resources of the highest quality. Some of those include a 16,000-square-foot weight room, technically advanced meeting rooms, three practice fields, a grand auditorium, high-tech coaches’ studios with instant access to game film, a video-editing suite and a state-of-the-art training and rehabilitation area.

BARBER RETURNS TWO INTERCEPTIONS FOR TOUCHDOWNS IN SAME GAME (10/22) – Facing a Philadelphia Eagles team he had tormented in the past, CB Ronde Barber propels the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a 23-21 victory by twice picking off QB Donovan McNabb, returning each interception for a touchdown. Barber’s two TD returns mark the first time in franchise history that a player accomplishes such a feat in a regular season game. His two scores also make Barber the first player in team history to score two defensive touchdowns of any kind in a regular season game.

BRYANT KICKS HIS WAY INTO RECORD BOOKS (10/22) – With the Buccaneers trailing the Philadelphia Eagles 21-20 with only four seconds remaining in the game, K Matt Bryant produces a last-second miracle, kicking a 62-yard field goal to give the Bucs a 23-21 victory. Bryant’s kick is the second-longest walk-off field goal in NFL history and the third-longest overall field goal in league annals. The previous long for the Buccaneers franchise was 57 yards by Michael Husted (12/19/93).

BROOKS MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE IN TEAM HISTORY FOR GAMES PLAYED (11/5) – In front of a home crowd and against the New Orleans Saints, perennial Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks plays in his 184th career game, moving into first place in Buccaneers' history for games played. The veteran defender shows no signs of slowing down as he finishes the contest with a team-leading and season-high 15 tackles, including two for a loss. Brooks finishes the season with 192 consecutive games played and 176 straight starts to lead all active Bucs players in both categories. He also ranks first in team history with 189 total starts.

ROOKIE QB GRADKOWSKI MAKES HISTORY WITH INTERCEPTION-FREE STREAK (11/5) – After a game against the New Orleans Saints in which he completes 18 of 31 passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns, Tampa Bay Buccaneers rookie QB Bruce Gradkowski runs his mark of pass attempts to 186 with only one interception. That number stands as a record for most attempts in NFL history by a quarterback before throwing a second interception. A week prior against the New York Giants, Gradkowski became just the third quarterback in league history to throw only one interception in his first 150 pass attempts.

BARBER MOVES INTO TIE FOR MOST INTERCEPTIONS IN TEAM HISTORY (11/13) – With his third interception of the season, this time against Carolina Panthers QB Jake Delhomme, CB Ronde Barber notches his 31st career interception. That total places him in a tie for most interceptions by a Buccaneers player in team history with CB Donnie Abraham, who played for Tampa Bay from 1996-2001. Barber's historic pick comes in front of a Monday Night Football audience with 1:09 remaining in the second quarter of the contest.

BUCCANEERS PLAY IN THANKSGIVING GAME FOR FIRST TIME IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (11/23) – For the first time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, the Buccaneers participate in one of the NFL's nationally televised Thanksgiving Day games, squaring off against the Dallas Cowboys. The contest is the third game in an 11-day stretch for the Buccaneers, marking only the fourth time since 1978 that a team has played three games in 11 days, with two of the contests on the road.

BUCCANEERS WELCOME BACK PAST PLAYERS FOR TEAM'S FIRST ALUMNI WEEKEND (12/8) – Approximately 120 former players representing a little over three decades of Buccaneers football are honored when the franchise holds its first Alumni Weekend. During the three-day celebration, former Bucs players who have given the franchise at least one full season of service watch practice, tour the team's new facility, participate in a golf event and attend a dinner party and gala at Raymond James Stadium. The weekend's activities culminate in a halftime tribute during a game against Atlanta in which the players take the field and are recognized by Buccaneers fans.

GLAZER FAMILY REACHES 100TH REGULAR SEASON WIN (12/24) – A 22-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the penultimate game of the season marks the 100th regular season victory for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers since it was purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. Under the ownership of Mr. Glazer and his family, the club has posted a .521 winning percentage and captured its first Super Bowl championship. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers won just 87 games in 19 seasons, posting a .300 winning percentage.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/19) – For the third consecutive season and fourth overall, CB Ronde Barber earns Pro Bowl honors after leading the Buccaneers with three interceptions and 20 passes defended to go along with his 108 tackles. Barber is later joined by Bucs TE/LS Dave Moore, who is selected as a "need player" by the NFC, and LB Derrick Brooks, who initially was chosen as first alternate at the outside linebacker position. For Moore, the selection represents the first of his career and first for a Bucs tight end since Jimmie Giles was selected in 1985. Moore is the first Buccaneers player to be chosen to the Pro Bowl as a long-snapper and just the third special teams performer to earn the invitation. Brooks is added to the NFC's roster when Chicago LB Lance Briggs pulls out of the game. His selection marks his 10th consecutive and 10th overall Pro Bowl selection – both team records.

GALLOWAY REACHES 1,000 YARDS FOR SECOND STRAIGHT SEASON (12/31) – For only the second time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, a Buccaneers receiver gains at least 1,000 receiving yards in two straight seasons when Joey Galloway reaches that mark against the Seattle Seahawks. Galloway finishes the season with a team-high 1,057 yards after logging 1,287 yards in 2005, also a club-high. Prior to Galloway's two consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, only Keyshawn Johnson achieved that feat, posting 1,266 yards in 2001 and 1,088 yards the following year.

BUCS SELECT GAINES ADAMS WITH FOURTH PICK IN NFL DRAFT (4/28) – The Buccaneers draft Clemson DE Gaines Adams with their first selection (fourth overall) in the 2007 NFL Draft. The selection of Adams marks the first time since 1999 that the Buccaneers use their first-round selection on a defensive player. It is also the highest pick Tampa Bay has used on a defensive player since 1990.

BUCS UNVEIL THE LARGEST FLYING NON-US FLAG IN THE NATION (9/6) – The Buccaneers raise their new team flag, which measures over 4,000 square feet, at One Buccaneer Place following the afternoon practice. Buccaneers players and staff watch the flag ascend the 147.5-ft. pole on the west side of the team's headquarters as the team readies for its season-opening game in Seattle. At 80'x50' the flag is the largest flying non-US flag in the nation.

GALLOWAY SURPASSES 10,000 RECEIVING YARDS (10/21) – With his 46-yard receiving performance at Detroit, WR Joey Galloway surpasses 10,000 career receiving yards. He becomes the eighth active player and just the 28th player in NFL history to reach the 10,000-yard plateau.

GARCIA SETS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS RECORD (10/21) – Facing his former team, QB Jeff Garcia completes a single game team-record 18 consecutive completions against the Detroit Lions. Garcia has one of his best outings of the season, completing 37-of-45 passes for 316 yards and two touchdowns against the Lions.

GARCIA CONSECUTIVE ATTEMPTS WITHOUT AN INTERCEPTION STREAK ENDS AT 197 (10/28) – QB Jeff Garcia begins his career as a Buccaneer by attempting 197 consecutive passes without throwing an interception, besting the previous team record by Brad Johnson, who went 187 consecutive attempts without a pick from 2001-2002. Dating back to the 2006 season, Garcia went 217 attempts without an interception in the regular season, the sixth-longest streak since 2001.

BARBER BECOMES BUCCANEERS ALL-TIME INTERCEPTION LEADER (11/25) – CB Ronde Barber intercepts his 32nd career pass to move into first place on the team's career interception list. Barber's record-setting pick comes off QB Jason Campbell late in the fourth quarter to help Tampa Bay preserve a 19-13 victory over the Washington Redskins.

CARTER RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK (11/25) – In his first season with the Buccaneers, DE Kevin Carter posts the 100th sack of his career, dropping QB Jason Campbell in a win against the Redskins. Carter becomes the 24th player in NFL history to reach the 100-sack plateau.

BUCS EARN THIRD NFC SOUTH TITLE IN SIX SEASONS (12/16) – Tampa Bay defeats the Atlanta Falcons 37-3 in Week 15 to earn its third NFC South division title in six seasons. Tampa Bay moves to 5-0 in its division for the first time since 1979 while clinching the sixth division title in team history and fourth since the Glazer family took over in 1995.

BUCS POST FIRST-EVER KICKOFF RETURN FOR A TOUCHDOWN (12/16) – It took 1,865 kickoff returns, but WR Micheal Spurlock records the first kickoff return for a touchdown in team history on his 90-yard return against the Atlanta Falcons. He is one of 140 players to have returned a kickoff for the Buccaneers. The historic return helps propel the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

GRAHAM SETS TEAM RECORD WITH SCORE IN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/16) – RB Earnest Graham, who began the year as a backup running back, scores a touchdown in his sixth consecutive game to set a new team record for most consecutive games with a touchdown. Graham's touchdown is his team-leading 10th of the year as he finishes the game against Atlanta with 22 carries for 79 yards and one touchdown.

GALLOWAY POSTS THIRD CONSECUTIVE 1,000-YARD SEASON (12/23) – With a 29-yard reception in the second quarter at San Francisco, WR Joey Galloway becomes the first player in team history to record three consecutive and three overall 1,000-yard receiving seasons while also marking the first time in his 13-year career Galloway accomplished the feat. It goes down as the sixth 1,000-yard campaign of his career.

BROOKS BECOMES TEAM'S ALL-TIME LEADER IN PLAYOFF APPEARANCES, STARTS (1/6) – With his start in the NFC Wild Card matchup against the New York Giants, LB Derrick Brooks becomes the Bucs all-time leader in playoff games played (11) and started (11). Brooks, who already holds the franchise record for most career regular season games and starts, surpasses former teammates FB Mike Alstott and LB Shelton Quarles, who each played in 10 career postseason contests.

ALSTOTT ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT (1/24) – Arguably the most popular player in team history, FB Mike Alstott retires after a 12-year career. A second-round selection (35th overall) in the 1996 draft, Alstott ends his career as the club record holder in touchdowns (71), rushing touchdowns (58) and Pro Bowl appearances by an offensive player (six). His 432 points ranks third in Buccaneer history and he is the only non-kicker in club annals to surpass the 400-point plateau. During his career, Alstott amassed 1,359 rushing attempts for 5,088 yards (both second in team history) and caught 305 passes (third in team history) for 2,284 yards. Alstott played in 158 career regular season games as a Buccaneer, seventh-most in team history, with 137 starts, fifth-most in team history, and 10 playoff games (tied for second in team history) with seven starts, including starting at fullback in the Buccaneers' 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

GARCIA EARNS PRO BOWL SELECTION (1/24) – QB Jeff Garcia is added to the NFC squad for the 2008 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, becoming the lone selection in the annual all-star event for the Buccaneers. Garcia, the NFC's first alternate at quarterback, replaces Green Bay Packers QB Brett Favre. His appearance is the fourth of his career and first as a Buccaneer. It marks just the third time in Buccaneers history that a quarterback has been named to the Pro Bowl, joining Trent Dilfer (1997) and Brad Johnson (2002). Garcia finished the season as the NFL's seventh-rated passer (94.6) and ranked second in the league with a team-record 1.2 interception percentage.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

Two separate awards are presented each year to the team member chosen as the Bucs' Most Valuable Player. The St. Petersburg Times' award is determined by a vote of writers who regularly cover the team. The Tampa Sports Club, a cross section of the Tampa sports community, votes for its award. The Newspaper Enterprise Association no longer conducts a poll which was won in 1977 and 1979 by Lee Roy Selmon, in 1976 by Dave Pear and in 1978 by David Lewis.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award is given to a player on each NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, dedication and performance as a community role model. This national award is named after the former Baltimore Colts' trainer who was a tireless worker for victims of abuse, violence, neglect and families in crisis.

BUCCANEERS IN OVERTIME

September 9, 1979 – Tampa Bay 29, at Baltimore 26:

Colts win the toss. On Baltimore's third play from scrimmage, Buccaneer DE Randy Crowder sacks Colt QB Greg Landry, forcing a fumble that is recovered by DT Bill Kollar at the opposition's 14-yard line. PK Neil O'Donoghue kicks a 31-yard field goal on the next play to win the game at 1:41 of OT.

October 12, 1980 – at Tampa Bay 14, Green Bay 14:

Packers win the toss. After the two teams exchange a pair of punts, Green Bay QB Lynn Dickey continues the most prolific passing day ever by a Buccaneer opponent (418 yards), guiding the Packers into Tampa Bay territory in the final minute of overtime. A 21-yard completion to WR Aundra Thompson helps Green Bay reach the Bucs' 18-yard line, but a 36-yard field goal attempt by PK Tom Birne sails wide right as time expires, resulting in the NFL's first tie since 1978.

January 2, 1983 – at Tampa Bay 26, Chicago 23:

Bears win the toss. Chicago takes possession on its own 20 but gains just five yards as QB Jim McMahon is nearly sacked on successive plays. After a 35-yard punt, the Bucs take over on their own 40-yard line. RB James Wilder takes a pitch around the right end on the Bucs' first play and runs 47 yards to the Chicago 13. Two plays later, PK Bill Capece hits a 33-yard field goal at 3:14 of OT to send the Bucs into the playoffs.

September 18, 1983 – Minnesota 19, at Tampa Bay 16:

Vikings win the toss. The Buccaneers force a Minnesota punt and take over on their own 47-yard line. QB Jack Thompson produces three first downs and leads the Bucs down to the Vikings' 15-yard line, but PK Bill Capece misses a 33-yard field goal. Minnesota RB Ricky Young turns a short pass into a 48-yard gain to the Buccaneer 27-yard line, setting up a 42-yard game-winning field goal by PK Benny Ricardo at 5:33 of OT.

October 9, 1983 – at Dallas 27, Tampa Bay 24:

Cowboys win the toss. Dallas takes over on its own 10-yard line after the kickoff and reaches Buccaneer territory with a 46-yard pass from QB Danny White to RB Ron Springs. RB Tony Dorsett's 12-yard jaunt around end sets up a 50-yard field goal try by PK Rafael Septien. Septien's attempt falls short, but a roughing the kicker penalty sets up another try by the Cowboy kicker and he converts from 42 yards out at 4:38 of OT.

December 12, 1983 – Green Bay 12, at Tampa Bay 9:

Packers win the toss. Green Bay keeps the ball on the ground in the opening drive with RBs Jessie Clark and Harlan Huckleby running for 43 of the 65 yards gained on the possession. A 20-yard sweep by Huckleby down to Tampa Bay's seven-yard line sets up a game-winning chip of 23 yards by PK Jan Stenerud at 4:07 of OT.

September 30, 1984 – at Tampa Bay 30, Green Bay 27:

Packers win the toss. After the teams trade punts, Green Bay begins at its own 27-yard line but is again forced to punt after three plays. A 16-yard Steve DeBerg pass to FB Adger Armstrong brings the Bucs down to the Packers' 17-yard line and, despite consecutive holding penalties, PK Obed Ariari connects on a 48-yard field goal at 10:38 of OT.

October 14, 1984 – at Detroit 13, Tampa Bay 7:

Buccaneers win the toss. QB Steve DeBerg leads Tampa Bay into Detroit territory with completions of 10, 19 and 14 yards, but RB James Wilder fumbles at the Lions' 41-yard line (recovered by William Gay). On Detroit's fifth play, QB Gary Danielson hits WR Leonard Thompson in stride for a 37-yard TD at 4:34 of OT.

November 24, 1985 – Tampa Bay 19, Detroit 16:

Lions win the toss. After forcing two three-and-out series by Detroit, Tampa Bay takes over at its own 38-yard line. After opening the drive with a 19-yard Steve Young completion, the Bucs run on nine straight plays, driving to the Detroit eight to set up a 24-yard field goal by Donald Igwebuikwe at 12:31 of OT.

September 28, 1986 – at Atlanta 23, Tampa Bay 20:

Falcons win the toss. Neither team advances with its first possession, but the Falcons put together a 52-yard drive after taking a Buccaneer punt at their own 33-yard line, keyed by a 22-yard scamper by RB Cliff Austin on a draw play. PK Mick Luckhurst converts on a 34-yard field goal attempt to win the game at 12:35 of OT.

October 5, 1986 – at L.A. Rams 26, Tampa Bay 20:

Rams win the toss. The Bucs lose their second overtime game in as many weeks on L.A.'s first possession as RB Eric Dickerson breaks a 42-yard touch-down run up the middle at 2:16 of OT.

December 11, 1988 – at New England 10, Tampa Bay 7:

Buccaneers win the toss but elect to kick. Patriot QB Tony Eason opens New England's first possession with a 21-yard completion to WR Irving Fryar and follows three plays later with a 26-yard hookup with Fryar. Two short runs by FB John Stephens set up a 27-yard field goal by PK Jason Staurovsky at 3:08 of OT.

September 30, 1990 – Tampa Bay 23, at Minnesota 20:

Vikings win the toss. Minnesota drives to the Buccaneer 31, but former Buc PK Donald Igwebuikwe's 48-yard field goal try is wide left. After a Tampa Bay punt, CB Wayne Haddix picks off QB Rich Gannon's pass on the Vikings' next play and returns it to the Minnesota 26-yard line. RB Reggie Cobb runs up the middle for six yards to position the Bucs for a successful 36-yard field goal by PK Steve Christie at 9:11 of OT.

November 27, 1994 – Tampa Bay 20, at Minnesota 17:

Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay's initial drive opens with a 16-yard reception by WR Courtney Hawkins but stalls at the Vikings' 49-yard line. P Dan Stryzinski's punt is fielded at Minnesota's 18, but is nullified by a penalty. On the re-kick, Viking WR Eric Gullford muffs the punt at Minnesota's four-yard line where it is recovered by long-snapper Ed Brady. PK Michael Husted wins the game with a 22-yard field goal on the next play which came at 2:08 of OT.

October 15, 1995 – at Tampa Bay 20, Minnesota 17:

Buccaneers win the toss. Minnesota forces a Tampa Bay punt and takes over on its own 48. QB Warren Moon drives the Vikings to the Buccaneer 35-yard line, but PK Fuad Reveiz misses a 53-yard field goal attempt. The Bucs' ensuing possession nearly ends on a fumble by TE Jackie Harris, but WR Lawrence Dawsey strips Viking S Orlando Thomas during the return and G Ian Beckles falls on the loose ball at the Viking 45. A 15-yard Trent Diller-to-Alvin Harper pass then positions the Bucs for PK Michael Husted's game-winning 51-yard field goal at 8:37 of OT.

December 10, 1995 – at Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10:

Buccaneers win the toss. Trent Diller passes to TE Jackie Harris for nine yards and WR Horace Copeland for 23 yards, plus an eight-yard scamper by RB Errict Rhett moves Tampa Bay into Packers territory. Rhett is stopped for a loss of one on a third-and-one attempt from Green Bay's 28-yard line, but PK Michael Husted kicks a 47-yard game-winning field goal on the next play at 11:14 of OT.

November 10, 1996 – at Tampa Bay 20, Oakland 17:

Buccaneers win the toss. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Buc defense forces a Raider three-and-out and the home team gets the ball back at its own 39. Two big-gainers by rookie FB Mike Alstott, a 20-yard reception of a QB Trent Diller pass and a 10-yard run up the middle, position Tampa Bay at the Oakland five, from where PK Michael Husted kicks the game-winner, a 23-yarder with 3:11 remaining.

October 2, 2000 – at Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17:

Redskins win the toss. The Buccaneer defense forces a Washington three-and-out, but Tampa Bay starts at its own 14-yard line. After Washington forces a three-and-out, Deion Sanders returns the punt 57 yards to the Tampa Bay eight-yard line. After three rushes by TB Stephen Davis, former Buccaneer K Michael Husted kicks a 20-yard field goal with 10:51 remaining for the victory.

December 24, 2000 – at Green Bay 17, Tampa Bay 14:

Packers win the toss. Green Bay starts at its own 38 and uses nine plays to move the ball to the Tampa Bay four-yard line. On the drive, the Packers convert two third downs and K Ryan Longwell nails the game-winning 22-yard field goal with 8:29 left in overtime.

October 14, 2001 – at Tennessee 31, Tampa Bay 28:

Buccaneers win the toss. Joe Nedney nails a 49-yard field goal less than three minutes into overtime to give Tennessee the win. Tennessee forced a three-and-out and starts at the Tampa Bay 46-yard line following a punt. Steve McNair completes a 14-yard pass to the Buccaneer 32-yard line on the first play and Nedney knocks down the game-winner four plays later.

December 2, 2001 – Tampa Bay 16, at Cincinnati 13:

Buccaneers win the toss. The Bucs are forced to punt on their first possession of the extra period, but S John Lynch strips RB Corey Dillon on Cincinnati's three-yard line on the Bengals' first play. Gramatica nails the game-winner on a 21-yarder on the next play just over five minutes into overtime.

September 8, 2002 – New Orleans 26, at Tampa Bay 20:

Buccaneers win the toss. Each team punts twice in the first four possessions of overtime as the Saints pin Tampa Bay at its own six-yard line to begin the Buccaneers third possession in the extra period. Punting from the Tampa Bay end zone, Tom Tupa pulled the ball down and attempted a pass when he sensed a potential block. Tupa's off-balance pass was intercepted by Saints LB James Allen in the end zone for the game-winning score with 2:59 left in overtime.

September 14, 2003 – Carolina 12, at Tampa Bay 9:

Panthers win the toss. Carolina punts on its first possession, pinning the Bucs inside their own 20-yard line. Tampa Bay advances to the Carolina 42-yard line, but the drive stalls and the Buccaneers are forced to punt. Carolina's Steve Smith returns the punt 52 yards to the Tampa Bay 40-yard line. The Panthers advance to the Bucs 29-yard line on four plays, setting up John Kasay's 47-yard game winner with 3:34 left in the extra period.

October 6, 2003 – Indianapolis 38, at Tampa Bay 35:

Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay advances to the Colts 41-yard line on the first possession of overtime, but is forced to punt. Indianapolis takes over at its own 13-yard line and pieces together a 15-play drive that places Mike Vanderjagt in position for a 40-yard field goal attempt. Vanderjagt misses wide right, but Bucs DE Simeon Rice is flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct for "leaping." The Colts retain possession and gain 11 yards as a result of the penalty, setting up Vanderjagt's 29-yard game winning field goal on the next play with 3:50 remaining in overtime.

BUCCANEERS IN PRIME TIME

Tampa Bay 10, Los Angeles Rams 9:

In a rematch of the 1979 NFC Championship Game, the Bucs exacted a small measure of revenge with a 10-9 win over the Rams before 66,576 at Tampa Stadium. Quarterback Doug Williams scored the game's only touchdown on a one-yard sneak with 57 seconds remaining to seal the victory. Despite yielding 360 total yards, the Bucs defense intercepted Rams quarterback Vince Ferragamo four times and held Los Angeles to just three Frank Corral field goals.

Monday Night, 10/6/80 (ABC)

Chicago 23, Tampa Bay 0:

Chicago's defense held the Bucs to 147 total yards en route to a 23-0 Monday Night win before 61,350 at Soldier Field. The Bears held a 3-0 lead heading into the third quarter, when Tampa Bay quarterback Doug Williams hit tight end Jimmie Giles for an apparent touchdown. The play was nullified because of a penalty and the Bears' defense stiffened from there.

Tampa Bay 23, Miami 17:

The Bucs intercepted five passes to pick up their first win of the strike-shortened season, a 23-17 triumph over Miami before 65,854 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay led 23-10 late, when Dolphins quarterback Don Strock hit tight end Joe Rose on an 11-yard scoring strike to cut the Bucs lead to six with 34 seconds remaining. Miami recovered the ensuing onside kick, but cornerback Mike Washington intercepted Strock on the game's final play to secure the win.

Monday Night, 12/12/83 (ABC)

Green Bay 12, Tampa Bay 9 (OT):

Veteran kicker Jan Stenerud booted a 23-yard field goal with 4:07 left in overtime to lift Green Bay to a 12-9 win over the Bucs before 50,763 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay led 9-6 when kicker Bill Capece missed a 35-yard attempt with 2:49 remaining in regulation. The Packers then drove 65 yards to set up Stenerud for a 23-yarder that sent the game into overtime. The Bucs' defense – which surrendered 55 points to the Packers in their first meeting of the season – kept Green Bay out of the end zone but couldn't prevent the team's third overtime defeat of 1983.

Sunday Night, 9/23/90 (TNT)

Tampa Bay 23, Detroit 20:

Vinny Testaverde hit running back John Harvey on a three-yard touchdown pass with 4:21 remaining to rally the Bucs past Detroit, 23-20, before 55,075 at Tampa Stadium. Testaverde completed 5 of 7 passes for 91 yards in the fourth quarter, as the Bucs erased their third deficit of the contest. Gary Anderson rushed for 71 yards and one touchdown.

Sunday Night, 12/8/91 (ESPN)

Minnesota 26, Tampa Bay 24:

A valiant Bucs rally fell short as Minnesota escaped with a 26-24 win before 41,091 at Tampa Stadium. The Vikings jumped out to a 20-3 lead before Tampa Bay battled back behind QB Vinny Testaverde, who threw for a season-best 330 yards. Testaverde hit wide receiver Mark Carrier on a 21-yard scoring toss

December 24, 2005 – at Tampa Bay 27, Atlanta 24

Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay WR Edell Shepherd fumbles the overtime kickoff, giving the Falcons possession at the Buccaneers 18-yard line. Three plays later, Atlanta K Todd Peterson's 28-yard field goal attempt is blocked by Buccaneers DE Dewey White. On the ensuing possession, Tampa Bay marches to the Falcons nine-yard line, but K Matt Bryant misses the potential game winner from 27 yards out. Tampa Bay regains possession near midfield with 54 seconds left in the extra frame following a 28-yard punt return by WR Mark Jones. The Buccaneers march 26 yards in five plays as Bryant connects on the game winner from 41 yards out with 15 seconds remaining.

December 17, 2006 - at Chicago 34, Tampa Bay 31:

Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay turns the ball over on its opening possession on a TE Alex Smith fumble, giving the Bears possession at the Buccaneers 22-yard line. Three plays later, K Robbie Gould misses a 37-yard field goal. The teams trade punts before Tampa Bay takes over with 8:50 remaining in overtime at its own two-yard line. The Buccaneers are forced to punt and Chicago takes over at midfield with 6:23 left in the extra frame. Six plays later, Gould connects on the 25-yard game winner.

Coin Toss Record: 12-14 (6-7 home, 6-7 road) to cut the lead to two late in the fourth quarter, but the Bucs could pull no closer. Carrier totaled 110 yards on six catches.

Los Angeles Rams 31, Tampa Bay 27:

The Los Angeles Rams erased a 24-point halftime deficit to stun the Bucs 31-27 before 38,387 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 27-3 lead, thanks to two touchdown passes from QB Vinny Testaverde and a 26-yard fumble return on a kickoff by cornerback Roger Jones. But the Rams scored three touchdowns in an eight-minute span of the third quarter to close the gap to 27-24. Quarterback Jim Everett then hit tight end Pat Carter on an eight-yard scoring toss with six minutes left to cap the comeback.

Tampa Bay 23, Minnesota 10:

Bucs running back Vince Workman keyed a workman-like dismantling of Minnesota as Tampa Bay rolled to a 23-10 victory before 40,848 at Tampa Stadium. Workman rushed for 58 yards and one touchdown, adding seven catches for 65 yards in his first career start. The Vikings led 7-6 at halftime before cornerback Milton Mack returned a Sean Salisbury pass 27 yards for his first career touchdown. Workman sealed the win with a one-yard scoring plunge in the fourth quarter. The Bucs' offense did not commit a turnover for the first time all season, while the defense turned in its best effort of 1993, limiting Minnesota to 235 total yards.

Sunday Night, 11/13/94 (ESPN)

Detroit 14, Tampa Bay 9:

Detroit running back Barry Sanders rushed for 237 yards, leading the Lions to a 14-9 win over the Bucs before 50,814 at the Silverdome. Tampa Bay marched to the Lions' one-yard line twice in the first half but could only muster a 3-0 halftime lead. Detroit regrouped in the second half as Sanders careened for 200 yards after the intermission. Michael Husted's third field goal cut the margin to five points in the fourth quarter, but Sanders sealed the win with a 48-yarder late in the game, enabling Detroit to run out the clock.

Sunday Night, 12/10/95 (ESPN)

Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10 (OT):

Michael Husted nailed a 47-yard field goal 2:46 into overtime, vaulting the Bucs to a pulsating 13-10 win over the Green Bay Packers before 67,557 at Tampa Stadium. Earlier, Husted had tied the game at 10 with a 38-yard field goal. The Packers had a chance to win with eight seconds remaining in regulation, but Chris Jacke missed a 45-yarder wide left. Wide receiver Horace Copeland caught a career-high eight passes for 122 yards, including a 23-yarder that led to the Bucs' lone touchdown, a one-yard plunge by running back Jerry Ellison.

Sunday Night, 9/15/96 (TNT)

Denver 27, Tampa Bay 23:

Denver quarterback John Elway engineered another of his patented fourth-quarter comebacks, rallying the Broncos past the Bucs 27-23 before 71,535 at Mile High Stadium. Elway directed a 14-play, 80-yard march, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by Terrell Davis with 3:32 remaining. Earlier, Michael Husted had given the Bucs a 23-20 lead on a 28-yard field goal, set up by Derrick Brooks' first career interception. Tampa Bay running back Reggie Brooks ran for 114 yards, while tight end Jackie Harris paced the Bucs receiving corps with five catches for 96 yards.

Sunday Night, 9/21/97 (TNT)
Tampa Bay 31, Miami 21:

The Bucs ran their record to 4-0 with an electrifying 31-21 win over Miami before 73,314 at Houlihan's Stadium. Tampa Bay rang up 357 yards on the Dolphins' defense while holding Miami to just 48 yards on the ground. Rookie running back Warrick Dunn—fresh off two straight 100-yard rushing outings—caught six passes for 106 yards, including a 58-yard touchdown catch. Meanwhile, fullback Mike Alstott rushed for 95 yards and caught two short scoring tosses from Trent Diller in the first half. Diller outdueled Miami's Dan Marino, completing 18 of 24 passes for 248 yards and a career-high four touchdowns.

Detroit 27, Tampa Bay 6:

Detroit made the Bucs' first Monday Night appearance in 15 years a sobering one, racing past Tampa Bay 27-6 before 74,724 at the Silverdome. Despite being doubled in total yardage (170-85) in the first half, Tampa Bay trailed just 6-3 as the third quarter opened. Bryant Westbrook then intercepted a Trent Diller pass and raced 34 yards for a score to give Detroit a 13-3 lead. Quarterback Charlie Batch added a one-yard scoring run before Michael Husted's 47-yard field goal closed the gap to 20-6. Cornerback Terry Fair returned the ensuing kickoff 105 yards for a touchdown to ice the contest.

Sunday Night, 11/8/98 (ESPN)
Tennessee 31, Tampa Bay 22:

Quarterback Steve McNair raced 71 yards for a touchdown with 1:46 left, squelching a Bucs comeback and lifting Tennessee to a 31-22 win over Tampa Bay before 65,054 at Raymond James Stadium. Trent Diller connected with wide receiver Reidel Anthony on a 10-yard scoring strike to pull the Bucs within 24-22, but misfired on the subsequent two-point conversion. Tampa Bay pressed the Oilers into a third-and-eight at their own 29 before McNair scampered to the end zone. The Bucs jumped out to a 16-3 halftime lead, but Tennessee stormed back behind running back Eddie George, who totaled 134 rushing yards.

Tampa Bay 24, Green Bay 22:

The Bucs ended a string of futility against Green Bay in style, beating the defending NFC champions 24-22 before 65,497 at Raymond James Stadium. Quarterback Trent Diller connected on two long scoring strikes in the first half—a 64-yarder to Jacques Green and a 62-yarder to Bert Emanuel—to give the Bucs a 14-6 halftime lead. Meanwhile, Tampa Bay's defense was suffocating, sacking quarterback Brett Favre eight times and forcing a team-record eight fumbles, recovering two. The Packers cluded to within two points with 2:20 remaining, but the Bucs then ran all but 24 seconds off the clock. Defensive tackle Brad Culpepper and Warren Sapp capped the sack parade by downing Favre on the last play of the game.

Green Bay 26, Tampa Bay 23:

QB Brett Favre hit WR Antonio Freeman on a 21-yard touchdown pass with 1:05 left, capping a wild fourth quarter and lifting the Packers to a 26-23 win over Tampa Bay before 59,868 at Lambeau Field. The Bucs fell behind 10-0 early, but rallied to take a 13-10 lead on a 16-yard touchdown pass from QB Trent Diller to RB Warrick Dunn and two field goals by Martin Gramatica. Ryan Longwell booted a 49-yarder to tie the score at the half. After the team traded field goals, Longwell hit from 43 yards to give Green Bay a 19-16 lead. But FB Mike Alstott scored on a 22-yard rumble with 1:45 remaining, giving the Bucs a 23-19 lead. Favre wasn't done, however, ushering Green Bay to the winning score in just 40 seconds. He threw for 390 yards on the night, the most ever against Tampa Bay in regulation.

Sunday Night, 10/31/99 (ESPN)
Detroit 20, Tampa Bay 3:

For the second consecutive week, Tampa Bay's offense could not reach the end zone, resulting in a 20-3 loss to Detroit before 63,135 at the Silverdome. The Bucs rolled up 292 yards of total offense, besting the Lions by 36 yards. But one Tampa Bay fumble led to a Lions TD, while the other miscue prevented a seemingly certain Bucs TD. The team traded field goals before Detroit pinned the Bucs back at their goal line, forced an errant punt and took over at the Tampa Bay 36. Greg Hill's 27-yard scamper set up Sedrick Irvin for a two-yard TD run, lifting Detroit to a 10-3 lead. Two plays into the second half, it was 17-3. LB Chris Claiborne nailed QB Eric Zeier, forcing a fumble that LB Allen Aldridge returned 21 yards for a score. Hanson booted a late field goal to make it 20-3.

Monday Night, 12/6/99 (ABC)
Tampa Bay 24, Minnesota 17:

The Bucs coupled a big-play defensive effort with some timely offense to rally for a 24-17 win over Minnesota before 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out on top on the third play of the game. CB Donnie Abraham blitzed from the left side, timed his jump perfectly and picked off a Jeff George pass. He raced 55 yards for a TD to give Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead. Martin Gramatica hit a 20-yard FG to push the lead to 10-0. But the Bucs coughed the ball up twice in the second quarter, leading to two Vikings touchdowns. Tampa Bay answered midway through the third quarter, when QB Shaun King—making his first NFL start—hit WR Jacques Green on a 29-yard scoring strike. After Minnesota muffed a punt, King found TE Dave Moore in the back of the end zone on a one-yard toss, giving Tampa Bay a 24-14 lead. Gary Anderson pulled Minnesota within seven points on a 34-yard FG, then George mounted one final charge. But a 4th and 19 pass from the Bucs 34 fell incomplete.

Monday Night, 10/9/00 (ABC)
Minnesota 30, Tampa Bay 23:

For the second time in its last three games, Tampa Bay lost a fourth quarter lead as Minnesota rallied for a 30-23 victory before 64,162 at the Metrodome. The Bucs, who trailed for most of the game, took their first lead with 12:13 remaining in the game when CB Donnie Abraham returned a blocked field goal attempt 53 yards for a 23-20 Bucs lead. The block by DT Warren Sapp, his second in the last two weeks, gave Tampa Bay its first touchdown on a return of a blocked field goal since 1978. But the Vikings regained the lead on a 42-yard scoring pass from QB Daunte Culpepper to WR Randy Moss and then extended the edge to seven on a Gary Anderson field goal with 59 seconds left in the game. Tampa Bay reached the Viking 43-yard line, but QB Shaun King's "Hail Mary" pass on the final play of regulation fell incomplete in the end zone.

Thursday Night, 10/19/00 (ESPN)
Detroit 28, Tampa Bay 14:

For the first time since 1996, Tampa Bay lost its fourth straight game as Detroit came back for a 28-14 victory before 65,557 fans at Raymond James Stadium. The Lions, who had trailed for most of the first half, scored 14 points in the final quarter on two short touchdown runs by James Stewart after K Martin Gramatica had tied the game at 14-14 with a career-long 55-yard FG. Gramatica, who tied his single-game mark with four field goals, connected on his first two and the Bucs added a safety after a blocked punt by LB Nate Webster for an 8-0 lead early in the second period. The two teams traded field goals, but Detroit evened the game at 11-11 just before the half on the first of Stewart's three TDs. Gramatica and Lions K Jason Hanson swapped field goals again after the break before Detroit took control in the final 13 minutes. DE Marcus Jones set a club record with four sacks and added a blocked field goal as the Bucs totaled seven quarterback sacks.

Monday Night, 12/18/00 (ABC)
Tampa Bay 38, St. Louis 35:

RB Warrick Dunn scored his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallied for a 38-35 win over St. Louis at Raymond James Stadium. After the Rams had stormed back from a 10-point deficit to grab a 35-31 lead, QB Shaun King drove the Bucs 80 yards on 13 plays for the game-winning score on a one-yard run by Dunn. S John Lynch sealed the victory with an interception of Rams QB Kurt Warner, his third of the game, with less than 30 seconds remaining. In a game that featured seven lead changes, Tampa Bay grabbed a 24-14 halftime lead, thanks to a two-yard score by Dunn and two scoring strikes from King to WR Keyshawn Johnson. Rams RB Marshall Faulk, who scored four touchdowns on the night, accounted for St. Louis' first-half points with two rushing TDs. Faulk added a TD reception following the break to cut the lead to three, but Dunn broke free for a 52-yard run to extend the edge to 31-21 and eclipse the 1,000-yard mark for the season. But the Rams responded with 14 straight points on Faulk's third rushing TD and a 72-yard score from Warner to WR Torry Holt. The Rams defense then stopped Tampa Bay on downs, but the Bucs defense responded by forcing the Rams to punt with 2:22 left in the game, setting up the game-winning drive. Dunn tied a team single-game record with three rushing touchdowns and the Bucs offense gained a season-high 446 yards.

Tampa Bay 24, St. Louis 17:

RB Warrick Dunn snapped a 17-1 tie early in the fourth quarter on a 21-yard touchdown run as Tampa Bay gained its first-ever win at St. Louis with a 24-17 triumph at the Dome at America's Center. The Tampa Bay defense shut down the Rams' top-ranked offense, holding St. Louis scoreless in the final 15 minutes. Overall, the Bucs allowed just one touchdown and permitted St. Louis only 345 total yards, which was below its league-leading average of nearly 425 yards per game. Tampa Bay also forced five Rams turnovers, including two interceptions of QB Kurt Warner. DT Warren Sapp posted his second two-sack performance in the last three games, and S John Lynch sealed the win for the second consecutive meeting with an interception on the final drive of the game.

Saturday Night, 12/29/01 (ABC)

Tampa Bay 22, Baltimore 10:

Tampa Bay moved closer to the playoffs with a 22-10 win over defending Super Bowl champion Baltimore at Raymond James Stadium on a special Saturday Night edition of ABC's Monday Night Football. The Bucs reached the postseason for the third straight year the next day when Atlanta lost to Miami. The Bucs defense held the Ravens to just 257 yards and 4-of-17 on third down conversions. QB Brad Johnson scored on a one-yard sneak to give the Bucs a 16-7 edge at the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, the Ravens cut the lead to 16-10 on a Matt Stoverfield goal, but FB Mike Alstott sealed the victory with a 32-yard touchdown with 1:35 left on the clock. The win marked the third straight year the Bucs have defeated the defending Super Bowl champions.

Sunday Night, 1/6/02 (ESPN)

Philadelphia 17, Tampa Bay 13:

Tampa Bay concluded its 2001 regular season as Philadelphia rallied to score a pair of touchdowns in the final 2:12 in a 17-13 win over the Bucs at Raymond James Stadium. With the playoff picture already set prior to the game for both clubs, many of the second-team players saw significant action. The game marked just the seventh time since 1970 that teams have met in the regular season finale before playing in the playoffs. Despite the loss, the Buccaneers finished 9-7 and advanced to the playoffs for the fourth time in five seasons under head coach Tony Dungy.

Tampa Bay 26, St. Louis 14:

Tampa Bay's defense posted five sacks and four interceptions, including a 39-yard interception return for a touchdown by LB Derrick Brooks with 59 seconds remaining, giving head coach Jon Gruden his first victory at Raymond James Stadium with a 26-14 win over the Rams on Monday Night Football. The Buccaneers took a 3-0 lead after K Martin Gramatica connected on a 39-yard field goal to open up the game. The Rams responded on their initial drive, when RB Marshall Faulk scored on a five-yard touchdown run for a 7-3 lead. Tampa Bay QB Brad Johnson led a drive culminated by a 47-yard field goal by Gramatica and cut the Rams lead to 7-6. With the Rams driving in the second quarter, DE Simeon Rice dropped into pass coverage and snared his second career interception. Johnson followed by connecting with TE Ricky Dudley, who played in his first game with Tampa Bay, for a nine-yard scoring pass with less than one minute left in the first half. After a scoreless third quarter, CB Brian Kelly intercepted a Warner pass and returned it 31 yards to the Rams' one-yard line, setting up FB Mike Alstott's two-yard touchdown run for a 19-7 lead two plays later. Rams RB Lamar Gordon, who replaced an injured Faulk, scored on a 21-yard run to cut the deficit to 19-14. The Rams had one last opportunity late in the fourth quarter, but Brooks, who left in the third quarter with a left hamstring strain, returned for one play, replacing an injured Al Singleton. Brooks immediately clinched the win, registering his third career interception return for a touchdown and his second pick for a score in as many games in 2002.

Sunday Night, 12/1/02 (ESPN)

New Orleans 23, Tampa Bay 20:

New Orleans held off a late rally by Tampa Bay for a 23-20 victory at the Superdome to snap the Buccaneers' four-game winning streak. Saints WR Joe Horn, who posted five receptions for 106 yards and one touchdown, set up another score with a 52-yard catch and secured the win with a key 10-yard reception on third down in the final two minutes of the contest. Tampa Bay, which trailed 23-12 late in the fourth quarter, cut the lead to 23-20 with 2:54 remaining in the game as QB Brad Johnson led Tampa Bay on a 17-play, 84-yard TD drive, capped off by WR Keenan McCardell's two-yard TD reception on fourth-and-goal and the two-point conversion. But New Orleans converted a key first down when backup QB Jake Delhomme, who replaced an injured Aaron Brooks, connected with Horn for 10 yards on his only passing attempt on third down to seal the win. DE Simeon Rice became the first player in NFL history to record two or more sacks in five consecutive games. Rice, who tied his career high with three sacks, sacked Brooks on successive plays on New Orleans' opening possession. Rice's third sack, late in the first quarter, gave the Bucs a 2-0 lead when he forced a Brooks fumble, which rolled out of the end zone for a safety. Saints RB Deuce McAllister's six-yard TD run in the second quarter lifted Tampa Bay to a 6-2 lead. On the following series, Brad Johnson marched the Buccaneers on a season-long 90-yard TD drive, capped off by FB Mike Alstott's 44-yard TD catch to give the Bucs a 9-6 lead. New Orleans regained the lead early in the second half on a three-yard reception by WR Jake Reed and the Saints added another score less than four minutes later when Brooks found Horn for a 14-yard TD. Tampa Bay responded on its next possession as K Martin Gramatica nailed a 51-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh 17, Tampa Bay 7:

Tommy Maddox threw for 236 yards and one touchdown and Pittsburgh's defense forced two Tampa Bay fumbles inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line en route to a 17-7 win over the Buccaneers on Monday Night Football at Raymond James Stadium. Despite the loss, Tampa Bay claimed the NFC South Division title when New Orleans lost to Cincinnati, while the Steelers clinched the AFC North Division with the victory over the Bucs. Tampa Bay played without starting quarterback Brad Johnson, who missed the game with a right lower back contusion. QB Shaun King started in his place and completed 9-of-26 passes for 73 yards and one interception prior to being replaced by QB Rob Johnson in the third quarter. Pittsburgh raced out to a 14-0 lead with 11:10 remaining in the first quarter. Maddox hit WR Antwan Randle El for an 11-yard score on the Steelers opening possession and on Tampa Bay's second offensive play, CB Chad Scott stepped in front of a King pass and raced 30 yards for a TD. The Steelers added a 26-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to build a 17-0 lead in the first quarter. Tampa Bay had a pair of opportunities to score inside the Steelers 10-yard line, but NT Casey Hampton forced a pair of turnovers. Hampton forced a fumble by FB Mike Alstott on the Steelers' seven-yard line on the first play of the second quarter and then produced another turnover after sacking and forcing a fumble by Rob Johnson inside the 10-yard line in the third quarter. Rob Johnson completed 12-of-18 passes for 159 yards and one TD, but was sacked five times. WR Keyshawn Johnson had a game-high eight receptions for 132 yards and added an 18-yard TD late in the fourth quarter.

Sunday Night, 12/29/02 (ESPN)

Tampa Bay 15, Chicago 0:

Tampa Bay closed out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win as K Martin Gramatica kicked a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Buccaneers defense registered four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout of the Chicago Bears. The win also marked the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers, who also blanked the Baltimore Ravens, 25-0 in Week 2. In addition, the temperature at kickoff was 38 degrees, marking the first time Tampa Bay won in 22 tries when the thermometer read below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay improved to 6-2 on the road, the most wins away from home in franchise history and secured the No. 2 seed in the NFC. The NFL's top-ranked defense intercepted Bears QB Henry Burris four times, setting up three of Gramatica's five field goals. Burris, making his first career NFL start, completed just 7-of-19 passes for 78 yards and the four interceptions for a 10.3 passer rating. Tampa Bay built a 6-0 halftime lead behind a pair of Gramatica field goals (30 and 32 yards), the second of which was set up by LB Derrick Brooks career-high fifth interception of the season. Tampa Bay sealed the win in the fourth quarter with three fourth quarter INTs and field goals from 33, 26 and 33 yards. CB Brian Kelly, who tied for the NFL lead with a career-high eight interceptions, added a pair of fourth quarter picks and CB Dwight Smith reeled in the final interception. QB Rob Johnson, filling in for the injured Brad Johnson, directed a balanced attack as he passed for 134 yards and the Buccaneers registered 161 yards rushing.

Tampa Bay 17, Philadelphia 0:

Tampa Bay opened up the regular season in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. The Eagles, who were limited to just 245 total yards and converted on 2-of-11 (18%) third down conversions, suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998. Tampa Bay's defense set the tone early, holding the Eagles scoreless on a goal-line stand in the first quarter. WR Joe Jurevicius reeled in a pair of second half touchdowns from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 13-of-14 passes in the second half. Jurevicius gave the Buccaneers a 10-0 lead as he hauled in a 13-yard score in the corner of the end zone. He followed with another improbable catch in the fourth quarter, deflecting the ball over an Eagles defender, spinning to his left and diving for his second TD reception of the contest for a 17-0 lead. Brad Johnson, who marched Tampa Bay on consecutive TD drives of 80 and 73 yards in the second half, completed 27-of-36 passes for 238 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Johnson's top target, WR Keyshawn Johnson, reeled in a team-high six receptions for 83 yards, and DT Warren Sapp caught his first career pass, a 14-yard grab in the fourth quarter for a first down. DE Simeon Rice added two sacks on Eagles QB Donovan McNabb.

Indianapolis 38, Tampa Bay 35:

QB Peyton Manning led the Colts to three touchdowns in the final five minutes of regulation to overcome a 21-point deficit and force overtime, leading Indianapolis to a dramatic 38-35 overtime win in former head coach Tony Dungy's return to Raymond James Stadium. Manning led the Colts to four TDs in the fourth quarter after Tampa Bay built a 35-14 lead with 5:09 left after CB Ronde Barber's 29-yard interception return for a score. But that would be the last score of the night for the Bucs. WR Brad Pyatt returned the ensuing kickoff 90 yards and four plays later RB James Munro ran in from three yards out on fourth-and-1 for the score. The Colts recovered an onside kick and Manning connected with WR Marvin Harrison, who hauled in a game-high 11 receptions for 176 yards and two TDs, from 28 yards on fourth-and-six to cut the deficit to 35-28. After a Bucs punt, the Colts took over with 1:41 remaining in the contest. Manning marched the Colts on a five-play, 85-yard drive in just 1:06 that was capped off by RB Ricky Williams, whose one-yard run tied the game at 35. In overtime, Tampa Bay won the toss but was forced to punt on the first possession. Manning moved the Colts downfield to set up a 40-yard field goal attempt by K Mike Vanderjagt. He missed it wide right, but DE Simeon Rice was flagged for leaping and the Colts received another chance because of the unsportsmanlike conduct penalty. Vanderjagt's 29-yard kick bounced off the right post and through the uprights to complete the improbable comeback. WR Keenan McCardell caught two TD receptions, including a then career-long 74 yarder, and added a third score on a 57-yard fumble return for a touchdown.

Tampa Bay 19, New York Giants 13:

WR Charles Lee's career-long 53-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown late in the first half helped Tampa Bay snap a three-game losing skid en route to a 19-13 win over the New York Giants at Raymond James Stadium. Lee, who posted his first career TD as a Buccaneer and his second career scoring reception, finished with five receptions for a game-high 91 yards, while WR Keenan McCardell added a game-high nine receptions for 83 yards. RB Thomas Jones' one-yard TD run in the second quarter gave Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead. After K Matt Bryant's 30-yard field goal, Lee's 53-yard TD reception lifted the Buccaneers to a 14-3 advantage. The Giants had an opportunity to cut the deficit, but DE Simeon Rice, who posted his NFL-leading 12th sack, nailed QB Kerry Collins on the Tampa Bay 29-yard line and forced a fumble that was recovered by DT Chartric Darby as time expired in the first half. The Giants, who entered the contest ranked third in the NFL in total offense (365.9 ypg.), could muster just 212 total yards of offense as the Buccaneers forced four turnovers. After the team exchanged field goals in the third quarter – a 30-yarder by Bryant and a 21-yarder by K Martin Gramatica – Giants rookie CB Frank Walker intercepted QB Brad Johnson and returned it 56 yards for a score to cut the Buccaneers' lead to 17-13 early in the fourth quarter. But Tampa Bay's defense closed out the game, stifling the Giants on their final two offensive possessions. S John Lynch intercepted a Collins pass and on the following series DT Warren Sapp recorded his second sack of the game.

Sunday Night, 11/30/03 (ESPN)

Jacksonville 17, Tampa Bay 10:

WR Jimmy Smith's diving 48-yard touchdown reception with 10:23 remaining in the fourth quarter lifted Jacksonville to a 17-10 win at ALLTEL Stadium. Smith and WR Keenan McCardell, teammates with the Jaguars from 1996-2001, became the 16th and 17th players, respectively, to reach the 700-reception mark as Smith finished with a game-high 10 receptions for 136 yards, while McCardell paced the Buccaneers with eight catches for 74 yards. Stifled in the first half, Jaguars RB Fred Taylor emerged in the second half, finishing with 118 yards on 29 carries to help the Jaguars run out the clock in the waning minutes with a pair of first down runs. Jacksonville jumped out to a 7-0 lead behind QB Byron Leftwich's 10-yard scoring pass to TE Kyle Brady following LB Mike Peterson's interception of Bucs QB Brad Johnson. The Buccaneers responded on the following offensive series with an 11-play, 56-yard drive capped off by Thomas Jones' five-yard TD run to tie the score at 7. On the ensuing possession, LB Derrick Brooks forced a fumble that was recovered by CB Tim Wansley as the Buccaneers recorded a takeaway in their 53rd consecutive game. Tampa Bay took advantage with a 47-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica as Tampa Bay took its only lead of the game. But Jacksonville responded on its next possession as Leftwich, who completed 20-of-34 passes for 224 yards and the aforementioned two TDs, drove the Jaguars down the field before the half to set up K Seth Marler's 28-yard FG, tying the score at 10. Despite numerous chances, the Jaguars failed to score three times inside the Buccaneers' 30-yard line, missing a pair of field goals and losing the ball on downs. But Leftwich found Smith in the end zone for the go-ahead score early in the fourth quarter, and Jacksonville's defense kept the Buccaneers scoreless in the second half.

Sunday Night, 9/26/04 (ESPN)

Oakland 30, Tampa Bay 20:

In a rematch of Super Bowl XXXVII, the Buccaneers fell to the Raiders in head coach Jon Gruden's first game in Oakland against his former team. The evening was highlighted by Tampa Bay WR Tim Brown's return to Oakland as he hauled in his 100th career touchdown reception, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, with a 16-yard score in the fourth quarter. Tampa Bay fought hard in the final period, gaining nearly 200 yards of offense as Johnson found Brown and connected with WR Bill Schroeder for a 41-yard scoring strike to pull the Bucs within 10 late in the fourth quarter. The two teams exchanged pairs of field goals in the first half, with Bucs K Martin Gramatica connecting from 36 and 30 yards and Raiders K Sebastian Janikowski hitting from 23 and 40 yards. Late in the second quarter, Raiders backup QB Kerry Collins, who had replaced injured starter Ricky Gannon, found WR Ronald Curry for a 19-yard touchdown reception and a 13-6 halftime lead. The Raiders utilized the opening possession of the second half to push their lead to 16-6 on a 39-yard Janikowski field goal. On the next drive, QB Brad Johnson was intercepted by Oakland CB Philip Buchanon, who returned it 32 yards for the score and a 23-6 Raiders lead. Oakland took a commanding lead on its next drive as RB Tyrone Wheatley hurdled into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown run and a 30-6 Raiders advantage.

St. Louis 28, Tampa Bay 21:

Tampa Bay outgauged the NFL's fourth-ranked offense, but Rams WR Torrey Holt's two TD receptions led St. Louis to a 28-21 victory on Monday Night Football. In his first start for the Buccaneers, QB Brian Griese completed 27-of-40 passes for 286 yards with two TDs and one INT. Griese found rookie WR Michael Clayton for a season and game-high eight receptions for 142 yards. DE Greg Spires led the defensive effort, forcing a fumble and posting two sacks of Rams QB Marc Bulger as the Bucs defense forced two turnovers and notched four sacks. St. Louis got on the board first, taking a 7-0 lead on its first drive as Bulger connected with WR Torrey Holt on a 52-yard scoring pass. On the ensuing kickoff, CB Torrie Cox gave the Buccaneers possession at the Rams 43-yard line following a 59-yard return. Six plays later, Tampa Bay knotted the score at 7-7 with a one-yard scoring plunge by FB Mike Alstott, and then took a 14-7 lead early in the second quarter on a five-yard TD pass to RB Michael Pittman. Rams RB Marshall Faulk evened the score at 14-14 with a one-yard TD run following a Buccaneers fumble inside its own 10-yard line. Midway through the third quarter, Bucs LB Ian Gold intercepted a Bulger pass and returned it 31 yards to the St. Louis 15-yard line. However, on the next play, St. Louis S Adam Archuleta forced a Pittman fumble and returned it 93 yards for a 21-14 lead. Tampa Bay responded two drives later to tie the game at 21-21 when Griese found TE Will Heller from one yard out. Though Tampa Bay would threaten until the final seconds of the contest, St. Louis closed out the scoring and secured the victory early in the fourth quarter when Bulger found Holt for the decisive 36-yard TD.

Monday Night, 11/13/06 (ESPN)

Carolina 24, Tampa Bay 10:

The Buccaneers took an early lead, but could not overcome four turnovers and a 14-point, second-half deficit, falling to the Panthers for the second time on the year. Defensively, Tampa Bay limited the Panthers to just 78 rushing yards for the contest, while CB Ronde Barber intercepted the 31st pass of his career to move into a tie for first place in team history for most career interceptions. Following a WR Keyshawn Johnson fumble on the Panthers second drive of the game, the Buccaneers took over near midfield and five plays later QB Bruce Gradkowski hit WR Ike Hilliard on a six-yard TD pass for a 7-0 lead. Late in the first half, Gradkowski tried to hit WR Joey Galloway deep down the sideline but was intercepted by CB Ken Lucas at the one-yard line, breaking a streak of 147 pass attempts without an interception. Two plays later, Barber intercepted QB Jake Delhomme at the Carolina 30-yard line with just over a minute remaining in the half. Three plays after Barber's pick, Gradkowski again tried to go deep, but S Shaun Williams picked off the pass intended for WR Michael Clayton at the six-yard line. The Panthers got on the board on their first possession of the second half as K John Kasay connected on a 28-yard FG. On Tampa Bay's ensuing possession, Gradkowski fumbled and DE Julius Peppers recovered at the Buccaneers 44-yard line. Carolina took a 10-7 lead on the resulting possession as Delhomme found Johnson from four yards out for the score. Following a RB Carnell Williams fumble late in the third quarter, Carolina went up 17-7 as FB Brad Hoover scored on a five-yard TD run. Tampa Bay trimmed the lead to 17-10 on a K Matt Bryant 28-yard FG with 8:32 remaining in the fourth quarter. However, Carolina responded on its next possession as Delhomme hit WR Steve Smith on a 36-yard TD pass to close out the scoring with 3:11 remaining in the contest.

BUCCANEER PLAYOFF HISTORY

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17
TAMPA STADIUM (71,402)

TAMPA – The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settle for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty

80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt, Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

L.A. RAMS 9, TAMPA BAY 0
JANUARY 6, 1980
TAMPA STADIUM (72,033)

TAMPA – In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A. territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charlie Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into a other field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was interception in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However,

QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

DALLAS 38, TAMPA BAY 0 JANUARY 2, 1982 TEXAS STADIUM (64,848)

DALLAS – The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

DALLAS 30, TAMPA BAY 17
TEXAS STADIUM (65,042)

DALLAS – For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dexter Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Coney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from midfield when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 20, DETROIT 10 DECEMBER 28, 1997 HOULIHAN'S STADIUM (73,361)

TAMPA – In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lion RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies—RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards—the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7 JANUARY 4, 1998 LAMBEAU FIELD (60,327)

GREEN BAY – The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay actually had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

TAMPA BAY 14, WASHINGTON 13
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,835)

TAMPA – The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6
TRANS WORLD DOME (66,496)

ST. LOUIS – Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

2000 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 21, TAMPA BAY 3 DECEMBER 31, 2000 VETERANS STADIUM (65,813)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

2001 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 31, TAMPA BAY 9 JANUARY 12, 2002 VETERANS STADIUM (65,847)

PHILADELPHIA – Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added 57 yards rushing.

TAMPA BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6 JANUARY 12, 2003 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,599)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

TAMPA BAY 27, EAGLES 10
VETERANS STADIUM (66,713)

PHILADELPHIA — Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defended, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team postseason history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club history late in the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

TAMPA BAY 48, OAKLAND 21
QUALCOMM STADIUM (67,603)

SAN DIEGO – Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at age 39 to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders and the league's No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

WASHINGTON 17, TAMPA BAY 10

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,514)

TAMPA – Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-yard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms' 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near mid-field with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

2007 NFC WILD CARD GAME

N.Y. GIANTS 24, TAMPA BAY 14
 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,621)

TAMPA – Playing host to the New York Giants in an NFC Wild Card matchup, the Buccaneers 2007 season came to an end as the Giants advanced with a 24-14 victory. Tampa Bay started fast, taking a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a RB Earnest Graham one-yard touchdown run as the Buccaneers gained 78 first-quarter yards compared to the Giants minus-two yards. New York evened the score with 10:02 left in the first half as QB Eli Manning found RB Brandon Jacobs on a five-yard scoring pass. The Giants took the lead on their next possession as Jacobs scored on an eight-yard run, giving New York a 14-7 lead at halftime. Following a Buccaneers fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, the Giants tacked on a 25-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. Tampa Bay drove into Giants territory on its next possession, but QB Jeff Garcia was intercepted in the end zone. Following a Buccaneers punt that pinned the Giants at their own eight-yard line, New York drove 92 yards in 15 plays to take a 24-7 lead with 8:03 left in the game on a Manning to WR Amani Toomer four-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay pulled within 10 on the ensuing drive as Garcia connected with TE Alex Smith for a six-yard score with 3:25 left in the contest. The Buccaneers forced a punt on the Giants next possession and advanced near midfield, but Garcia was intercepted just after the two-minute warning to end the Buccaneers comeback attempt. LB Derrick Brooks played in his 11th postseason game, becoming the all-time leader in postseason games played in franchise history.

SIDELINES

JOHN MCKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001 from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. With his passing, the Buccaneer family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the lone Hall of Famer in Buccaneer history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). McKay produced outstanding players at nearly every position at USC, including RB Ricky Bell, FB Sam Cunningham, QB Pat Haden, WR Lynn Swann, LB Richard Wood, OT Ron Yary and TE Charles Young. During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (the former Nancy Jean Hunter) had four children, sons John and Rich and daughters Michele and Terri. Rich now serves as President of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 NFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

LEE ROY SELMON

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1995. The Buccaneers' first draft choice in 1976, Selmon proved to be the most outstanding player to date in team history. Drafted out of Oklahoma where he won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season, Selmon went on to become the cornerstone of the Buccaneers franchise for nearly a decade.

A member of eight All-America teams while with the Sooners, Selmon was an even greater professional. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), Selmon anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career fumbles caused (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986.

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equalled only by his generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Since his retirement, Selmon has remained highly-visible in community affairs. In addition to occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority, Selmon took on the responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. Selmon, who held that spot until 2004, was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

Selmon was born and raised in Eufaula, Okla. He has five brothers and three sisters, including Dewey, who played for the Bucs from 1976-80, and Lucious, who served as the linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Lee Roy and his wife, Claybra, have three children, Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL RING

the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48-21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a seagoing pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

In the long-established tradition of creating custom awards for the world of sports, Tiffany & Co. designed the Super Bowl championship rings presented to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, winners of Super Bowl XXXVII.

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquise diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side,

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

A new era in Tampa Bay sports opened on September 20, 1998, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Chicago Bears, 27-15, in the inaugural event at Raymond James Stadium. The culmination of three years of intense research, development and construction, Raymond James Stadium is a combination of the finest elements of modern stadium design and its own groundbreaking innovations. Referred to as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL' by league insiders, the stadium's features are centered around one concept: enhancing the fan's experience at a Tampa Bay Buccaneers game.

Raymond James Stadium was designed by HOK Sports Facilities Group and constructed under the joint management of Huber, Hunt & Nichols and Metric Constructors. It is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority and includes among its tenants the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League, the University of South Florida football team and college football's Outback Bowl.

The $168.5 million facility was financed by a half-cent sales tax for community investment purposes that was approved by voters on September 3, 1996. A Florida sales tax rebate also funded the stadium construction, as did a portion of a tourist development tax. The remainder of the stadium's finances were provided by Buccaneers Owner/President Malcolm Glazer. Bryan Glazer and Joel Glazer, team executive vice presidents, oversaw stadium design and were responsible for the development of the stadium's unique fan enhancements. The Tampa Bay Buccaneers hope you enjoy Raymond James Stadium throughout the 2008 NFL season and share in the bright future of the team, the stadium and the Tampa Bay community.

TICKET INFORMATION

For the ninth consecutive year, the Buccaneers have sold out Raymond James Stadium to season ticket holders. The Buccaneers Ticket Office is adding names to their season ticket waiting list. The ticket office may be reached by phone at (813) 879-2827 or (800) 282-0683, over a TDD line for hearing-impaired guests at (813) 387-6390, and via e-mail at buccaneersticketoffice@buccaneers.nfl.com. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Buccaneers single-game tickets can be found in six price levels (as shown by the accompanying stadium diagram). Raymond James Stadium is currently sold out through season ticket sales and most sections are not available on a game-by-game basis.

Should any single game tickets become available, they may be purchased through TicketMaster outlets, TicketMaster charge by-phone, and online at TicketMaster.com. If tickets remain available on game day, they will be sold at the Raymond James Stadium box office at the south end of the stadium beginning three hours before kickoff.

AMENITIES AT RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

GENERAL SEATING: After 22 years of watching Buccaneers football from bench seating, Tampa Bay fans now comfortably settle into individual seats, measuring 19"-21" wide and with 32"-33" from one seat back to the next. Overall, Raymond James Stadium holds more than 65,000 fans, 50,000 of which are in general seating. There are up to 600 wheelchair-accessible seats located in all areas, not just the end zone. Seats in all sections also feature cupholders.

CLUB SEATS: Raymond James Stadium also has over 12,000 club seats, a modern feature that allows fans to experience Buccaneers games and entertain guests in maximum comfort. Club seats are extra-wide and padded and feature prime sideline locations. The seats are accessible from a luxurious, air-conditioned club level that houses restaurants, sports bars, video walls, lounge seating and additional views of the field.

LUXURY SUITES: A total of 195 suites on three floors at mid-level along both sidelines offer absolutely the most luxurious setting to watch a Buccaneers game. Each suite has retractable glass windows, private bar and restroom and televisions that can carry other NFL action. The suites are accessible from private elevators.

CONCESSIONS: Raymond James Stadium has over 550 points of sale for food, beverages and merchandise, a ratio of one point for every 126 seats. A wide variety of concessions will be available, from hot dogs and sodas to gourmet pizzas and cappuccino.

RESTROOMS/SERVICES: Raymond James Stadium is equipped with 88 restroom locations and a total of 1,073 fixtures. That ratio of one fixture for every 81 fans is an immense improvement in comfort for Buccaneers fans. The ratio for women fans is one fixture for every 70 people, improved from 1 for every 129 in Houlihan's Stadium. There are also five first aid stations, with at least one on each level.

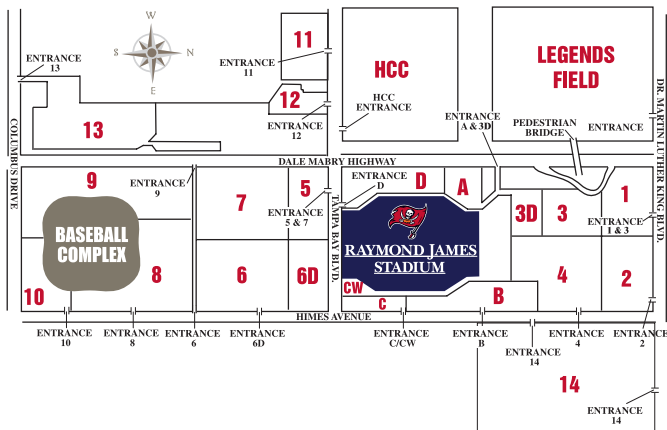

MEDIA FACILITIES: The Raymond James Stadium press box seats up to 225 members of the media in a spacious, comfortable box on the west side upper suite level. The dining area features a multiple-screen video wall, and the box is accessible from an elevator dedicated specifically to the media. The media entrance is located at Dock D in the southwest corner of the stadium.

ESCALATORS: An added comfort feature in Raymond James Stadium is a total of 20 escalators. With a bank of three escalators located at each corner ramp and an additional four in the club lounge, Buccaneers fans will find it easier and quicker to navigate the stadium than ever before.

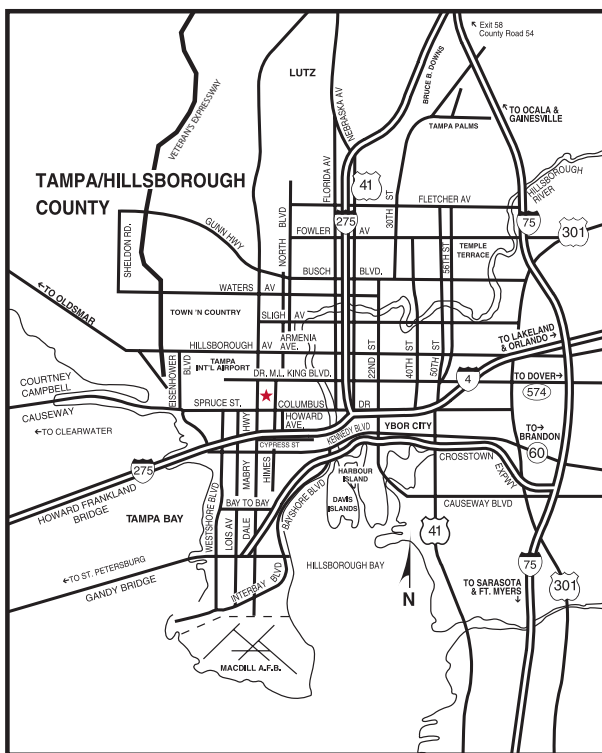

TRAFFIC CONTROL: Patrons of events at Raymond James Stadium can be assured that their travel to and from the facility will be as time-efficient as possible. The stadium is outfitted with a comprehensive traffic control system that automatically assists with the progression of traffic in and around the stadium traffic area. The system is comprised of a traffic control center located adjacent to the Tampa Sports Authority offices on the ground level of the south end zone plaza. From there, a crew of over 50 uniformed officers is directed to ease traffic flow. In addition, the system is equipped with 16 cameras constantly monitored by staff from TPD and City Traffic Engineering. They monitor all major intersections, traffic light cycles and newly installed cameras by F.D.O.T. that reach out beyond the immediate area. If problems arise, the flow of traffic can be instantly adjusted by adding time to stop lights or lane closures to avoid accidents.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that combine to create the most exciting and enjoyable game atmosphere in the National Football League. Some of the most extraordinary features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

In an effort to expand and enhance the overall game experience at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers constructed a $3 million Pirate Ship extravaganza called Buccaneer Cove. Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions and other game enhancements.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the majestic, 103-foot long Ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s Pirate Ship, arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the Pirate Ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. The Ship is also complete with working rigging and a crew to raise and lower its huge 32'x50' sails.

The Ship's dock serves as an interactive entertainment area from which patrons enjoy the most unique vantage point in the National Football League. Added to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the Ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneer Cove is as animated as the 19th-century Pirate Village after which it is modeled.

Buccaneer Cove was designed by HOK Studio E and constructed by The Nassal Company. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew on game day who are responsible for Ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic Ship looms out over the crowd in the north end zone.

- Ship Length 103'
- Ship Weight 43 tons
- Ship Height 78'
- Bow Detail 9'x7'
- Ship Width 32'
- Swords 16' each

The Ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- 5.5 tons of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

MILLER LITE PARTY DECK

The Buccaneers have added another exciting element to the gameday experience at Raymond James Stadium. The Miller Lite Party Deck is an exclusive area in the south end zone where a select number of fans can watch the game from an awesome view. Fans are eligible to win a ticket to this private oasis where guests may enjoy complimentary Miller products on the deck. Winners receive a ticket and special pass to access the deck and Buc Dollars for stadium goods. All winners must be 21 and above.

BUCTION

BucVision, which features two massive videoboard at each end of Raymond James Stadium, is arguably the most sophisticated video and scoreboard system in the NFL.

The main attraction of BucVision is the sheer size of the two videoboard, each measuring 24 feet high by 92 feet wide, which is significantly larger than conventional NFL scoring systems.

In addition to viewing plays from three different angles at each end of the field, fans are also treated to highlights from up to six games simultaneously from around the NFL before and after Buccaneer games, essentially transforming Raymond James Stadium into the world's largest sports bar.

Operated by more than 30 technicians, BucVision allowed Tampa Bay to become the first professional team in any sport to show images through high-definition television (HDTV), the wide-screen television images which are revolutionizing the television industry. In addition to showing the network feeds, the system incorporates five in-house cameras that capture the festive atmosphere of Raymond James Stadium patrons.

The system also contains a crystal-clear sound system which enhances the gameday experience for general fans, club seat holders, and luxury suite patrons.

GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

In addition to Buccaneer Cove and BucVision, Raymond James Stadium offers numerous attractions to fans that make the Buccaneers gameday experience unlike any other in professional sports. Some of the attractions include:

- PRE-GAME BANDS – Eight bands perform for two hours prior to every game.
- ANIMATED PARROT – A “talking parrot” located on the aft of the Pirate Ship entertains fans prior to the game.
- PRE-GAME CEREMONY – During the National Anthem, a 125-person crew unfurls the NFL's largest United States Flag across the playing field.
- FACE-PAINTING PIRATES – Face-painting pirates stroll in Buccaneer Cove, the concourses and club level throughout the game.
- BUCCANEER BATTLE FLAGS – Each time the Buccaneers offense advances into the opposition's “red zone,” red flags that adorn the top of the stadium are raised while a 60-person crew waves red flags throughout the stadium as the Pirate Ship's cannons are fired.

THE BEST IN THE NFL

Raymond James Stadium was rated as having the best natural grass field in the National Football League in 2006. The NFL Players Association polled 1,511 active players, who voted Tampa Bay's home stadium the top turf in the NFL. The home of the Buccaneers has also ranked first in the six previous surveys: 1994, 1996, 1998, 2000, 2002 and 2004. Tampa Bay has played in RJS since the start of the 1998 campaign.

ONE BUCCANEER PLACE

The Buccaneers' new headquarters, a 136,320-square-foot complex with every conceivable advancement related to the game of football, is an NFL landmark. Every player, coach and staff member who left the team's old and outdated facility last summer became better equipped to do their jobs the moment they walked through the front door of the new place.

The main building's entrance, wrought in steel and glass and backlit at night in red, is visually stunning but it is also plainly symbolic. Simply put, everything that goes on through those doors is dedicated to one overriding pursuit.

Football.

The Buccaneers' new facility opened for business in August 2006, just in time for the team's return from training camp. By the end of September, the entire organization had moved over from the former One Buccaneer Place, which had been its home since 1976. There are three full-sized practice fields out back; a 9,353-square-foot weight room in a separate building; a sprawling training area with the most modern tools for the team's medical staff; a 2,400-square-foot team auditorium fronted by an enormous video screen; a video control room that looks like the bridge of a spaceship; dozens of wired meeting rooms; a dedicated draft room, spacious coaches offices; a fully-contained kitchen and dining area; a locker room more than double the size of its predecessor and much, much more. The new One Buccaneer Place also houses all of the front office departments, including human resources, ticket sales, customer service, public relations, information technology, community relations and marketing.

It is, in a word, everything. The Buccaneers have everything they need to pursue the team's ultimate goal of Super Bowl championships.

ROOM TO BREATHE: THE LOCKER ROOM AND PLAYERS LOUNGE

The locker room at the new One Buccaneer Place covers 6,600 square feet – more than twice the size of the one it replaced – and looks even more spacious thanks to the vaulted ceilings, subtle lighting and lack of clutter in the middle. The locker room at the former facility needed two rows of back-to-back lockers in the middle of the floor to get every player into one, and those rows removed any hope of clear sight lines or walking paths.

The oak paneling and accents are everywhere, giving the room an opulent feel. The carpet, in turn, returns the focus to the team; it is dominated in the middle by a huge version of the team's logo, measuring about 40 feet from one tip diagonally to the other.

The most noticeable feature of the room is its depth. One can walk into the east end of the locker room, across the hall from an equally cavernous equipment room and feel like you're a Joey Galloway bomb away from the west end, where many of the veterans have set up shop.

The size of the lockers themselves is an improvement, too. Four feet across, these wood-paneled lockers have enough drawers, shelves and hooks to store any equipment a player might need. Each locker is wired for power and the ergonomic chairs that sit in front of each locker can be folded easily and tucked away in a compartment at the bottom of the space.

The size of the lockers themselves is an improvement, too. Four feet across, these wood-paneled lockers have enough drawers, shelves and hooks to store any equipment a player might need. Each locker is wired for power and the ergonomic chairs that sit in front of each locker can be folded easily and tucked away in a compartment at the bottom of the space.

Each locker is also equipped with a ventilation system and two large vents, one behind the low shelf where shoes are stored and one behind the top shelf where shoulder pads are usually kept. In addition to keeping the lockers smelling fresh, these vents also allow the players' shoes and pads to dry 60% quicker than before.

The locker rooms are supported by a much improved shower and restroom area, as well.

At the former One Buc Place, up to 90 players often had to share four urinals, four toilets, four sinks and about five working showerheads. The new locker room has eight urinals, seven toilets, 14 sinks and 24 showerheads, all in perfect working order and all utilizing automatic sensors. The showers, for instance, only work if a person is standing right in front of the showerhead. Around the four walls of the beautifully-tiled shower room, where 16 of the 24 showerheads are located, there are also 12 mounted dispensers of shampoo and shower gel. The showerheads are equipped with high-pressure, adjustable nozzles.

Sitting side-by-side between the shower and the sinks are a tiled steam room and a wood-paneled sauna. The sinks are set in black marble and set in front of long mirrors. Players can choose between towels and mounted hand dryers after using the sinks.

Gone, too, are the days when players had to eat, play dominoes or read the newspaper at their lockers, or some other stolen corner of the building. Walk through the south doors of the locker room and down a short hall and you're in another expansive, wood-paneled room: the Players Lounge.

The lounge sits on the back edge of the building, facing the practice field with 27 windows stretching up to its high, vaulted ceiling. The room is filled with two black leather couches and 14 black leather chairs, several of them facing the gigantic entertainment center along the east wall. The entertainment center is fitted with five flat screen TVs, one very large one surrounded by four smaller ones. It also houses a sophisticated sound system, which is hooked up to speakers around the room.

For players to relax, the lounge is equipped with two pool tables, a bank of free-standing video games and tables at which to play dominoes or other games.

WIRED FOR EFFICIENCY: THE VIDEO EDITING SUITE

Everything in the Buccaneers' new video department, located across a broad swath of the second floor of the team's brand new facility, is wired for ease and efficiency. Every likely request by a coach or player has been planned for in advance.

In the main video area, which is raised a foot or so from the rest of the second floor to allow for intricate cabling under the floor, a long, three-sided deck of editing machines forms the central control area. Here, five editing stations (there were three at old One Buc) allow for the rapid cut-up of game and practice footage. Every play in practice or a game is categorized and entered into the system, where it is instantly available to coaches and players all across the building.

In the video room at the old headquarters, this control center was surrounded by shelves holding hundreds of tapes, the main library for any footage a coach might want to view or combine into a highlight reel. In the new facility, there is a separate room for storage of current footage, as well as the department's servers. There is also another separate room, located just across the hall, that holds 22 long shelves to be used for storage of tapes from many years past.

Off the main video floor is a fourth room, and it doesn't take a cynic to notice that this room is about the exact same size and shape as the department's lone room back at the old One Buccaneer Place. This new room has a shelf running around the circumference of the room, on which is arranged various clumps of equipment. This room, this doppelganger for where the video team used to perform all of its work, is solely for the purpose of such side projects as printing labels, repairing equipment and stripping cable.

At the former One Buc, all these activities went on inside that little rectangle, wherever a piece of real estate could be found.

A PLACE OF HEALING: THE TRAINING ROOM

Todd Toriscelli, the Bucs' head trainer since 1997, and team physician Joe Diaco are very experienced veterans in their fields, and each insists that the team's new medical area is the best in the NFL by a long shot.

There is, for instance, a huge physician's room, replacing a thin closet that served that purpose in the old building. Now when Diaco and the team's other attending physicians visit, they can see a player privately, examine him as thoroughly as necessary and provide treatment in a space that, alone, is as big as the entire training area at the former One Buccaneer Place. And that's only a small corner of the new facility's medical footprint.

The physician's room is off to the right of Toriscelli's office, next to the expansive rehab area, which looks like a slightly miniaturized version of the facility's already legendary weight room. That, too, is something completely new for the training staff. At the old One Buccaneer Place, the rehab area was also known as "the weight room." Now, says Toriscelli, the medical staff is completely self-contained in terms of the equipment it needs to return injured players to health.

Players who need aquatic rehab can do it right on site, in the already very popular hydro room. The team has gone from three metal tubs to three large pools – one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. This pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill.

The hydro room is to the left of Toriscelli's office, past additional large offices for his assistants. In the middle of all of this is the main training area, with a dozen large taping tables and all sorts of equipment. The old training area could fit into this middle space several times over. The whole place has a quiet, professional atmosphere, which is a function of its enormous space.

A REAL STRENGTH: THE WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at the Bucs' new headquarters happens to be its own separate building, covering 9,353 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway. The very first time it opened its doors for an official team workout, two-thirds of the team was waiting to use it. That would not have been remotely possible at the old headquarters.

There are 60-70 different types of machines, about 30 of which are completely new to the Bucs' inventory, and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

In the past, as the Bucs have moved from one coaching staff to another and one strength and conditioning leader to another, the weight room's overriding philosophy has changed. One strength and conditioning coach might favor free weights over machines and stock only those; the next coach might believe in the opposite and clear out the weights to make room for new machines.

The Bucs' current program, under Mike Morris and Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach Kurtis Shultz, doesn't believe in limiting its scope to one of those two philosophies. Tampa Bay players have access to weights and machines, and to coaches who are eager to devise specific regimens that will work for specific individuals.

The team also wants to encourage strength training by giving the weight room a very inviting atmosphere. As such, it has been fitted with a sensational sound system, a must in any workout area. Also, the wall that faces the field is dominated by six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year. There is a strong air-conditioning system, of course, and the room's many windows keeps the place bright and uplifting.

AT YOUR FINGERTIPS: STATE-OF-THE-ART MEETING ROOMS

The NFL is a fully-wired world these days, and that concept is executed to perfection by the state-of-the-art technology that traces through the Buccaneers' headquarters like a nerve system.

That is certainly true in the player meeting rooms, which occupy a good portion of the ground floor, stretching around two sides of the enormous locker room. Coaches and players have gone from cramped, multi-purpose rooms with outdated equipment to spacious, specific areas outfitted with an incredibly efficient system for the sharing of information.

It starts in the back of each room, where a futuristic-looking desk called the Coach's Command Station is situated. It might be the most aptly-named piece of equipment in the building, because it looks as if it was lifted right from the bridge of a Star Trek cruiser. It doesn't have force fields or phasers, but it does allow a coach to run his meeting at warp speed.

The Coach's Command Station is fitted with five possible methods of output: a Betacam deck, a document camera, a DVD/VCR combo deck, an XOS PC link and a guest PC hookup. Seated behind his curved and compact desk, the coach controls all of these possibilities with a single remote and can flick quickly from one to the next. Whatever he chooses to share with his players is instantly displayed on a huge screen at the front of the room.

By the coach's right hand in his command station is a gray console with a small screen showing his touch options. The universal remote, set up in a way familiar to the coaches from the systems they've worked on for years, is also by his right hand. With these two devices, he can quickly take his players through any splice of footage he needs them to see, from practices, Buc games or opponents' games.

The system already includes every game played in the NFL over the last four years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Dave Levy's crew. Every practice is shot by several video workers on lifts located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his men.

Sometimes, too, a coach wishes to draw up a few Xs and Os. For generations, that's been done on a blackboard or a greaseboard. Now, with a flick of a switch, a coach can whip up any diagram while seated at his command station and share it instantly with his players.

That's possible through the aforementioned document camera, which looks like a futuristic cross between a desk lamp and a telephone. The lead arm of the doc cam is aimed down at the coach's desk, and anything slid underneath it is projected with extreme clarity on the same huge screen used to watch cutups.

Every coach also has his own spacious office on the second floor, where he can access the same cut-up footage and assemble reels of whatever subject he wishes. Those reels can then be accessed virtually anywhere in the football side of the building.

The wonders of the new One Buccaneer Place go beyond these few areas, spilling out, for instance, into a high-tech field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a state-of-the-art studio for press conferences. What is its best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its walls, but suffice it to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA

TAMPA BAY 02.01.09

SUPER BOWL XLIII

The Super Bowl returns to the Tampa Bay area on February 1, 2009, when Raymond James Stadium will host Super Bowl XLIII.

This will mark the fourth time that Tampa has hosted the world's premier sporting event, and the second time that the game will be played at Raymond James Stadium. Super Bowls XVIII and XXV were both played in Tampa Stadium, and Super Bowl XXXV was held at Raymond James Stadium. Seating capacity for Raymond James Stadium will be increased to 72,500 to accommodate the game. Tampa Bay becomes only one of four cities to have hosted the Super Bowl on at least four occasions.

SUPER BOWL XXXV

On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning their first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defended against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail.

Current Buccaneer CB Ronde Barber's twin brother, RB Tiki Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins' pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. However, WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt with four seconds left, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's Run-and-Shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded FGs, Bills RB Don Smith burrowed in from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Ottis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch.

After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

BEHIND THE STADIUM'S NAME

Established in 1962 and a public company since 1983, Raymond James Financial, Inc. is a diversified financial services holding company with headquarters in St. Petersburg, Florida, where the company employs close to 3,500 associates. Worldwide, more than 10,000 financial advisors and employees of affiliated firms and subsidiaries provide securities brokerage and financial planning, investment banking, asset management, and banking services.

WHO IS RAYMOND JAMES?

Raymond James was incorporated as Robert A. James Investments in 1962. So where does the "Raymond" come from?

The name was created when Raymond and Associates merged into Bob James' original firm, forming Raymond James & Associates, now one subsidiary of Raymond James Financial, Inc.

The foundation of Raymond James' business is the firm's Private Client Group, which provides financial planning and investment services to more than 1.7 million individual and institutional client accounts through approximately 4,800 financial advisors in the United States, Canada and overseas.

Raymond James has been ranked highly in national surveys for customer service and trustworthiness and is well-known for its commitment to clients, conservative management and a balanced approach to business.

The company has held the naming rights to the stadium since its opening in 1998 and will continue as the named sponsor through at least 2015.

RAYMOND JAMES & THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS: TEAMING UP TO HELP OTHERS

Raymond James has a proud tradition of encouraging its associates to give back to the communities in which they live and work. The company matches that commitment with its own philanthropy as a supporter of the United Way of Tampa Bay, as well as several education and arts organizations. In addition, Raymond James and the Buccaneers team up with two programs during the football season: Kicking for Kids and Sack Hunger.

KICKING + FOR + KIDS

KICKING FOR KIDS

This season marks the ninth year of combining the Buccaneers' on-field success with a commitment to helping children throughout the country through the Kicking for Kids program.

For every field goal made during a regular or postseason game, Raymond James contributes $1,000 to a children's hospital in the city where the kick is made, or a minimum of $500.

In addition, Buccaneers placekicker Matt Bryant visited several hospitals in the Tampa Bay area in 2007 to help Raymond James financial advisors present the contributions to hospital representatives and visit with patients.

Since its inception, the program has raised more than $124,000 for children's hospitals around the United States.

SACK HUNGER

For the past five years Raymond James and the Glazer Family Foundation have worked to “sack hunger” by stocking Tampa Bay area food banks before the Thanksgiving holiday.

This effort has collected more than 105 tons of nonperishable food items for families through special drives, as well as game day collections.

This year’s annual Sack Hunger game day food drive will be held November 16, 2008, prior to the Buccaneers game against Minnesota.

THE TOM AND MARY JAMES/RAYMOND JAMES FINANCIAL ART COLLECTION

Raymond James is known for more than investments and having its name on the “crown jewel” of NFL stadiums. Its headquarters is also the home of another Tampa Bay gem: The Tom and Mary James/ Raymond James Financial Art Collection.

On display throughout the company’s campus is a mix of art – from life-size bronze sculptures to wildlife paintings and hand-blown glass – that makes up one of the Southeast’s largest private collections. More than 95% privately owned by Chairman and CEO Tom James and his wife, Mary, the collection consists of some 1,850 pieces and provides associates and clients with a rare environment for conducting business.

A virtual tour of some of the collection is available at raymondjames.com; on-site tours can also be arranged.

BUCCANEERS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers remained champions in the community during the 2007 season. Buccaneers players, coaches, cheerleaders and staff members all joined the team to positively impact those in the Tampa Bay area.

The following includes highlights from the 2007 season and information about the number of lives touched by the team through far-reaching initiatives.

2007 YEAR IN REVIEW

-  More than 35,000 fans got up-close and personal with their favorite Buccaneers at FanFest
-  $62,000 was donated in support of youth football
-  10 high school coaches were recognized for excellence
-  Over 3,500 students were impacted by a Buccaneers' message or visit to their school
-  Nearly 500 families received food during the holidays
-  Several hundred items of Buccaneers team apparel and clothing were distributed through Metropolitan Ministries' Outreach & Prevention program
-  50 parents were recognized for great achievements
-  More than 1,000 local children received toys collected by Buccaneers players in exchange for their autographs during a "Sports Day" event at a local charity
-  Nearly 1,000 kids learned football from several starting players who each hosted their own training camp
-  19 players and coaches hosted more than 4,000 youths from area non-profits at home games

-  Over 400 patients at local children's hospitals received get well wishes from the Bucs

WR Ike Hilliard enjoys testing out the new physical education equipment donated to Sulphur Springs Elementary School through Hometown Huddle, an initiative between the Buccaneers and United Way.

ROOKIE CLUB

The Buccaneers Rookie Club was established during the 2001 season as a way to involve the Buccaneers rookie class in charitable appearances throughout the season to help them learn more about their new community.

In 2007, the Rookie Club hosted a bowling outing for youngsters on the Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Hillsborough County waiting list, taught football skills to local children, celebrated Halloween at The Children's Home, visited patients at All Children's Hospital and sang holiday carols for residents of Westminster Palms Retirement Home. Each Thanksgiving, Buccaneers Rookie Club members distribute dinners at the Metropolitan Ministries Holiday Tent for those who receive assistance during the holidays.

DE Gaines Adams spent the day teaching local youth the ins and outs of football at the inaugural Rookie Club Youth Football Camp.

STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD (SAB)

During the 1999 offseason, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Community Relations Department formed their inaugural Student Advisory Board (SAB). While this team of about 40 motivated high schoolers may not appear on the roster, the SAB is an integral part of the Buccaneers community outreach efforts.

The Buccaneers created this council, comprised of high school sophomores, juniors and seniors, in an effort to bring together intelligent, energetic and motivated students to perform community service projects, create Buccaneers spirit in their schools and develop leadership skills in preparation for continuing education.

This year, SAB members served as volunteers at the Buccaneers Women's Organization Fall Festival, The Children's Home Halloween Party, Gatorade Junior Training Camp and Metropolitan Ministries. SAB students also participated in the Susan G. Komen Foundation Race for the Cure, as well as the American Heart Association Heart Walk and a beach cleanup on the Ben T. Davis Beach.

In 2007, SAB members completed many community service projects, including cleaning up the shore of Ben T. Davis Beach.

THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers Women's Organization consists of wives, fiancées and girlfriends of Buccaneers players, coaches and front-office staff members. Throughout the year, the Women's Organization participates in charitable functions and community service projects in the Bay area.

Each year, the Women's Organization holds a Fall Festival at Raymond James Stadium for children of local non-profit agencies. At the festival, children make arts and crafts, run through football drills on the stadium's field, get their faces painted and receive goodie bags. Annually, Women's Organization members also sort food at Metropolitan Ministries during the Thanksgiving season, stuff stockings for children in need and read to elementary-aged children as part of a literacy program.

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

In 2007, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers started the "Random Acts of Kindness" program as a way to reach out to everyday fans. Derived out of the concept of giving back to as many random people as possible, the program was a major hit with fans. Partnering with team sponsors, the Buccaneers took players to random locations in the Bay area to surprise fans with gifts from the team.

BUCCANEERS DAY OF GIVING

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers surprised 30 families with holiday gifts, Buccaneers game tickets, a shopping spree and more during the inaugural "Buccaneers Day of Giving." The families, selected by local nonprofit agencies, reported to One Buccaneer Place under the impression they were receiving a tour of the team's headquarters. Buccaneers players, cheerleaders and Captain Fear revealed the true reason behind their visit during a surprise assembly in the team's auditorium before bussing the group to a nearby retail store for the spending spree.

TURKEY TIME WITH THE O-LINE

New for 2007, Buccaneers offensive linemen teamed up to purchase 400 meals for disadvantaged families in the Tampa Bay area during the Buccaneers' "Turkey Time with the O-Line" drive at One Buccaneer Place. The Buccaneers' brand new practice facility was transformed into a fully functional drive-up service for the families to receive their meals. Organizations like the United Way of Tampa Bay and Publix made this spectacular event a reality.

BUCCANEERS RADIO NETWORK

In its fifth year, Clear Channel's US 103.5 FM will serve as the flagship station for the Buccaneers Radio Network. US 103.5 will broadcast all Buccaneers games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area. Clear Channel will also simulcast Buccaneers football on its sister station, 620 WDAE-AM.

Handling the play-by-play duties for the 20th straight season is Gene Deckerhoff. Deckerhoff's 20 years of service with the Buccaneers currently ranks as the fifth-longest in the NFL. Considered one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff has also served as the voice of Florida State University football and basketball since 1979.

Deckerhoff is the former play-by-play man for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and also served as the sports director for WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. Deckerhoff is a 10-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Dave Moore, former Tampa Bay Buccaneers tight end, enters his second season as color analyst with the Bucs Radio Network.

Moore spent 13 of his 15 seasons in the NFL with the Buccaneers. The seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) started his first season with the Dolphins in 1992 before joining the Buccaneers. Following a stint in Buffalo during the 2002 campaign, Moore returned to the Bay area and finished his NFL career with 207 receptions for 2,028 receiving yards and 28 touchdowns. He also made a Pro Bowl appearance in 2006.

T.J. Rives begins his fourth season as Tampa Bay's sideline reporter. Rives served as the radio play-by-play voice for Men's Basketball at the University of South Florida and has hosted radio and television programs in the Tampa Bay area since 1992. Rives currently hosts a national college sports show on XM Satellite Radio.

Buccaneers fans across the state can tune into Tampa Bay games thanks to the Buccaneers Radio Network. Deckerhoff's descriptions of the action and all of the attending pre-game, halftime and post-game action are simulcast on radio stations throughout the state.

This season Orlando fans can catch all the Buccaneers game day action on WTKS 104.1 FM. A full list of Buccaneers Radio Network affiliates is in the box below.

CHEERLEADERS

They have charmed fans from the sidelines and cheered the Buccaneers to many victories, including a Super Bowl Championship. Since 1976, the Buccaneers Cheerleaders have captivated audiences worldwide with their energetic and contemporary routines.

The squad has included local athletes, businesswomen, mothers and full-time college students – who still find time to make hundreds of appearances every year for both non-profit organizations and corporate events.

In addition to their volunteer work in the Bay area community, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders make regular appearances all over the United States, serving as ambassadors for the Buccaneer organization. The team has performed in locations outside of the Bay area, including Asia, Canada, Egypt, Europe, Australia, California, Hawaii, and Texas.

SANDY CHARBONEAU

CHEERLEADING/MASCOT MANAGER

Sandy Charboneau enters her 15th season overall with the Buccaneers Cheerleaders. She spent her first seven seasons with the team performing as a member of the cheerleading squad. Charboneau, who boasts more than 20 years of cheerleading and dance experience, prepares the squad's pre-game and sideline dance routines, and manages its day-to-day operations. Each year, Charboneau searches for beautiful and dynamic candidates to entertain Buccaneers fans at each home game. She is committed to spreading Buccaneers spirit around the Bay area through community and corporate appearances. Charboneau also manages the team mascot, Captain Fear, and the Pewter Pirates, a crew that invades the Buccaneers' end zone each time the team scores a touchdown. Additionally, she directs the Junior Cheerleaders, a cheerleading clinic for young cheerleaders that concludes with a performance at a Buccaneers Halftime Show.

For more information about the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders and Captain Fear, please visit www.buccaneers.com or call (813) 870-2700.

Since its launch in 1999, Buccaneers.com has emerged as the definitive source for information, entertainment, video, photography, game coverage and locker-room access regarding the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 2007, a new Buccaneers.com was launched to put the team on the cutting-edge of internet sports coverage and provide more direct access to the site's most popular features.

Buccaneers.com hosts updated news, video and photos, contests, interactive opportunities and a fan message board. Visit the site and watch Head Coach Jon Gruden's weekly press conference stream live each Monday.

Buccaneers.com remains the only source of up-to-the-minute information for Buccaneers fans.

MEDIA TOOLS

- Constantly updated and easy to download rosters, depth charts, weekly releases, statistics pages and other informational files
- Always up-to-date press release archives
- Daily links to newspaper articles concerning the Buccaneers
- Credential information and other team media policies

NEWS SOURCE

- Official source for news on team transactions, such as player signings, roster cuts and depth chart changes
- Always up-to-date roster, depth chart and transactions page
- Feature articles on relevant players and subjects

MULTIMEDIA CENTER

- Podcasts of weekly radio shows, press conferences and other events made available shortly after their conclusion
- Live coverage of all postgame and day-after-game press conferences by head coach, in addition to other selected press conferences
- Frequent video and audio interviews in the Buccaneers Multimedia Network, complete with deep archive spanning several seasons
- Weekly game highlights produced by NFL Films
- NFL Network coverage of the Buccaneers
- Fan-interactive interviews and other elements
- Deepest on-line image archive in the league, easily sorted by player or game

GAME COVERAGE

- Pregame news, including injury updates, lineup information, inactives and thoughts from the head coach
- In-game updates, including play-by-play, quarterly stats and game-story updates at the end of each period
- Game photos transmitted directly from Buccaneers' sideline
- Up-to-the-minute injury and lineup information
- Wrap up story posted immediately after the game

ADDITIONAL FEATURES

- Cheerleader section featuring photos, bios and diary entries
- Ticket and seating information, plus season-ticket waiting list
- Detailed stadium information, featuring seating diagrams, parking maps and concession locations

2008 TRAINING CAMP

For the seventh consecutive season, the Buccaneers' training camp will be held at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex in Lake Buena Vista, Florida.

Tampa Bay is the first and only NFL team to conduct training camp at the sports complex at Walt Disney World Resort. Prior to the 2002 training camp, the Buccaneers trained at the University of Tampa from 1987-2001. Disney's complex, which is approximately one hour east of Tampa, provides the Buccaneers with practice fields, locker room, training room and many other first-class facilities.

DATES: The Buccaneers will report to training camp on Friday, July 25 and begin practices on Saturday, July 26. The club is scheduled to break camp on Thursday, August 14th following a morning practice. All dates and times are subject to change.

PRACTICES: While Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex has a daily admission for its events, Buccaneer practices at training camp will be free to all fans and open to the public.

CREDENTIALS: To request credentials for training camp, go to www.buccaneers.com/trainingcamprequest

MEDIA PARKING: The sports complex includes ample parking in excess of more than 3,500 spaces. Media parking will be available on a first-come, first-served basis with a parking pass in the front two rows of the parking lot. All parking locations are free of charge. The main lot offers handicap-accessible spaces closest to the sports complex main walkway.

DIRECTIONS TO DISNEY'S WIDE WORLD OF SPORTS COMPLEX

• Traveling East on I-4

Take I-4 East to Exit 62 (World Dr. North). Exit right to Osceola Parkway. Take a right on Victory Way, which leads to the sports complex. Park in the designated media area in the front of the main lot and proceed to the main entrance.

• Traveling West on I-4

Take I-4 West to Exit 65 (Osceola Parkway West). Take a left on Victory Way, which leads to the sports complex. Park in the designated media area in the front of main lot and proceed to the main entrance.

• From the Orlando International Airport

Take 417 South to Walt Disney World and take Exit 3 (Osceola Parkway West). Go over I-4 onto Disney property and then take a left on Victory Way, which leads to the sports complex. Park in the designated media area in the front of the main lot and proceed to the main entrance.

DIRECTIONS TO THE FOOTBALL FIELDS AFTER ENTERING THE COMPLEX

Media may get from the parking lot to the field by walking along the main sidewalk past Champion Stadium and the Milk House to the sports fields. Media may get from the parking lot to the press room by walking along the main sidewalk and taking a left into Champion Stadium. (There will be an open gate directly across from Disney's Wide World of Sports Cafe). The opening in the gate is adjacent to an elevator. Take the elevator to the fourth floor and the press box is just ahead to the right.

To get from the press box to the sports fields, take the elevator back down to the second floor. Exit the elevator and walk outside the stadium gate. Walk past the stadium and the cafe and then past the Milk House. The fields are down the stairs and directly ahead.

MEDIA POLICIES AND GAMEDAY INFORMATION

MEDIA POLICIES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for Tampa Bay Buccaneers players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Public Relations Department, headed by Director of Public Relations Jeffrey Kamis. Interviews to be conducted by phone must be arranged at least two days in advance and will be subject to availability. Head Coach Jon Gruden will address the media directly practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and will make a weekly conference call each Wednesday to speak with the opposing team's media. Gruden's scheduled day-after-game press conference during the regular season will be at 11:00 a.m.

Open Locker Room Periods: The Buccaneers' locker room is open for accredited media each Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Times for the open locker room session are available by contacting the PR department at (813) 870-2700. Players and coaches are not available for interviews on Tuesdays.

Practice Regulations: Times for the team's weekly practices are available by calling the Buccaneers' PR department. All practices are closed to the media. Media, still photographers and videographers may attend approximately the first 30 minutes of practice. A member of the Buccaneers' PR department will escort the media back to the practice field at the conclusion of the practice to conduct interviews with head coach Jon Gruden and other members of the coaching staff. Buccaneer players will not be available for interviews after practice.

Game Credentials: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignment and must be made through the Buccaneers' PR department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a free-lance basis unless the request is made by a recognized publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. All credential requests must be submitted to Jeffrey Kamis, Director of Public Relations, One Buccaneer Place, Tampa, FL 33607, online at www.buccaneers.com/gamedayrequest or by fax at (813) 387-6317 and must be on the requesting organization's letterhead.

Press Releases: The Buccaneers' weekly press release, including updated statistics, player bios, etc., may be obtained in the team's press facility at One Buccaneer Place or on the internet at www.buccaneers.com in the media center. To access the media center, please contact the PR department for a user name and password. The team's weekly injury report can be found in the same locations.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Entry: The media entrance at Raymond James Stadium is located near Dock D on the southwest corner of the facility. The entrance to the media lobby can be found just north of the southwest ramps and just south of the television truck parking area. The press box and television and radio booths may be reached via a media-dedicated elevator on the east side of the lobby.

Will Call: Members of the media needing to pick up their pass at the game will find the media will call area just inside the media entrance at Dock D. The media will call is staffed beginning four hours prior to kickoff. Ticket will call is located on the south end of the stadium, accessible from the outside between Ramps C and D.

Phones: Media needing a phone on gameday must contact Sandra Jones of Sprint (800-989-9974) prior to the day of the game. If you do not place an order prior to the day of the game, you will be responsible for any charges from Sprint for setting up these services on gameday.

Locker Room Access: Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The media elevator will transport members of the press that wish to visit the locker room at a designated time in the fourth quarter. To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevator to the ground level and follow the corridor running parallel to the field's west sideline.

NOTE: No interviews of players for either team are allowed on the field following the game.
